TD Bank Financial Group to make changes to Executive Team

TORONTO, ON, June 23, 2006 - Following the announcement by TD Banknorth earlier today that Bharat Masrani will be assuming the role of President, TD Banknorth, TD Bank Financial Group (TDBFG) announced that it will be working to replace Mr. Masrani in his current role as TD's Chief Risk Officer, over the coming months as part of an orderly transition.

"We are pleased that Bharat will be able to share his in-depth operational experience with TD Banknorth in his new role as President, responsible for overseeing the retail, commercial, investment, insurance and marketing divisions. And while we will miss Bharat's expertise in his current role, we're pleased that he will continue to be an integral part of TDBFG's North American operations," said Ed Clark, President and CEO, TD Bank Financial Group.

"As I have said in the past, the door has always been open for Bill to tap into TD's product, process or resource expertise when it makes sense for TD Banknorth to do so. I am delighted that Bill has requested that Bharat join his team. I know that Bharat will make an immediate contribution while also helping to lay a strong foundation for the long term success of TD Banknorth," added Clark.

"We are currently determining how best to replace Bharat when he moves to TD Banknorth this fall and will communicate that decision in due course," noted Clark.
