Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 9, 2016, Centene Corporation (the Company) entered into an underwriting agreement (the Underwriting Agreement) with Citigroup Global Markets Inc., Barclays Capital Inc., SunTrust Robinson Humphrey, Inc. and Wells Fargo Securities, LLC, acting as representatives of the several underwriters named therein (the Underwriters), and Evercore Group L.L.C., solely in its capacity as qualified independent underwriter, to sell $500,000,000 principal amount of the Company's 4.75% senior notes due 2022 (the Notes) in a public offering made pursuant to a registration statement and a related prospectus supplement filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC). The Company intends to use the net proceeds of the offering to repay amounts outstanding under its revolving credit facility. The Underwriting Agreement contains customary terms and conditions.

The Notes are an additional issuance of, fully fungible with, rank equally with, and form a single series with the Company's $300 million 4.75% senior notes due 2022 issued on April 29, 2014 and $200 million 4.75% senior notes due 2022 issued on January 14, 2015, and have the same CUSIP number. The Notes were issued on June 14, 2016, pursuant to an indenture (the Indenture), dated as of April 29, 2014, between the Company and The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A., as Trustee. Pursuant to the Indenture, the Company will pay interest on the Notes on May 15 and November 15 of each year, beginning on November 15, 2016. The Notes will mature on May 15, 2022. The Notes are senior unsecured obligations of the Company and will rank equally in right of payment with all its existing and future senior unsecured indebtedness. The Notes will be effectively subordinated to the Company's existing and future secured indebtedness to the extent of the assets securing such obligations.

At any time prior to May 15, 2019, Centene may redeem all or any portion of the Notes, at once or over time, after giving the required notice under the Indenture at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Notes to be redeemed plus the applicable make-whole premium as of, and accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the redemption date (subject to the rights of holders of the notes of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on an interest payment date falling prior to the redemption date).

On or after May 15, 2019, Centene may redeem all or any portion of the Notes, at once or over time, after giving the required notice under the Indenture at the redemption prices set forth below, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the redemption date (subject to the rights of holders of the notes of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on an interest payment date falling prior to the redemption date). The redemption price for the Notes (expressed as a percentage of principal amount), if redeemed during the 12-month period commencing on (1) May 15, 2019 is 102.375%, (2) May 15, 2020 is 101.188% and (3) May 15, 2021 and thereafter is 100.000%.

If the Company experiences specific kinds of changes of control, it will be required to offer to purchase the Notes at a purchase price equal to 101% of the principal amount, plus accrued and unpaid interest.

The Indenture includes covenants that limit the ability of the Company and its restricted subsidiaries to, among other things: incur additional indebtedness and issue preferred stock; pay dividends or make other distributions; make other restricted payments and investments; sell assets, including capital stock of restricted subsidiaries; create certain liens; incur restrictions on the ability of restricted subsidiaries to pay dividends or make other payments, in the case of the Company's subsidiaries, guarantee indebtedness; engage in transactions with affiliates; create unrestricted subsidiaries; and merge or consolidate with other entities. The covenants are subject to a number of important exceptions and qualifications set forth in the Indenture. The Indenture also provides for customary events of default.

Certain of the Underwriters or their affiliates perform and have performed commercial and investment banking and advisory services for the Company from time to time for which they receive and have received customary fees and expenses. The Underwriters may, from time to time, engage in transactions with and perform services for the Company in the ordinary course of their business for which they will receive fees and expenses.

The foregoing descriptions of the Underwriting Agreement, the Indenture and the Notes do not purport to be complete and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the text of the applicable agreement, filed as Exhibit 1.1, 4.1 and 4.2 to this Current Report on Form 8-K, respectively, and are incorporated herein by reference.
