Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The officers and directors of the Company are indemnified as provided by the Nevada Revised Statutes ("NRS") and the Bylaws of the Company.

Under the NRS, a corporation has the power to provide directors with immunity from monetary liabilities and may do so by including such language in the corporation's articles of incorporation or bylaws. Corporations are empowered to protect directors from breach of the duty of care, but not breaches of the duty of loyalty or the duty of disclosure. Directors who are so protected are free from personal financial liability whether monetary damages arise from legal or equitable remedies. However, directors may still be subject to equitable remedies such as injunction, rescission, and corrective disclosure.

Under the NRS, a corporation may not provide immunity from:

- (a) Any breach of a director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders;
- (b) Acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law;
- (c) Unlawful payment of dividends or unlawful stock purchases or redemptions; and
- (d) Any transaction from which the director derives an improper personal benefit.

Article XII of the Articles of Incorporation, as amended, state certain indemnification rights. Our Bylaws provide that we will possess and may exercise all powers of indemnification of officers, directors, employees, agents and other persons and all incidental powers and authority. Our Board of Directors is authorized and empowered to exercise all of our powers of indemnification, without shareholder action. Our assets could be used or attached to satisfy any liabilities subject to indemnification.

The Company's bylaws provide that directors and officers shall be indemnified by the Company to the fullest extent authorized by the NRS, as it now exists or may in the future be amended, against all expenses and liabilities reasonably incurred in connection with services for or on behalf of the Company. The bylaws also authorize the Company to enter into one or more agreements with any person that provide for indemnification greater or different from that provided in the bylaws.

In August, 2001, the Company amended its Bylaws of the Corporation. The Company has included in such Bylaws the following provision:

Edgar Filing: RRUN VENTURES NETWORK INC - Form S-8

(a) Director Immunity. Directors will be immune from monetary liabilities to the fullest extent not prohibited by Nevada law. Excepted from that immunity are:

* a willful failure to deal fairly with the corporation or its shareholders in connection with a matter in which the director has a material conflict of interest;

* a violation of criminal law unless the director had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was lawful or no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful;

* a transaction from which the director derived an improper personal profit; and * willful misconduct.

(b) Directors and Officers. The corporation will indemnify its directors and officers to the fullest extent not prohibited by Nevada law; provided, however, that the corporation may modify the extent of such indemnification by individual contracts with its directors and officers; and, provided, further, that the corporation shall not be required to indemnify any director or officer in connection with any proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person unless (i) such indemnification is expressly required to be made by law, (ii) the proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors of the corporation, (iii) such indemnification is provided by the corporation, in its sole discretion, pursuant to the powers vested in the corporation under Nevada law or (iv) such indemnification is required to be made pursuant to these Bylaws.

Other relevant provisions appear in Article XI of the Bylaws of the Corporation and are incorporated by reference in this Registration. See Item 8 - Exhibits below.
