Section 1 Registrant's Business and Operations

Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

Fossil, Inc. (the Company) and Harold S. Brooks entered into an Employment Agreement on October 31, 2004 that provides for Mr. Brooks employment as President of the Company's Watch Division. Mr. Brooks will receive an annual salary of $390,000 and a signing bonus of $125,000. The Company granted Mr. Brooks an option to purchase 60,000 shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price equal to the Company's closing stock price on the date of grant. The option will annually vest in five equal installments over a five year term. The Company also issued Mr. Brooks a restricted stock award of 30,000 shares of Company common stock, which will annually vest in five equal installments over a five year period. Mr. Brooks additionally participated in the Company's relocation policy, which in addition to providing for moving and relocation expenses, provides for a one time payment to Mr. Brooks of $50,000 (which may be increased to account for taxes, but in no event to exceed $70,000) to pay for relocation expense reimbursement to Mr. Brooks' previous employer. The Company has also agreed to reimburse Mr. Brooks for health insurance expenses until he is able to participate in the Company's benefit plan.

The term of the Employment Agreement is for two years, provided that the Company may terminate Mr. Brooks' employment with or without cause. Mr. Brooks may also terminate the agreement voluntarily or with good reason. If Mr. Brooks' employment is terminated by the company without cause, by Mr. Brooks for good reason or by Mr. Brooks because the Company has materially failed to comply with the terms and conditions of the Employment Agreement, Mr. Brooks is entitled to receive (i) unpaid salary amounts and the cash equivalent of any accrued but unused vacation through the date of termination, (ii) the balance of his salary for the remaining term of the Employment Agreement and (iii) the options and restricted stock award described above shall vest to the extent such ownership is vested on the date of termination or 20%, whichever amount is greater. If Mr. Brooks voluntarily terminates his employment or it is terminated by the Company for cause, Mr. Brooks is entitled to receive unpaid salary amounts and the cash equivalent of any accrued but unused vacation through the date of termination and his options and restricted stock award shall cease to vest.

Mr. Brooks has agreed not to compete with the Company for a period of two years after any termination of his employment.

Section 5 Corporate Governance and Management

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers

Harold S. Brooks was appointed President of the Company's Watch Division on October 31, 2004. Mr. Brooks is 53 years old and served as President and Chief Executive Officer of Koret, a division of Kellwood, from December 2003 until his employment with the Company. While at Koret, Mr. Brooks was responsible for the second largest women's apparel division in Kellwood and the merchandising and design for five manufacturing divisions. From 2000 to 2003, Mr. Brooks held the position of Director of International Expansion, Planning and Allocation at Build-A-Bear Workshop, where he developed the company's expansion initiatives and was a director of planning and distribution. Prior to his employment with Build-A-Bear, Mr. Brooks served as President and Chief Executive Officer of Famous-Barr, a division of May Department Stores, where he oversaw a 43 store department store chain located in seven states with over 7,000 employees.

Edgar Filing: FOSSIL INC - Form 8-K
