Report to Taro from Independent Counsel Delayed, Expected by October 27, 2006

HAWTHORNE, N.Y.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Oct. 20, 2006--Taro Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd. ("Taro," the "Company," NASDAQ: TARO) today announced that a report from independent counsel relating to the previously announced restatement of the Company's 2003 and 2004 financial results is currently expected by October 27, 2006. The report was previously expected by October 20, 2006.

Upon receiving the independent counsel's report, Taro will provide a report on the investigation to the Nasdaq Listing Qualifications Panel in connection with the Company's request for continued listing of its shares on The Nasdaq Global Select Market. As previously announced, subject to the Panel's review of the report, a further extension, to November 17, 2006, was granted for Taro to file its Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2005 with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. If these conditions and other relevant listing requirements are met, the Company's ordinary shares will maintain their current listing.

Taro is a multinational, science-based pharmaceutical company dedicated to meeting the needs of its customers through the discovery, development, manufacturing and marketing of the highest quality healthcare products. For more information on Taro, please visit www.taro.com.

SAFE HARBOR STATEMENT

Certain statements in this release are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements include, but are not limited to, statements that do not describe historical facts, and statements that include the word "will," "intend," "expects," or similar language; and statements concerning the continued listing of the Company's securities on The Nasdaq Global Select Market, the report of the independent investigation, and the filing of Taro's Annual Report on Form 20-F for 2005. Although the Company believes that such statements are based on reasonable assumptions and reliable sources, it has no assurance thereof. Factors that could cause actual results to differ include, but are not limited to, actions by Nasdaq staff, the timing and outcome of the independent investigation, the ability of the Company to finalize its 2005 audit, general economic conditions, industry and market conditions, regulatory actions and legislative actions in the countries in which Taro operates, and other risks detailed from time to time in the Company's SEC reports, including its Annual Reports on Form 20-F. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date on which they are made. The Company undertakes no obligations to update, change or revise any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, additional or subsequent developments or otherwise.
