ITEM 8.01. OTHER EVENTS.

On July 12, 2006, Neoprobe Corporation (the "Company") announced that it had initiated its Phase 2 multi-center study of Lymphoseek(TM), a lymphatic tissue targeting agent being developed by the Company. The Company was granted authorization by the FDA earlier this year to commence patient enrollment in a Phase 2 multi-center clinical study to evaluate the safety and efficacy of Lymphoseek. The Company issued a press release on July 12, 2006, announcing the initiation of the Phase 2 clinical study. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Statements contained or incorporated by reference in this Current Report on Form 8-K which relate to other than strictly historical facts, such as statements about the Company's plans and strategies, expectations for future financial performance, new and existing products and technologies, anticipated clinical and regulatory pathways, and markets for the Company's products are forward-looking statements. The words "believe," "expect," "anticipate," "estimate," "project," and similar expressions identify forward-looking statements that speak only as of the date hereof. Investors are cautioned that such statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from historical or anticipated results due to many factors including, but not limited to, the Company's continuing operating losses, uncertainty of market acceptance of its products, reliance on third party manufacturers, accumulated deficit, future capital needs, uncertainty of capital funding, dependence on limited product line and distribution channels, competition, limited marketing and manufacturing experience, risks of development of new products, regulatory risks and other risks detailed in the Company's most recent Annual Report on Form 10-KSB and other Securities and Exchange Commission filings. The Company undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements.
