- <sup>1</sup> A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities, and it may be subject to revision or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating organization.
- <sup>2</sup> Under Rule 15c6-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, trades in the secondary market generally are required to settle in two business days, unless the parties to such trade expressly agree otherwise. Accordingly, purchasers who wish to trade the Notes on the pricing date or the next two succeeding business days will be required, by virtue of the fact that the Notes initially will settle in five business days (T+5), to specify alternative settlement arrangements to prevent a failed settlement.

Optional Redemption by Holders of Notes:	None
Optional Redemption by the Issuer for Tax Reasons:	In certain circumstances where the Issuer has or will become obligated to pay additional amounts (as described in the pricing supplement), the Issuer may, at its option, redeem the Notes in whole, but not in part, at any time before maturity, after giving not less than 30 nor more than 60 calendar days' notice to the holders of the Notes, at a redemption price equal to 100% of their principal amount together with accrued interest, if any, to, but excluding, the redemption date.
