Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure

On October 6, 2006, SI International Inc. (the Company) filed a Current Report on Form 8-K concerning the filing of a protest of the Company's September 1, 2006 award of a new prime contract, the Pre-Grant Publication Classification Services Contract (the Contract), to provide the United States Patent and Trademark Office (the USPTO) with pre-grant classification services in support of USPTO's mission of examining, granting, and disseminating patents and trademarks. Specifically, on September 27, 2006, the Company received a stop work order under the Contract and was advised that it was due to the USPTO's receipt of an agency-level protest of the award of the Contract to the Company. On October 13, 2006, the Company received notice that the protest had been withdrawn and that the Company was to resume work under the Contract.

The Contract is a firm-fixed price contract with a term of up to ten years, including all renewal options. The Company believes that, with all of the option and award term periods, this Contract has a potential value of approximately $138 million. This Form 8-K/A is furnished to, but not filed with, the Commission.

The above-referenced statements may contain forward-looking statements that are made pursuant to the safe-harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Expressions of future goals, financial information or reporting, and similar expressions reflecting something other than historical fact are intended to identify forward-looking statements, but are not the exclusive means of identifying such statements. These forward-looking statements may involve a number of risks and uncertainties, which are described in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. These risks and uncertainties include: changes in federal government (or other applicable) procurement laws, regulations, policies and budgets; risks relating to contract performance; changes in the competitive environment (including as a result of bid protests); and the important factors discussed in the Risk Factors section of the annual report on Form 10-K/A filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission and available directly from the Commission at www.sec.gov. The actual results may differ materially from any forward-looking statements due to such risks and uncertainties. The Company undertakes no obligations to revise or update any forward-looking statements in order to reflect events or circumstances that may arise after the date of this release.
