A. Proper Exercise of Warrants

To exercise Warrants validly pursuant to the Offer, a properly completed and duly executed Election to Purchase attached as Exhibit A to the Warrant certificate or photocopy thereof, together with any required signature guarantees and payment of the Warrant exercise price, must be received by the Company at its address set forth on the last page of this document prior to the Expiration Date. The method of delivery of all required documents is at the option and risk of the exercising Warrant holders. If delivery is by mail, the Company recommends registered mail with return receipt requested (properly insured). In all cases, sufficient time should be allowed to assure timely delivery.

In the Election to Purchase attached as Exhibit A to the Warrant certificate, the exercising Warrant holder must: (i) set forth his, her or its name and address; and (ii) set forth the number of Warrants exercised.

All signatures on the Letters of Transmittal must be guaranteed by an “Eligible Institution.”

An “Eligible Institution” is a bank, broker dealer, credit union, savings association or other entity that is a member in good standing of the Securities Transfer Agents Medallion Program or a bank, broker, dealer, credit union, savings association or other entity which is an “eligible guarantor institution,” as that term is defined in Rule 17Ad-15 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”).

If the Warrants are registered in the name of a person other than the signer of the Election to Purchase attached as Exhibit A to the Warrant certificate, the Warrants must be endorsed or accompanied by appropriate instruments of assignment, in either case signed exactly as the name(s) of the registered owner(s) appear on the Warrants, with the signature(s) on the Warrants or instruments of assignment guaranteed.

Unless the Warrants being exercised are delivered to the Company by 5:00 p.m. Eastern Time, on the Expiration Date accompanied by a properly completed and duly executed Election to Purchase attached as Exhibit A to the Warrant certificate and payment of the Warrant exercise price, the Company may, at its option, treat such exercise as invalid. Issuance of Shares upon exercise of Warrants will be made only against the valid exercise of Warrants.

A exercise of Warrants pursuant to the procedures described below in this Section 2 will constitute a binding agreement between the exercising holder and the Company upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the Offer,

ALL DELIVERIES IN CONNECTION WITH THE OFFER, INCLUDING A ELECTION TO PURCHASE ATTACHED AS EXHIBIT A TO THE WARRANT CERTIFICATE AND PAYMENT OF THE WARRANT EXERCISE PRICE, MUST BE MADE TO THE COMPANY.

GUARANTEED DELIVERY. If you want to exercise your Warrants pursuant to the Offer, but (i) your Warrants are not immediately available or (ii) time will not permit all required documents to reach the Company prior to the Expiration Date, you can still exercise your Warrants, if all the following conditions are met:

(1) the exercise is made by or through an Eligible Institution;

the Company receives by hand, mail, overnight courier or fax, prior to the Expiration Date, a properly completed (2) and duly executed Notice of Guaranteed Delivery in the form the Company has provided with this Offer Letter (with signatures guaranteed by an Eligible Institution); and

In any event, the issuance of Shares for Warrants exercised pursuant to the Offer and accepted pursuant to the Offer will be made only after timely receipt by the Company of Warrants, properly completed, duly executed Letter(s) of Transmittal and any other required documents.

B. Conditions of the Offer

The conditions of the Offer are:

(1)

(3) there shall not have been any commission or other remuneration paid by us with respect to the solicitation of Warrant holders in connection with the Offer.

We may terminate the Offer if any of the conditions of the Offer are not satisfied prior to the Expiration Date. C. Determination of Validity

All questions as to the form of documents and the validity, eligibility (including time of receipt) and acceptance for exercise of any exercises of Warrants will be determined by the Company, in its sole discretion, and its determination shall be final and binding, subject to the judgment of any court. The Company reserves the absolute right, subject to the judgment of any court, to reject any or all exercises of Warrants that it determines are not in proper form or reject exercises of Warrants that may, in the opinion of the Company's counsel, be unlawful. The Company also reserves the absolute right, subject to the judgment of any court, to waive any defect or irregularity in any exercise of Warrants. Neither the Company nor any other person will be under any duty to give notice of any defect or irregularity in exercises, nor shall any of them incur any liability for failure to give any such notice.

The exercise of Warrants pursuant to the procedure described above will constitute a binding agreement between the exercising Warrant holder and the Company upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the Offer.

If the Warrants to be withdrawn have been delivered to the Company, a signed notice of withdrawal must be submitted to the Company prior to release of such Warrants. In addition, such notice must specify the name of the registered holder (if different from that of the exercising Warrant holder) and the serial numbers shown on the particular certificates evidencing the Warrants to be withdrawn. Withdrawal may not be cancelled, and Warrants for which exercises are withdrawn will thereafter be deemed not validly exercised for purposes of the Offer. However, Warrants for which exercises are withdrawn may be exercised again by following one of the procedures described in Section 2 at any time prior to the Expiration Date.

All questions as to the form and validity (including time of receipt) of any notice of withdrawal will be determined by the Company, in its sole discretion, which determination shall be final and binding, subject to the judgments of any courts that might provide otherwise. Neither the Company nor any other person will be under any duty to give notification of any defect or irregularity in any notice of withdrawal or incur any liability for failure to give any such notification, subject to the judgment of any court. You may combine withdrawn Warrants and Shares back into Units by sending a letter of instruction to your broker requesting the combination. The broker will then instruct the Company's transfer agent to process the combination.

4. ACCEPTANCE OF WARRANTS AND ISSUANCE OF SHARES

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the Offer, the Company will accept for exercise Warrants validly exercised as of the Expiration Date. The Shares to be issued will be delivered promptly following the Expiration Date. In all cases, Warrants will only be accepted for exercise pursuant to the Offer after timely receipt by the Company of certificates for Warrants either physically or through the book-entry delivery, a properly completed and duly executed Election to Purchase attached as Exhibit A to the Warrant certificate or manually signed copy thereof and the surrender of Warrants being exercised and payment of the Warrant exercise price.

For purposes of the Offer, the Company will be deemed to have accepted for exercise Warrants that are validly exercised and for which exercises are not withdrawn, unless the Company gives written notice to the Warrant holder of its non-acceptance prior to the Expiration Date.

If you exercise Warrants pursuant to the Offer, you will receive legended Shares, which are subject to restriction as to resale under the Securities Act of 1933.

5. BACKGROUND AND PURPOSE OF THE OFFER

A. Information Concerning Optex Systems Holdings, Inc.

Organizational History

On March 30, 2009, Optex Systems Holdings, Inc. (formerly known as Sustut Exploration, Inc.), a Delaware corporation, along with Optex Systems, Inc. (Delaware), which was a privately held Delaware corporation that has since become Optex Systems Holdings' wholly-owned subsidiary, entered into a reorganization agreement and plan of reorganization, pursuant to which Optex Systems, Inc. (Delaware) was acquired by Optex Systems Holdings in a share exchange transaction. At the closing of the reorganization, the registrant changed its name from Sustut Exploration Inc. to Optex Systems Holdings, Inc. and its year end from December 31 to a fiscal year ending on the Sunday nearest September 30. Optex Systems, Inc. (Delaware) has remained a wholly-owned subsidiary of Optex Systems Holdings, and Optex Systems, Inc. (Delaware)'s shareholders are now shareholders of Optex Systems Holdings.

Immediately prior to the closing under this reorganization agreement and plan of reorganization, as of March 30, 2009, Optex Systems, Inc. (Delaware) accepted subscriptions from accredited investors for a total of $1,219,750 in gross proceeds and $874,529 in net proceeds.

Previously, on October 14, 2008, in a transaction that was consummated via public auction, Optex Systems, Inc. (Delaware) purchased all of the assets of Optex Systems, Inc. (Texas) in exchange for $15 million of Irvine Sensors Corporation debt and the assumption of approximately $3.8 million of certain liabilities of Optex Systems, Inc. (Texas). Optex Systems, Inc. (Delaware) was formed by the Longview Fund, LP and Alpha Capital Antstalt, former secured creditors of Irvine Sensors Corporation, to consummate the October 2008 transaction, and subsequently, on February 20, 2009, Longview Fund conveyed its ownership interest in Optex Systems Holdings to Sileas Corporation, an entity owned by three of Optex Systems Holdings' officers (one of whom is also one of Optex Systems Holdings' three directors).

Our Business

Optex Systems Holdings manufactures optical sighting systems and assemblies primarily for United States Department of Defense applications. Optical sighting systems are used to enable a soldier to have improved vision and in some cases, protected vision. One type of system would be a binocular which would have a special optical filter applied to the external lens which would block long wave length light (from a laser) from reaching the soldier's eyes. Another type of system would be a periscope where the soldier inside an armored vehicle needs to view the external environment outside of the tank. In this case, the visual path is reflected at two 90 degree angles enabling the soldier to be at a different plane than that of the external lens.

The following table describes the approximate percentage of revenue represented by the types of systems mentioned in the third and fourth sentences of the above paragraph. The table below reflects approximate product revenues for the year ended October 2, 2011 and is a balanced overview of our business based on the percentages.

	% of Revenue
Howitzer Programs	28	%
Periscope Programs	64	%
All Other	8	%
Total	100	%

Optex Systems Holdings' products consist primarily of build-to-customer print products that are delivered both directly to the armed services and to other defense prime contractors. Build-to-customer print products are those devices where the customer completes the design of the product and then brings these drawings to the supplier for production. In this case, the supplier would procure the piece parts from suppliers, build the final assembly, and then supply this product back to the original customer who designed it.

Our products are installed on various types of U.S. military land vehicles, such as the Abrams and Bradley fighting vehicles, light armored and armored security vehicles and have been selected for installation on the Stryker family of vehicles. Optex Systems Holdings also manufactures and delivers numerous periscope configurations, rifle and surveillance sights and night vision optical assemblies. Approximately 39% of our current revenue is in support of Abrams vehicles, 29% in support of Stryker vehicles, and 3% in support of Bradley vehicles (all percentages in this sentence for the year ended October 2, 2011). The products that we produce can be used on other vehicles; however, they were originally designed for the Abrams, the Bradley, and the Stryker vehicles. In addition, some of the periscopes that we produce can be used on both the Bradley and the Stryker vehicle. Finally, some customers combine their volumes for new vehicles with those requirements for replacement parts for vehicles coming back from the field. At this time, no vehicle generates more revenues than the Stryker vehicle other than the Abrams and Bradley vehicles.

Optex Systems, Inc. (Delaware), and its predecessor, Optex Systems, Inc. (Texas), have been in business since 1987. Optex Systems Holdings is located in Richardson, TX and is ISO 9001:2008 certified.

B. Establishment of Offer Terms; Approval of the Offer

Our board of directors believes it to be generally in the best interests of us and our stockholders to make the Offer. Therefore, by action of the board of directors taken on March 16, 2011, the board of directors adopted a resolution authorizing the Offer.

The board of directors believes that the proposed temporary reduction in the exercise price of the Warrants will achieve an equitable result as stated below and may act as an inducement for current Warrant holders to invest in the Company in the future. The board of directors also believes that this temporary reduction may provide additional working capital for the Company.

C. Purpose of the Offer

The Offer is being made to all holders of Warrants. The purpose of the Offer is to induce holders of the Warrants to exercise their Warrants. As the market price of the Company's Common Stock has historically traded at very deep discounts compared to the original $0.45 exercise price, the Company's Board determined that it would be an equitable result to offer to the holders of the Warrants to exercise their Warrants at a price closer to the current trading price of the Company's common stock, which as of May 25, 2012, was approximately $0.01.

D. Use of the Warrants

The Warrants tendered to the Company pursuant to the Offer will be retired and cancelled.

E. Interests of Directors and Officers and Other Insiders

The names of the executive officers and directors of the Company are set forth below. The business address for each such person is.

Name	Position	Number of Warrants Owned	Percentage of Warrants
Merrick Okamoto	Director	975,000 (1)	11.99%

(1) 975,000 warrants are held by Longview Fund, LP. Investment decisions for Longview are made by its investment advisor, Viking Asset Management, LLC. Mr. Merrick Okamoto who is a director of Optex Systems Holdings is the President and a Managing Member of Viking Asset Management and may be deemed to control its business activities, including the investment activities of Longview. Mr. Okamoto, as a control person of Viking and/or Longview, may be deemed to beneficially own all such shares; however, he disclaims such beneficial ownership. Longview Fund will receive Shares for tendered Warrants subject to the terms and conditions applicable to all other Warrant holders as set forth in this Offer Letter. The Company does not beneficially own any Warrants. Neither the Company nor, to the Company's knowledge after reasonable inquiry, have any of the Company's officers or directors engaged in any transactions in the Warrants.

There are no present plans or proposals by the Company that relate to or would result in: (a) an extraordinary corporate transaction, such as a merger, reorganization or liquidation involving the Company or any of its subsidiaries; (b) a purchase, sale or transfer of a material amount of assets of the Company or any of its subsidiaries; (c) any material change in the present dividend rate or policy, or indebtedness or capitalization of the Company; (d) any change in the present Board of Directors or management of the Company including, but not limited to, any plans or proposals to change the number or the term of directors, to fill any existing vacancy on the Board or to change any material term of the employment contract of any executive officer; (e) any other material change in the Company's corporate structure or business; (f) any class of the Company's equity securities being delisted from the OTCBB or any other securities exercise; (g) the suspension of the issuer's obligation to file reports pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act; or (h) changes in the Company's Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws or other actions which may impede the acquisition of control of the Company by any person. The exercise of Warrants pursuant to the Offer will result in the acquisition by each exchanging holder of one (1) Share for every Warrant. The Company does not intend to issued more than 8,131,667 Shares in connection with the Offer.

THE COMPANY'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS HAS APPROVED THE OFFER. HOWEVER, NONE OF THE COMPANY, ITS DIRECTORS, OFFICERS OR EMPLOYEES OR THE COMPANY OR THE INFORMATION AGENT MAKES ANY RECOMMENDATION WHETHER YOU SHOULD EXERCISE ANY WARRANTS. EACH HOLDER OF A WARRANT MUST MAKE HIS, HER OR ITS OWN DECISION WHETHER TO EXERCISE SOME OR ALL OF HIS, HER OR ITS WARRANTS.

10. CONDITIONS; TERMINATION

The conditions of the Offer are:

(A) no action or event shall have occurred, no action shall have been taken, and no statute, rule, regulation, judgment, order, stay, decree or injunction shall have been promulgated, enacted, entered or enforced applicable to the Offer or the exercise of Warrants for Shares under the Offer by or before any court or governmental regulatory or administrative agency, authority or tribunal of competent jurisdiction, including, without limitation, taxing authorities, that challenges the making of the Offer or the exercise of Warrants for Shares under the Offer or would reasonably be expected to, directly or indirectly, prohibit, prevent, restrict or delay consummation of, or would reasonably be expected to otherwise adversely affect in any material manner, the Offer or the exercise of Warrants for Shares under the Offer;

(B) there shall not have occurred:

any general suspension of or limitation on trading in securities on the OTCBB, whether or not mandatory, a declaration of a banking moratorium or any suspension of payments in respect of banks by federal or state authorities in the United States, whether or not mandatory, a commencement of a war, armed hostilities, a terrorist act or other national or international calamity directly or indirectly relating to the United States, or in the case of any of the foregoing existing at the time of the commencement of the Offer, a material acceleration or worsening thereof; and

(C) there shall not have been any commission or other remuneration paid by us with respect to the solicitation of Warrant holders in connection with the Offer.

We may terminate the Offer if any of the conditions of the Offer are not satisfied prior to the Expiration Date. In the event that we terminate the Offer, all Warrants exercised by a Warrant holder in connection with the Offer shall be returned to such Warrant holder and the Warrants will remain subject to their original terms.

If you exercise your Warrants, you will be agreeing to exercise any Warrants exercised for the number of Shares issuable pursuant to the Offer, pursuant to the terms and subject to the conditions described herein and the Election to Purchase attached as Exhibit A to the Warrant certificate.

11. MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The following is a summary of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences to holders that own and hold Warrants as capital assets, within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”), and that exercise Warrants for Shares pursuant to the Offer. This discussion does not address all of the tax consequences that may be relevant to a holder based on its individual circumstances and does not address tax consequences applicable to holders that may be subject to special tax rules, such as: financial institutions; insurance companies; regulated investment companies; tax-exempt organizations; dealers or traders in securities or currencies; holders that actually or constructively own 5% or more of our Shares; holders that hold Warrants as part of a position in a straddle or a hedging, conversion or integrated transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes; holders that have a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar; holders that received their Warrants as compensation for the performance of services; or holders that are not U.S. persons (as defined for U.S. federal income tax purposes). This summary does not address any state, local or foreign tax consequences or any U.S. federal non-income tax consequences of the exercise of Warrants for Shares pursuant to the Offer or, except as discussed herein, any tax reporting obligations of a holder. Holders should consult their tax advisors as to the specific tax consequences to them of the Offer in light of their particular circumstances.

If an entity treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes holds Warrants, the tax treatment of a partner in the partnership will generally depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Holders owning their Warrants through a partnership should consult their tax advisors regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequence of exchanging Warrants for Shares pursuant to the Offer.

This summary is based on the Code, applicable Treasury regulations, administrative pronouncements and judicial decisions, each as in effect on the date hereof. All of the foregoing are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect, or differing interpretations by the Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”) or a court, which could affect the tax consequences described herein.

The exercise of Warrants for Shares pursuant to the Offer should be treated as a “recapitalization” pursuant to which (i) no gain or loss should be recognized on the exercise of Warrants for Shares, (ii) a holder’s aggregate tax basis in the Shares received in the exercise should equal the holder’s aggregate tax basis in its Warrants surrendered in exercise therefor (except to the extent of any tax basis allocated to a fractional share for which a cash payment is received in connection with the Offer), and (iii) a holder’s holding period for the Shares received in the exercise should include its holding period for the surrendered Warrants. Special tax basis and holding period rules apply to holders that acquired different blocks of Warrants at different prices or at different times. Holders should consult their tax advisors as to the applicability of these special rules to their particular circumstances. Any cash received in lieu of a fractional share pursuant to the Offer should result in gain or loss to a holder equal to the difference between the cash received and the holder’s tax basis in the fractional share.

Certain of our “significant” holders exercising Warrants for Shares pursuant to the Offer may be required to furnish certain information to the IRS, including the fair market value of the holder’s Warrants exercised for Shares pursuant to the Offer and certain tax basis information. Holders should consult their tax advisors as to the applicability of these reporting requirements to their particular circumstances.

12. RISK FACTORS; FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This Offer Letter contains forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements involve certain risks and uncertainties, including statements regarding the Company’s strategic direction, prospects and future results. Certain factors, including factors outside of the Company’s control, may cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in the forward-looking statements. All forward looking statements included in this Offer Letter are based on information available to the Company as of the date hereof.

An investment in our Shares involves a high degree of risk. Please refer to our filings with the SEC, including our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended October 2, 2011 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on December 27, 2011 for a discussion of these risks. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to the Company or that the Company currently deems immaterial also may impair our business operations. If any of the matters identified as potential risks materialize, our business could be harmed. In that event, the trading price of our Shares could decline.

There is no guarantee that your decision whether to exercise your Warrants in the Offer will put you in a better future economic position.

We can give no assurance as to the price at which a shareholder may be able to sell its Shares in the future following the completion of the Offer. If you choose to exercise some or all of your Warrants in the Offer, certain future events may cause an increase in our Share price and may result in a lower value realized now than you might realize in the future had you not agreed to exercise your Warrants. Similarly, if you do not exercise your Warrants in the Offer, you will continue to bear the risk of ownership of your Warrants after the closing of the Offer, and there can be no assurance that you can sell your Warrants (or exercise them for Shares) in the future at a higher price than would have been obtained by participating in the Offer. You should consult your own individual tax and/or financial advisor for assistance on how this may affect your individual situation.

If you do not exercise your Warrants in the Offer, your ownership will be diluted

We will issue up to 8,131,667 Shares in connection with the Offer. If you do not exercise your Warrants, your ownership in the Company could be diluted by as much as 99.2 (taking into account a full conversion of the Series A preferred stock with the increase in stated value so noted in this Offer Letter) and a full sale of the 25,000,000 shares offered in the S-1 Registration Statement in connection with which the 30 day reduction in exercise of the Warrants to $.01 per Share is made.

The market price of our Shares will fluctuate and it may adversely affect holders who exercise their Warrants for Shares.

The market price of our Shares will fluctuate between the date the Offer is commenced, the Expiration Date of Offer and the date on which Shares are issued to exercising Warrant holders. Accordingly, the market price of Shares upon settlement of the Offer could be less than the price at which the Warrants could be sold, and could be more than the exercise price of the Warrants.

No rulings or opinions have been received as to the tax consequences of the Offer to holders of Warrants

The tax consequences that will result to the Warrant holders that participate in the Offer are not well defined by the existing authorities. No ruling of any governmental authority and no opinion of counsel has been issued or rendered on these matters. Warrant holders must therefore rely on the advice of their own tax advisors in assessing these matters.
