Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On December 31, 2014, Command Security Corporation (the “Company”) was awarded a contract for services with the United States Postal Service (“USPS”) valued at an aggregate of approximately $250 million over a potential ten year term of service. Pursuant to the agreement, the Company will provide security services at 50 USPS locations in 18 states, Puerto Rico and the District of Columbia, an award valued at approximately $20 million per year. The Company has commenced a one month transition period and will assume operational responsibility on February 1, 2015. In addition, the Company will operate the two USPS National Law Enforcement Communication Centers located in Ft. Worth, Texas and at Dulles International Airport in Dulles, Virginia, an award valued at approximately $5 million per year. The Company will commence a one month transition period for this contract on February 1, 2015, and will assume operational responsibility on March 1, 2015.

The services performed under the agreement will be in accordance the terms provided for in the Statement of Work agreed upon by the parties. The USPS may change the scope of the Statement of Work at any time in writing. The term of the award is 4 years, with three two-year options to extend, which may be exercised by USPS at any time with prior written notice. In addition, USPS may terminate any services provided under the agreement with 30 days’ prior written notice. During the term of the agreement and for two years following its termination, the Company agrees not to compete with the USPS for any postal service contracts or contract with any competitor for any product for which the Company provided services under the agreement with the USPS. The agreement contains standard terms and conditions, including the restriction on assignment of the agreement by the Company and the right of the USPS to audit the books and records of the Company related to its services provided under the agreement. The USPS may terminate the agreement for default by the Company.
