Resignation of Chairman of the Board

On June 21, 2012, Richard Eiswirth, Jr. verbally stated his intention not to stand for re-election to the Board of Directors at the 2012 annual meeting of shareholders to be held later this year. Subsequently, on June 26, 2012, Mr. Eiswirth tendered his written resignation from all of his positions as Chairman of the Board, Chairman of the Audit Committee and as a Director. Mr. Eiswirth sent an email to the entire Board of Directors on June 27, 2012 regarding his resignation. As stated in his letter, Mr. Eiswirth's resignation was due to disagreement with the Board of Directors regarding the strategic direction of the Company and changes in personnel.

The Board of Directors believes that Mr. Eiswirth's primary disagreement involves the strategic balance of cash flow versus growth. The Board of Directors believe that implementing cost controls and reducing expenses is strategically important to ensure the Company's long-term viability, to maintain its business within existing resources without needing to raise additional financing in the near term. As part of cost saving measures, the Board of Directors approved the elimination of the Chief Financial Officer position and other cost reductions. Mr. Eiswirth believed that cutting expenses could jeopardize revenue and distribution growth, and disagreed with the actions approved by the Board. Mr. Eiswirth also disagreed with changes in management supported by a majority of the Board.
