Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On April 6, 2014, Arthur J. Gallagher & Co. (the Company) entered into a Share Sale Agreement (the Share Sale Agreement), by and among the Company, Wesfarmers Insurance Investments Pty Ltd, OAMPS Ltd (together with Wesfarmers Insurance Investments Pty Ltd, the Seller), Wesfarmers Limited and Pastel Purchaser Party Limited. Pursuant to the Share Sale Agreement, the Company will acquire certain of the Seller's insurance broking services in Australia, New Zealand and the United Kingdom (the Pastel) in exchange for A$1.01 billion, or approximately US$933 million (the Purchase Price) (the Transaction), subject to a net current asset adjustment following completion of the Transaction (the Closing). Pastel operates one of the largest insurance broking networks across Australia. The Company expects to use an equity offering by the Company, cash on hand and proceeds from the Company's revolving credit facility to fund the Purchase Price.

Consummation of the Transaction is subject to certain customary closing conditions, including (i) the receipt of Australian and New Zealand foreign investment approvals, (ii) the receipt of UK Financial Conduct Authority approval and (iii) the completion of certain restructuring relating to Pastel.

The Seller and the Company have made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Share Sale Agreement, including, among others, covenants with respect to (i) limitations for three years following the Closing on the solicitation of Pastel's customers or employees by the Seller and (ii) limitations for three years following the Closing on the Seller's operation of a similar business to Pastel's in Australia, New Zealand and the United Kingdom (the Protected Business), or on Seller having a material direct or indirect ownership interest in a Protected Business, subject to certain exceptions.

The representations, warranties and covenants set forth in the Share Sale Agreement have been made only for the purpose of the Share Sale Agreement and were solely for the benefit of the parties to the Share Sale Agreement, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Share Sale Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, as well as by information contained in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K and other filings made by the Company with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Accordingly, the Share Sale Agreement is described in this filing only to provide investors with information regarding the terms of the Share Sale Agreement as agreed among the contracting parties, and not to provide investors with any other factual information regarding the parties or their respective businesses. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the Share Sale Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in public disclosures by the Company.

The Share Sale Agreement also contains customary indemnification rights for transactions of this type of each of the Seller and the Company, including with respect to breaches of representations, warranties or covenants and certain other specified matters. Certain of the indemnification obligations of each party are subject to deductible amounts and caps and other limitations on liability.
