PROXY STATEMENT

ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

April 22, 2002

GENERAL INFORMATION

The accompanying proxy is solicited by the Board of Directors of First Commonwealth Financial Corporation (the "Corporation" or "FCFC") in connection with its Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held on Monday, April 22, 2002, 3:00 p.m., local time, and any adjournments thereof.

If the accompanying proxy is duly executed and returned, the shares of Common Stock, par value $1.00 per share (the "Common Stock"), of the Corporation represented thereby will be voted and, where a specification is made by the shareholder as provided therein, will be voted in accordance with that specification. A proxy may be revoked by the person executing it at any time before it has been voted by notice of such revocation to David R. Tomb, Jr., Secretary of the Corporation.

The three persons named in the enclosed proxy have been selected by the Board of Directors and will vote shares represented by valid proxies. They have indicated that, unless otherwise specified in the proxy, they intend to vote to elect as Directors the seven nominees listed on page 6.

The Board of Directors has no reason to believe that any of the nominees will be unable to serve as Directors. In the event, however, of the death or unavailability of any nominee or nominees, the proxy to that extent will be voted for such other person or persons as the Board of Directors may recommend.

The Corporation has no knowledge of any other matters to be presented at the meeting. In the event other matters do properly come before the meeting the persons named in the proxy will vote in accordance with their judgment on such matters.

The approximate date on which this Proxy Statement will be mailed to shareholders of the Corporation is March 22, 2002. Solicitation of proxies may be made by personal interviews and telephone by management and regularly engaged employees of the Corporation. Brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries will be requested to forward solicitation material to the beneficial owners of the stock held of record by such persons. Expenses for solicitation of all proxies will be paid by the Corporation.

As of the close of business on March 4, 2002, there were 58,553,808 shares of Common Stock outstanding. Three million (3,000,000) shares of Preferred Stock have been authorized;

The Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation do not permit cumulative voting. The seven nominees for directors who receive the highest number of votes cast for the election of directors at the Annual Meeting, present in person or voting by proxy, a quorum being present, will be elected as directors. An affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present and voting at the meeting is required for approval of all other items being submitted to the shareholders for their consideration. Abstentions and broker non-votes are each included in the determination of the number of shares present and voting, but are not counted for purposes of determining whether a proposal has been approved.

Board Committees

During 2001 there were 4 meetings of the Board of Directors of the Corporation. All directors, with the exception of Mr. Heilman, attended at least 75% of the total number of meetings of the Board of Directors of the Corporation and all committees of which they were members.

The Board of Directors of the Corporation has established the following standing committees: Executive, Audit, Governance, and Executive Compensation. The Governance Committee also acts as a Nominating Committee.

When the Board of Directors is not in session, the Executive Committee, which is comprised of Directors Trimarchi (Chairman), Tomb (Secretary), Brubaker, Brumbaugh, Dahlmann, Geiser, Glass, Heilman, Latimer, O'Dell and Robertshaw possesses and exercises all the powers of the Board, except for matters which are required by law to be acted upon by the full Board. Edgar Filing: FIRST COMMONWEALTH FINANCIAL CORP /PA/ - Form DEF 14A Committee met 4 times in 2001.

The Audit Committee is comprised of Directors Latimer (Chairman), Cote, and Proske. The function of the Audit Committee, as more fully noted in the Charter, is primarily to oversee and appraise the quality of the audit effort of the Corporation's internal audit function and those of its independent auditors; maintain, by scheduling regular meetings, open lines of communication among the Board, its internal auditors, and its independent accountants to exchange views and information as well as confirm their respective authority and responsibilities; and determine the adequacy of the Corporation's administrative, operating, and internal accounting controls and evaluate adherence. The Committee met eight times in 2001. A report of the Audit Committee follows on page 14.

The Governance Committee was established as a permanent standing Committee by the Board in April 2001. The Committee acts as a nominating committee for elections to the Board. In addition, the Committee will also be responsible for measuring performance of executive officers and Board members, and for recommending management succession plans. The Committee is comprised of Directors Trimarchi (Chairman), Brumbaugh, Hanford, Newill, Robertshaw and Singer. The Committee met 3 times in 2001.

The Executive Compensation Committee is comprised of Directors Cote (Chairman), Johnson and Latimer. The Committee met 8 times in 2001. A report of the Executive Compensation Committee follows on page 11.

The By-Laws of the Corporation require that any shareholder who intends to nominate or cause to have nominated any candidate for election to the Board of Directors (other than a candidate proposed by the Corporation's then existing Board of Directors) must notify the Secretary of the Corporation in writing not less than 120 days in advance of the first anniversary date the Corporation's proxy statement was released to its shareholders in connection with the previous year's annual meeting of shareholders called for the election of directors (for the 2002 meeting of shareholders, such notification must have been received by the Secretary on or before November 23, 2001). Such notification must contain (to the extent known by the notifying shareholder) the name, address, age, principal occupation and number of shares of the Corporation owned by each proposed nominee; the name, residence address and number of shares of the Corporation owned by the notifying shareholder; the total number of shares that, to the knowledge of the notifying shareholder, will be voted for each proposed nominee; a description of all arrangements or understandings between the shareholder and each nominee and any other person or persons pursuant to which the nomination or nominations are to be made by the shareholder; such other information regarding each nominee proposed by such shareholder as would be required to be included in a proxy statement filed pursuant to the proxy rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission had the nominee been nominated by the Board of

Edgar Filing: FIRST COMMONWEALTH FINANCIAL CORP /PA/ - Form DEF 14A

Directors; and the written consent of each nominee, signed by such nominee, to serve as a director of the Corporation if so elected. The Board of Directors as a whole would consider nominations submitted by a shareholder if submitted in accordance with the By-Laws and otherwise in time for such consideration.

COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS

Directors who currently serve in a management capacity at FCFC or serve in an affiliate management capacity are compensated at the rate of $1,000 per quarterly meeting attended. Other directors are compensated at the rate of $1,750 per quarterly meeting attended as well as an annual retainer of $12,000. Committee members receive $1,000 per committee meeting attended. In addition, each member of the board who is not an employee of FCFC is eligible to receive options to purchase FCFC stock pursuant to FCFC's Compensatory Stock Option Plan. Such grants are made at the discretion of the Executive Compensation Committee. Each non-employee director received options to purchase 2,000 shares of common stock on January 31, 2001. These options are currently exercisable at a strike price of $10.75 per share, and will expire on January 31, 2011.

The Deferred Compensation Plan for Non-Employee Directors allows non-employee directors to defer receipt of any retainers and Board and committee meeting fees, including amounts paid for Advisory Board service. At the election of the director, the deferred amounts are credited to a stock account, a non-stock account, an investment account or any combination thereof. Payments under the plan are made as a lump sum at the earlier of the cessation of service as a director or the death or disability of the director.

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

The following is a report by the Executive Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of First Commonwealth Financial Corporation. The objectives of the report are to provide shareholders with an explanation of the overall executive compensation philosophy, strategies, and specific compensation decisions.

Executive Compensation Committee

The Executive Compensation Committee is comprised of three (3) non-employee directors selected from the Board of Directors of First Commonwealth Financial Corporation. The Committee met eight times in 2001.

The Committee's goal is to administer an executive compensation program that helps maximize shareholder value by using incentives to place a portion of total compensation at risk and that provides financial rewards only when the performance level of the Corporation justifies such rewards.

Edgar Filing: FIRST COMMONWEALTH FINANCIAL CORP /PA/ - Form DEF 14A

The Committee discharged its duties in 2001 by performing the following tasks:

1. Researching peer group compensation activities to ensure both consistency and competitiveness in the composition of the Corporation's executive compensation program.
2. Evaluating current and proposed components of the Corporation's executive compensation program to ensure consistency with its philosophy on executive compensation.
3. Ensuring that all regulatory requirements pertaining to executive compensation are met.
4. Refining the executive compensation program on an ongoing basis as a result of the above as well as documenting and administering the Corporation's executive compensation program.
5. Administering a performance-based retainer program for the compensation of non-employee directors, in order to increase shareholder value on a sustained basis and to reduce transfer costs between directors and shareholders.

Executive officers of the Corporation may, at the request of the Committee, be present at meetings of the Committee for input and discussion purposes. However, the executive officers have no direct involvement with the decisions of the Committee, nor do they have a vote on any issues addressed by the Committee. Consultants and other independent advisors may also be utilized by the Committee from time to time in a similar manner. Each meeting of the Committee is documented in the form of minutes and submitted to the Board of Directors.

Executive Compensation Philosophy and Policy

The Executive Compensation Program is based on the Executive Compensation Statement of Principles which has been adopted by the Board of Directors. These Principles provide guidance for the deliberations of the Committee and are the basis for the Committee's decisions. The Principles emphasize the view of the Corporation that base compensation should be established based upon relevant peer group comparisons, that wherever possible tax leverage should be achieved by using plans that are tax advantaged, and that compensation should be designed to maximize the incentive of the executive officers to increase the Corporation's long-term performance.

Edgar Filing: FIRST COMMONWEALTH FINANCIAL CORP /PA/ - Form DEF 14A

Consistent with these Principles, the Executive Compensation Program is structured to foster decisions and actions which will have a strong positive impact on the Corporation's long-term performance. For this reason, participation in the programs administered by the Executive Compensation Committee is limited to those executives who have the greatest opportunity to bring about the achievement of the Corporation's long-term strategic objectives.

The Executive Compensation Committee has established the following parameters for executive compensation under the 2001 program:

1. An overall program which is not overly complex and may be readily communicated and easily understood by participants and shareholders.
2. Base salary that ranges from the fiftieth to seventy-fifth percentile of the competitive rate for the position as defined by selected peer group information.
3. Base salary adjustments which maintain internal equity.
4. An incentive-based compensation system, in which a cash incentive bonus will be paid, if justified, on the basis of the Corporation's financial performance for the year.
5. Utilization of IRS "qualified" plans whenever they are in the best interests of both the executive officer and the Corporation.
6. Use of equity-based compensation through the Corporation's 1995 Compensatory Stock Option Plan to provide a long-term incentive for the executive officers and senior employees of the Corporation to maximize the Corporation's stock price and increase shareholder value.
7. Use of non-qualified plans to restore the benefits of a select group of executives that are otherwise limited due to limits under the tax code.

The Executive Compensation Committee utilized several factors to define an appropriate competitive peer group including the type of company from which executive talent might be recruited, a logical geographical region, and the ability to identify and make relevant comparison of executive officer positions in terms of responsibilities and performance. The 2001 peer group was structured utilizing this methodology and philosophy and, in the opinion of the Committee, represents a fair and reasonable standard against which executive pay may be compared.

Executive Compensation Programs

The primary components of the Corporation's Executive Compensation Program are base salaries, a cash performance-based incentive plan, a stock option plan, and benefits.

Base salaries are assessed by taking into account the position, responsibilities, and competitive salary data as defined by comparable peer group information from similarly sized bank and bank holding companies in the Middle Atlantic and adjacent states. Executive officer compensation was set to correspond with the Principles identified earlier in this report. Under the cash performance-based incentive plan, executive officers are rewarded based on the annual increase in primary earnings per share.

Executive officers participate in the shareholder-approved Compensatory Stock Option Plan. According to the terms of this plan, the Executive Compensation Committee is authorized to grant incentive stock options and non-qualified stock options to key employees of the Corporation and its subsidiaries and to its outside directors. These stock options enable the optionee to purchase the Corporation's common stock at its market price as determined on the day of the grant of the option. The Committee plans to continue using the granting of such options to encourage the long-term increase of the Corporation's share price.

Executive officers may also participate in the Executive Officer Loan/Stock Purchase Plan which provides for corporate-sponsored loans at market rates primarily for the purchase of the Corporation's common stock. Program participants are also eligible to partake in the normal benefit programs available to employees of the Corporation and its affiliates.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation

In 2001, Mr. O'Dell completed his seventh year as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation. He received a base salary of approximately $405,000. Based on First Commonwealth's earnings per share in 2001, he did not earn a cash incentive. Based on its governing Principles and market practices, the Committee awarded Mr. O'Dell options on 41,442 shares in 2001. The options vested on December 31,

Edgar Filing: FIRST COMMONWEALTH FINANCIAL CORP /PA/ - Form DEF 14A

2001 and accrue value only to the extent that First Commonwealth's stock price rises above the value on the date of the grant. In 2001, Mr. O'Dell participated in the Corporation's 401(k) Plan and ESOP. As such, the Corporation made contributions to his accounts in 2001. The Committee believes these compensation levels to be appropriate in light of the governing Principles outlined herein.

Impact of IRS Section 162(m)

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) limits the deductibility of compensation paid to an employee in excess of $1,000,000. Compensation deemed to be "performance-based" is exempt from Section 162(m) if certain criteria are met. Currently, the Committee does not anticipate the loss of any deduction due to Section 162(m). The Committee will continue to monitor its Executive Compensation Program in light of Section 162(m) and take such actions as it deems appropriate.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE
INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

The Executive Compensation Committee consists of Directors Cote, Johnson, and Latimer. No member was an officer or employee of the Corporation during 2001 nor has ever been an officer or employee of the Corporation or a subsidiary. Further, during 2001, no executive officer of the Corporation served on a compensation committee (or other board committee performing equivalent functions) or Board of Directors of any entity related to the above named Committee members or of any entity whose executive officers served as a director of the Corporation.

INTERESTS OF NOMINEES, DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS IN CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS

David S. Dahlmann serves as Vice Chairman of FCFC and President and CEO of Southwest pursuant to an employment agreement which became effective December 31, 1998. Mr. Dahlmann's agreement is for five years followed by successive one year automatic renewals unless either party gives contrary written notice. In exchange for his services Mr. Dahlmann will receive cash compensation equal to three hundred thousand dollars per year in the form of base pay which is subject to increases as the Corporation may deem appropriate. In addition, Mr. Dahlmann is eligible to receive all of the same employee benefits as other employees of the Corporation who are at a similar level and classification. As such he is a participant in the Cash Incentive Bonus Plan, Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan, Split-Dollar Life Insurance Plan, Compensatory Stock Option Plan, 401(k), ESOP, and the group health, disability, and life insurance plans. Should the Corporation terminate Mr. Dahlmann's employment without cause at any time, or should Mr. Dahlmann terminate his employment for good reason, the Corporation shall pay him an amount equal to twelve month's base salary at his then current rate of compensation. In addition, the Corporation shall continue to pay its share of Mr. Dahlmann's health insurance premiums for a period of not more than eighteen months. Should the Corporation terminate Mr. Dahlmann for just cause he shall have no right to compensation or other benefits for any period after the date of termination. If during the term of the agreement a change in control of the Corporation occurs as defined by the agreement, Mr. Dahlmann may terminate his employment for a period of up to twelve months following such a change. He would then be eligible for a severance payment based upon the average aggregate annual compensation for a defined period of time multiplied by three. The Corporation would assume responsibility for the full cost of the health insurance premium for eighteen months plus provide six months of outplacement assistance with an external provider.

At the 1996 Annual Meeting, the shareholders approved and ratified the Corporation's Change in Control Agreement Program for the Corporation's executive officers and certain other key employees. Except as described below, all of the agreements are identical in all material respects.

If, within one year following the occurrence of a change in control, the employer involuntarily terminates the employment of the executive (other than for cause as defined below), substantially reduces the executive's title, responsibilities, power or authority, reduces the executive's base compensation, assigns duties which are inconsistent with previous duties, or undertakes similar actions, a severance benefit equal to one year's base compensation (payable in twelve monthly installments) will thereupon be payable to the former executive.

Health insurance and other principal employee benefits will be continued during that one year period. If the former executive enters into competitive employment during the one year period, severance payments will cease. Cause for termination shall arise if the executive commits a felony resulting in, or intended to result in, monetary harm to the Corporation, its customers, or affiliates, or if the executive intentionally fails to perform his duties for 30 consecutive days following written notice from the Corporation that such duties are not being performed.

The agreement with Mr. O'Dell, the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation, provides for severance payments to be made if the employer involuntarily terminates the employment of the executive (other than for cause as defined above), or undertakes similar action as described above, within three years of a change in control (rather than one year as described above for other agreements). Furthermore, Mr.

O'Dell's agreement provides a severance benefit equal to three year's compensation (payable in thirty-six monthly installments) with continuation of health insurance and other principal employee benefits during that period. In addition, Mr. O'Dell may also trigger the payment of severance benefits (in the same amount and under the same conditions described above) by voluntarily terminating employment within one year following a change in control. However, the voluntary termination provision will no longer be available once Mr. O'Dell attains normal retirement age under any of the Corporation's regular retirement plans.

Separate agreements with Mr. Thomchick, Senior Executive Vice President of the Corporation and Mr. Glass, Vice Chairman of FCFC and President and CEO of FCB are identical to Mr. O'Dell's agreement in all material respects except that severance payments are triggered only if the involuntary termination of employment or other triggering event occurs within two years of the change in control and the total severance benefit in his case is equal to two years compensation (payable in twenty-four monthly installments).

In December 1998, FCB executed an agreement with Mr. Glass who serves as Vice Chairman of FCFC and President and CEO of FCB. The agreement defines the severance package Mr. Glass would receive should his employment be terminated by the Employer for reasons other than for just cause prior to his sixty-third (63rd) birthday. Should such a termination occur Mr. Glass would receive compensation payments for twenty-four (24) months following his separation. The payments would be based upon the rate of annual compensation he was receiving at the time of separation. Mr. Glass would be prohibited from employment with a competitor, directly or indirectly, in the Employer's market area in the twenty-four (24) months following his termination without just cause. The Employer is obligated to continue to pay its share of the cost of health insurance premiums for Mr. Glass for a period of twenty-four (24) months following his separation. Mr. Glass may also elect to invoke the terms of the agreement by terminating his employment for any reason. The agreement permits the Employer to terminate Mr. Glass for just cause at any time. The agreement does not call for the payment of any compensation or benefit coverage should a just cause termination occur. The agreement does not diminish the rights of Mr. Glass under any other existing agreements, including a change of control agreement.

During 2001, David R. Tomb, Jr., attorney-at-law, and the law firm of Tomb and Tomb of which Mr. Tomb is a partner performed legal services for the Corporation and FCB. Mr. Tomb is a director and executive officer of the Corporation. The fees paid for services during 2001 were $70,355.
