ITEM 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure

On February 17, 2005, FTI Consulting, Inc. (FTI) held a conference call relating to our fourth quarter and year-end financial results for the periods ended December 31, 2004, and other information, including operating results by business segment, and other developments and outlook. The full text of the transcript of the conference call is set forth in Exhibit 99.1 hereto.

The Transcript contains some discussion regarding FTI's earnings from operations before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA) before one time charges (Adjusted EBITDA) and Adjusted EBITDA and EBITDA by business segment. Although Adjusted EBITDA and EBITDA are not measures of financial condition or performance determined in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles, FTI believes that they are useful operating performance measures for evaluating our results of operations from period to period and as compared to our competitors. EBITDA is a common alternative measure of operating performance used by investors, financial analysts and rating agencies to value and compare the financial performance of companies in our industry. FTI uses EBITDA to evaluate and compare the operating performances of its segments and it is one of the primary measures used to determine employee bonuses. FTI also uses EBITDA to value businesses it acquires or anticipates acquiring. Adjusted EBITDA and EBITDA are not defined in the same manner by all companies and may not be comparable to other similarly titled measures of other companies unless the definition is the same. In addition, because the calculation of EBITDA in the maintenance covenants contained in FTI's credit facilities is based on accounting policies in use, consistently applied from the time the indebtedness was incurred, Adjusted EBITDA and EBITDA as supplemental financial measures are also indicative of FTI's capacity to service debt and thereby provide additional useful information to investors regarding FTI's financial condition and results of operations. Adjusted EBITDA and EBITDA for purposes of those covenants are not calculated in the same manner as they have been presented in the table that accompanied the Press Release of February 16, 2005 furnished to the Securities and Exchange Commission with FTI's Form 8-K filed on February 17, 2005. During the conference call, FTI also discussed and responded to questions regarding our outlook and outlook by segment for 2005.

The information included herein, including Exhibit 99.1 furnished herewith, shall be deemed not to be filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section, nor shall it be incorporated by reference into any filing pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Exchange Act, regardless of any incorporation by reference language in any such filing, except as expressly set forth by specific reference in such filing.
