ITEM 1.01. ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT

On October 18, 2007, Force Protection, Inc. (the Registrant) was awarded a delivery order by the U.S. Marine Corps for 553 Cougar Category I vehicles and 247 Cougar Category II vehicles for the Mine Resistant Ambush Protected (MRAP) Program, for a total consideration of approximately $376 million. Fifty percent of the work under this contract will be performed by General Dynamics Land Systems, Inc. pursuant to a joint venture between the Registrant and General Dynamics Land Systems, Inc. The award was made pursuant to a letter contract between the Registrant and U.S. Marine Corps dated as of January 25, 2007 for the testing, production and sustainability for its MRAP vehicle program. This letter contract was filed as an exhibit to the Registrant's Current Report on Form 8-K filed on February 5, 2007.

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties, including, without limitation, statements concerning our business and possible or assumed future results of operations. Certain words, such as believe, may, could, will, intend, expect, anticipate, plan, and similar expressions are used to identify forward-looking statements. Undue reliance should not be placed on these forward-looking statements. The Registrant's actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in the forward-looking statements for many reasons including: its ability to raise capital when necessary; availability of parts and raw materials for its products; continued customer acceptance of its products; ongoing success of its research and development efforts; greater than expected costs; and other risks and uncertainties as may be detailed from time to time in the Registrant's public announcements and SEC filings. Although the Registrant believes the expectations reflected in the forward-looking statements are reasonable, they relate only to events as of the date on which the statements are made, and the Registrant's future results, levels of activity, performance or achievements may not meet these expectations. The Registrant does not intend to update any of the forward-looking statements after the date of this document to conform these statements to actual results or to changes in its expectations, except as required by law.
