Item 8.01 Other Events

Effective August 21, 2017, Bruce M. Cazenave, Chief Executive Officer of Nautilus, Inc. (the “Company”), adopted a stock trading plan (the “10b5-1 Plan”). The 10b5-1 Plan was adopted in accordance with guidelines specified by Rule 10b5-1 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the Company’s insider trading policies.

Rule 10b5-1 permits corporate officers, directors and others to adopt written, pre-arranged stock trading plans when they are not in possession of material, non-public information. Using these plans, insiders may gradually diversify their investment portfolios and spread stock trades over a period of time regardless of any material, non-public information they may receive after adopting their plans. In accordance with Rule 10b5-1, Mr. Cazenave will have no discretion over the sales of his shares of common stock under the plan.

Under the 10b5-1 Plan, up to 107,000 shares of the Company’s common stock will be sold into the marketplace in monthly installments, subject to satisfaction of certain conditions. The shares to be sold under the 10b5-1 Plan will be issued to Mr. Cazenave in connection with the contemporaneous exercise under the plan of stock options scheduled to expire in 2018 and early 2019. It is expected that sales under the 10b5-1 Plan will commence on November 9, 2017 and will be completed within one year. Mr. Cazenave currently has an ownership interest in a total of 593,788 shares of the Company’s stock, including shares underlying currently exercisable stock options, shares underlying previously vested restricted stock units and shares underlying restricted stock units that have not yet vested.

Any transactions under the 10b5-1 Plan will be disclosed publicly through Form 4 filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission when due. The Company does not undertake to report 10b5-1 trading plans by other officers or directors of the Company in the future, or to report modifications or terminations of any such plans, whether or not the plan was publicly announced, except as may be required by law.
