Dear Valued KeyWorth Bank customer

As you are most likely aware, on October 20, 2015, we announced our intentions to merge with and into Renasant Bank, which is headquartered in Tupelo, Mississippi.

Renasant Bank was established in 1904 and is an $8 billion financial institution that operates more than 170 offices in Mississippi, Tennessee, Alabama, Florida and Georgia.

The merger was unanimously approved by the Board of Directors of both companies and is subject to regulatory and shareholder approval. We anticipate the merger to close during the first quarter of 2016.

We believe the merger will greatly benefit you as it will:

Expand our banking products and services offerings

Offer a much larger branch network

Increase our lending capabilities

Provide more sophisticated treasury management services

Give access to more mortgage lending options

As a valued KeyWorth client, you do not need to do anything at this time. You will receive detailed information regarding the transition of your accounts to Renasant Bank once the merger is finalized. I can assure you that we are committed to making the transition as seamless as possible.

Edgar Filing: RENASANT CORP - Form 425

In addition, the associates in our financial centers and our lending groups will not be changing. You will see the same familiar faces that have always handled your banking needs. It will be business as usual, just with a new brand name and more locations to serve you.

Should you have any further questions, please feel free to contact your trusted KeyWorth associate.

Sincerely,

Jim Pope

Chief Executive Officer

KeyWorth Bank
