FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

TRUSTCO RESTRUCTURES TO PREPARE FOR GROWTH

Glenville, New York - October 18, 2002

In the latest in a series of initiatives to guide its program of expansion, TrustCo Bank Corp NY (TrustCo) has announced a major reorganization at the executive officer level.

Effective November 1, Robert A. McCormick will retire as President and CEO to concentrate his efforts as Chairman of the Board of the combined Trustco operations. He will, however, remain on as a consultant. Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer Robert T. Cushing will become President and CEO of TrustCo Bank Corp NY, the holding company. Senior Vice President Robert J. McCormick will become President and CEO of Trustco Bank. Effective December 1, Senior Vice Presidents Robert T. Cushing and Nancy A. McNamara will be resigning as board members of TrustCo Bank Corp NY.

These changes will position the Company to operate under recently enacted legislation affecting the composition and responsibilities of publicly-traded companies such as TrustCo.

Even more important, according to McCormick, the new structure helps the bank meet a number of objectives. "To begin, we are launching an unprecedented era of growth, including expansion into new geographic areas. As Chairman, free of operational concerns, I am better able to focus on guiding these efforts. At the same time, this new structure affords greater opportunity for executive growth within the bank, allowing us to benefit from new energy and ideas, and broadening the base of our strength for the future. It is my intention to remain available to shepherd this management transition."

Other recent growth initiatives at TrustCo include revisions in the dividend structure to help finance expansion, and a pending application to combine its savings and commercial operations, and move forward as a thrift, with regulations far more amenable to branching. The bank has announced plans to open 30 new branches in the next three years, regionally, downstate, and in Florida.

TrustCo Bank Corp NY is a $2.7 billion dollar bank holding company and through its two subsidiary banks, Trustco Bank, National Association and Trustco Savings Bank, operates 63 offices in Albany, Columbia, Dutchess, Greene, Montgomery, Rennselaer, Rockland, Saratoga, Schenectady, Schoharie, Warren, Washington, and Westchester Counties in New York, and Bennington County in Vermont. In addition, the bank operates a full service Trust Department that has $927 million of assets under management. The common shares of TrustCo are traded on the NASDAQ National Market tier of the NASDAQ Stock Market under the symbol TRST.
