This Form 6-K consists of:

The press release regarding signing cell supply agreement by and between Canadian Solar and JA Solar Holdings Co., Ltd. (the Registrant), made by the Registrant in English on April 2, 2007.

JA Solar and Canadian Solar Sign Solar Cell Supply Agreement

Jiangsu and Hebei, China, April 2, 2007 JA Solar Holdings Co., Ltd. (JA Solar) (NASDAQGM: JASO) and Canadian Solar Inc. (CSI) (NASDAQ: CSIQ) today announced a supply agreement valued at approximately US$50 million to US$60 million from April to December 2007. Under the agreement, JA Solar will supply solar cells to CSI for use in CSI's solar modules. Initial deliveries will start immediately.

Dr. Shawn Qu, CSI's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, said, "JA Solar is an important strategic supplier to CSI. Securing this additional solar cell supply at a cost meeting our internal target will allow us to fulfill the increased demands from our key customers. CSI continues to ramp up its in-house solar cell manufacturing while maintaining long-term strategic purchasing from a couple of selected supply partners. We believe this balanced supply strategy helps to create a win-win situation and provides us with the ability to quickly respond to demand surges from our customers.

Samuel Yang, JA Solar's Chief Executive Officer, commented, "CSI is a good example of the fast growing, high-quality, global manufacturer we continue to successfully partner and grow with. This is an important agreement for both companies.

About Canadian Solar Inc.

SEC filings, including its registration statement on Form F-1 originally filed on October 23, 2006, as amended. Although the Company believes that the expectations reflected in the forward looking statements are reasonable, it cannot guarantee future results, level of activity, performance, or achievements. You should not place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. All information provided in this press release is as of today's date, unless otherwise stated, and CSI undertakes no duty to update such information, except as required under applicable law.

Safe Harbor Statement of JA Solar:

This announcement contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements can be identified by words such as will, may, expect, anticipate, aim, intend, plan, believe, estimate, potential, continue, and other similar statements. These forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties and are based on current expectations, assumptions, estimates and projections about JA Solar and the industry. Factors that could cause actual results to differ include general business and economic conditions and the state of the solar industry; demand for solar cell products by consumers, changes in demand from significant customers, level of competition, pricing pressure and declines in average selling price, and other risks as described in JA Solar's registration statement on Form F-1 and other documents filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. JA Solar undertakes no obligation to update forward-looking statements, except as may be required by law. Although JA Solar believes that the expectations expressed in these forward-looking statements are reasonable, it cannot assure you that its expectations will turn out to be correct, and investors are cautioned that actual results may differ materially from the anticipated results.
