BLAIR CORPORATION TO CONSOLIDATE RETURNS AND FULFILLMENT OPERATIONS AT IRVINE DISTRIBUTION COMPLEX

Blair Corporation, (AMEX:BL) (www.blair.com), a national multi-channel direct marketer of women's and men's apparel and home products, announced today that it will close its leased Returns Center in Erie, Pa., and move all returns operations to the Blair Distribution Complex (BDC) in Irvine, Pa., located approximately seven miles from its Warren headquarters.

According to Blair officials, technological improvements and productivity enhancements at its Distribution Complex have made the transfer possible and will enable the Company to process returns and redistribute merchandise to its inventory more efficiently.

Since the Erie Returns Center was first opened, the situation at our Distribution Complex has changed significantly, said Randall Scalise, Blair Vice President, Fulfillment. Blair is continuing its process of aligning facilities in appropriate balance to sales. Just as importantly, however, technological improvements in our material handling systems and increased productivity have reduced both space and labor requirements at BDC, making it feasible to reallocate production space to the returns function.

According to Scalise, the consolidation of Blair's returns operations at the Distribution Complex will enable the Company to serve its customers more efficiently.

The consolidation of all our fulfillment functions will significantly improve our efficiency. Returned merchandise can be more quickly cycled back into inventory and customers' concerns addressed without the time and expense of shipping merchandise from Erie to Warren, Scalise explained.

Edgar Filing: BLAIR CORP - Form 8-K

The transfer of the returns operations to the Irvine facility will follow the completed installation of a computerized Warehouse Management System (WMS) at the Distribution Complex. Implementation of the system, targeted for early next year, is expected to further improve productivity through the use of radio frequencies to track and sort inventory.

Most Returns Center associates will be offered the opportunity to transfer from Erie to the Blair Distribution Complex in Irvine. The Company plans to provide relocation assistance to associates who are interested in transferring. Associates who are unable to transfer will be offered severance packages.

Since 2001, Blair's fulfillment operations have been expanded to encompass its merchandise distribution center and former mailing center, creating a complex totaling over 800,000 square feet located on Company-owned property. Additionally, Blair has invested approximately $23 million to increase warehouse capacity and install new conveyor systems and automated sorting equipment for order fulfillment and shipping. A unique conveyor bridge was also constructed to connect the two existing buildings, maximizing the Company's utilization of available space at the complex.

Consolidating our fulfillment operations and reducing the costs of operating a separate returns center simply makes good sense, both in terms of better serving our customers and most efficiently utilizing our existing facilities," said Blair President and Chief Executive Officer John Zawacki.

Efficiencies which help us to better serve our customers benefit Blair both immediately and in the long run. Blair also has an obligation to our shareholders to use their capital in the most effective way possible. Given our current situation at the BDC, consolidating all our fulfillment operations in one convenient and affordable location is the right thing to do.
