Item 8.01 Other Events:

The U.S. Patent and Trademark Office notified us that it has granted our request for an inter partes re-examination of U.S. Patent No. 6,680,306 owned by GlycoGenesys, Inc. because the patent office agrees that the prior publications we brought to its attention, including our U.S. Patent No. 6,643,946 for DAVANAT®, raised a substantial new question of patentability of both of the independent claims and all 21 dependent claims in the GlycoGenesys patent. As reported in our Form 10-K for the 2004 fiscal year, we filed the re-examination request in January 2005.
