Fidelity National Financial, Inc. Announces Receipt of Private Letter Ruling Related to Tax-Free Status of Black Knight Financial Services Distribution and FNFV Exchange

Jacksonville, Fla. (May 10, 2017) Fidelity National Financial, Inc. (FNF) today announced that it has received a Private Letter Ruling from the Internal Revenue Service related to the previously announced tax-free plan (the Plan) whereby (1) it intends to distribute all 83.3 million shares of Black Knight Financial Services Inc. (Black Knight) (NYSE:BKFS) common stock that it currently owns to FNF Group (NYSE:FNF) shareholders and (2) it intends to redeem all FNFV Group (NYSE:FNFV) tracking stock shares in exchange for shares of common stock of Cannae Holdings, Inc. (Cannae Holdings), a newly formed, publicly-traded company that will hold the assets of FNFV. The trading symbol CNNE is on hold with the New York Stock Exchange. Following the distributions, FNF, Cannae Holdings and Black Knight will each be independent, fully-distributed, publicly-traded common stocks, with FNF and FNFV/Cannae Holdings no longer being tracking stocks.

The Plan remains subject to the filing of applicable registration statements for both the Black Knight and FNFV transactions and declaration of effectiveness by the Securities and Exchange Commission, Black Knight and FNFV shareholder approvals and other customary closing conditions. The closing of the tax-free distributions is expected in the third quarter of 2017.

We are excited to receive this important ruling from the IRS relating to the Black Knight distribution and the FNFV exchange, said Chairman William P. Foley, II. We are continuing to focus on completing the necessary filings, shareholder votes and other closing conditions for both transactions. At closing, we will have a streamlined, industry-leading title insurance company in FNF, a stand-alone, more liquid Black Knight and an independent Cannae Holdings. We believe this structure will benefit the shareholders of all three separate public companies.
