ABOUT THIS PROSPECTUS SUPPLEMENT

This prospectus supplement and the accompanying base prospectus dated May 8, 2009 are part of a "shelf" registration statement that we have filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, or SEC. Each time we sell securities under the accompanying base prospectus we will provide a prospectus supplement that will contain specific information about the terms of that offering, including the price, the amount of common stock being offered and the plan of distribution. The shelf registration was declared effective by the SEC on May 28, 2009. This prospectus supplement describes the specific details regarding this offering, including the price, the amount of common stock being offered, the risks of investing in our common stock and the plan of distribution. The accompanying base prospectus provides general information about us, some of which, such as the section entitled "Plan of Distribution," may not apply to this offering.

If information in this prospectus supplement is inconsistent with the accompanying base prospectus or the information incorporated by reference, you should rely on this prospectus supplement. You should read both this prospectus supplement and the accompanying base prospectus together with the additional information about Research Frontiers Incorporated to which we refer you in the section of this prospectus supplement entitled "Available Information."

SUMMARY

You should read the entire prospectus, including the section entitled 'Risk Factors,' carefully before making an investment decision.

THE COMPANY

Research Frontiers Incorporated ("Research Frontiers" or the "Company") develops and licenses its suspended particle technology for controlling the amount of light passing through a device. Such suspended particle devices are often referred to as "SPDs," "light valves," or "SPD-Smart " products.

SPDs use microscopic light-absorbing particles that are either in a liquid suspension or a film. The microscopic particles align when an electrical voltage is applied. This permits light to pass through the device, and allows the amount of light to be controlled. Our offices are located at: 240 Crossways Park Drive, Woodbury, NY 11797 (telephone: 516-364-1902).

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information in this prospectus, you should carefully consider the following factors in evaluating us and our business before purchasing the shares of common stock offered hereby. This prospectus contains, in addition to historical information, forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. Our actual results could differ materially. Factors that could cause or contribute to such differences include, but are not limited to, those discussed below, as well as those discussed elsewhere in this prospectus, including the documents incorporated by reference.

There are risks associated with investing in companies such as ours who are engaged in research and development. Because of these risks, you should only invest if you are able to bear the risk of losing your entire investment. Before investing, in addition to risks which could apply to any issuer or offering, you should also consider the business we are in and the following:

History of Operating Losses.

Research Frontiers has a history of operating losses, expects to incur additional losses in the future, and consequently will need additional funds in the future to continue its operations. To date, Research Frontiers has lost money, and we expect to lose money in the foreseeable future. Because we expect that our future revenues will consist primarily of license fees (which have not been significant to date), unless our licensees produce and sell products using our technology, Research Frontiers will not be profitable. There is no guarantee that we will ever be profitable. Since Research Frontiers was started in 1965 through December 31, 2009, its total net loss was $76,399,353. Our net loss was $4,002,761 in 2009, $2,594,843 in 2008, and $7,565,218 in 2007 (which includes a non-cash accounting charge in 2007 of $4,026,855 resulting from the expensing of stock options).

Source and Need for Capital.

We have funded our operations by selling our common stock to investors. If we need additional money, there is no guarantee that it will be available when we need it, or on favorable terms. The Company will need to raise additional capital no later than the first quarter of 2013 if operations, including research and development and marketing, are to be maintained at current levels and if its revenues do not increase before then. If the Company cannot raise additional funds, it will be required to reduce expenses during 2013. Eventual success of the Company and generation of positive cash flow will be dependent upon the extent of commercialization of products using the Company's technology by the Company's licensees and payments of continuing royalties on account thereof.

Edgar Filing: RESEARCH FRONTIERS INC - Form 424B2

Dependence on Third Parties.

Research Frontiers depends upon the activities of its licensees in order to be profitable. We do not directly manufacture or market products using SPD technology. Although a variety of products have been sold by our licensees, and because it is up to our licensees to decide when and if they will introduce products using SPD technology, we cannot predict when and if our licensees will generate substantial sales of such products. Research Frontiers' SPD technology is currently licensed to 37 companies. Other companies are also evaluating SPD technology for use in various products. In the past, some companies have evaluated our technology without proceeding further. Also, we do not intend to manufacture products using SPD technology. Instead we intend to continue to license our SPD technology to manufacturers of end products, films and emulsion. We expect that our licensees would be primarily responsible for manufacturing and marketing SPD products and components, but we are also engaging in market development activities to support our licensees and build the smart glass industry.

Recent Introduction of Products Using the Company's Technology.

Products using SPD technology have only recently begun to be introduced into the marketplace. Developing products using new technologies can be risky because problems, expenses and delays frequently occur, and costs may or may not come down quickly for such products using new technologies to rapidly penetrate mass market applications. Research Frontiers cannot control whether or not its licensees will develop SPD products. Some of our licensees appear to be more active than others, some appear to be better capitalized than others, and some licensees appear to be inactive. There is no guarantee when or if our licensees will successfully produce any commercial product using SPD technology in sufficient quantities to make Research Frontiers profitable.

Dependence on SPD Technology.

Because SPD technology is the only technology Research Frontiers works with, our success depends upon the viability of SPD technology which has yet to be fully proven. We have not fully ascertained the performance and long-term reliability of our technology, and therefore there is no guarantee that our technology will successfully be incorporated into all of the products which we are targeting for use of SPD technology. We expect that different product applications for SPD technology will have different performance and reliability specifications. We expect that our licensees will primarily be responsible for reliability testing, but that we may also continue to do reliability testing so that we can more effectively focus our research and development efforts towards constantly improving the performance characteristics and reliability of products using SPD technology.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information in this prospectus, you should carefully consider the following factors in evaluating us and our business before purchasing the shares of common stock offered hereby. This prospectus contains, in addition to historical information, forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. Our actual results could differ materially. Factors that could cause or contribute to such differences include, but are not limited to, those discussed below, as well as those discussed elsewhere in this prospectus, including the documents incorporated by reference.

There are risks associated with investing in companies such as ours who are engaged in research and development. Because of these risks, you should only invest if you are able to bear the risk of losing your entire investment. Before investing, in addition to risks which could apply to any issuer or offering, you should also consider the business we are in and the following:

History of Operating Losses.

Research Frontiers has a history of operating losses, expects to incur additional losses in the future, and consequently will need additional funds in the future to continue its operations. To date, Research Frontiers has lost money, and we expect to lose money in the foreseeable future. Source and Need for Capital.

We have funded our operations by selling our common stock to investors. If we need additional money, there is no guarantee that it will be available when we need it, or on favorable terms. The Company will need to raise additional capital no later than the fourth quarter of 2012 if operations, including research and development and marketing, are to be maintained at current levels and if its revenues do not increase before then. If the

Company cannot raise additional funds, it will be required to reduce expenses during 2012. Eventual success of the Company and generation of positive cash flow will be dependent upon the extent of commercialization of products using the Company's technology by the Company's licensees and payments of continuing royalties on account thereof.

Recent Introduction of Products Using the Company's Technology.

Products using SPD technology have only recently begun to be introduced into the marketplace. DESCRIPTION OF WARRANTS

Each purchaser in this offering will receive a warrant to purchase one share of our common stock for every five shares of common stock purchased in this offering. The warrants will be issued pursuant to warrant agreements executed by us.

Each warrant will entitle the holder to purchase one share of common stock at an exercise price of $6.25 per share. Holders of the warrants may exercise the warrants at any time from September 17, 2010 to 4:30 P.M. Woodbury, New York time on September 30, 2015, after which unexercised warrants will become void.

Holders of the warrants may exercise the warrants by delivering the warrant certificate representing the warrants to be exercised together with specified information, and paying the required amount to the Company in immediately available cash funds. Upon receipt of the required payment and the warrant certificate properly completed and duly executed, we will issue and deliver the number of shares of common stock purchasable upon such exercise. If fewer than all of the warrants represented by the warrant certificate are exercised, then we will issue a new warrant certificate for the remaining amount of warrants.

The Warrants provide that unless a holder waives the provision, the warrant holder may not exercise the warrant to the extent that such exercise will cause the warrant holder to beneficially own more than 4.999% of the common stock of the Company then outstanding. In no event may a warrant holder exercise warrants if such exercise shall cause the warrant holder to own more than 9.999% of the common stock of the Company then outstanding.

The exercise price and the number and type of securities purchasable upon exercise of warrants are subject to adjustment upon certain corporate events, including certain combinations, consolidations, liquidations, mergers, recapitalizations, reclassifications, reorganizations, stock dividends and stock splits, a sale of all or substantially all of our assets and certain other events.

No fractional warrant shares will be issued upon exercise of the warrants. Before exercising their warrants, holders of warrants will not have any of the rights of holders of common stock, including the right to receive dividends, if any, or, payments upon our liquidation, dissolution or winding up or to exercise voting rights, if any.

SUMMARY

You should read the entire prospectus, including the section entitled 'Risk Factors,' carefully before making an investment decision.

THE COMPANY

Research Frontiers Incorporated ("Research Frontiers" or the "Company") develops and licenses its suspended particle technology for controlling the amount of light passing through a device. Such suspended particle devices are often referred to as "SPDs," "light valves," or "SPD-Smart " products.

SPDs use microscopic light-absorbing particles that are either in a liquid suspension or a film. The microscopic particles align when an electrical voltage is applied. This permits light to pass through the device, and allows the amount of light to be controlled. Our offices are located at: 240 Crossways Park Drive, Woodbury, NY 11797 (telephone: 516-364-1902).

It excludes outstanding options and warrants (not including the warrants issued in this offering) to purchase 2,432,579 shares of common stock, and options or other equity awards for 234,438 shares available for future issuance pursuant to the Company's 2008 Equity Incentive Plan.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information in this prospectus, you should carefully consider the following factors in evaluating us and our business before purchasing the shares of common stock offered hereby. This prospectus contains, in addition to historical information, forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. Our actual results could differ materially. Factors that could cause or contribute to such differences include, but are not limited to, those discussed below, as well as those discussed elsewhere in this prospectus, including the documents incorporated by reference.

There are risks associated with investing in companies such as ours who are engaged in research and development. Because of these risks, you should only invest if you are able to bear the risk of losing your entire investment. Before investing, in addition to risks which could apply to any issuer or offering, you should also consider the business we are in and the following:

History of Operating Losses.

Research Frontiers has a history of operating losses, expects to incur additional losses in the future, and consequently will need additional funds in the future to continue its operations. To date, Research Frontiers has lost money, and we expect to lose money in the foreseeable future. Because we expect that our future revenues will consist primarily of license fees (which have not been significant to date), unless our licensees produce and sell products using our technology, Research Frontiers will not be profitable. There is no guarantee that we will ever be profitable. Since Research Frontiers was started in 1965 through December 31, 2009, its total net loss was $76,399,353. Our net loss was $4,002,761 in 2009, $2,594,843 in 2008, and $7,565,218 in 2007 (which includes a non-cash accounting charge in 2007 of $4,026,855 resulting from the expensing of stock options).

Source and Need for Capital.

Edgar Filing: RESEARCH FRONTIERS INC - Form 424B2

We have funded our operations by selling our common stock to investors. If we need additional money, there is no guarantee that it will be available when we need it, or on favorable terms. The Company will need to raise additional capital no later than the third quarter of 2012 if operations, including research and development and marketing, are to be maintained at current levels and if its revenues do not increase before then. If the Company cannot raise additional funds, it will be required to reduce expenses during 2012. Eventual success of the Company and generation of positive cash flow will be dependent upon the extent of commercialization of products using the Company's technology by the Company's licensees and payments of continuing royalties on account thereof.

Dependence on Third Parties.

Research Frontiers depends upon the activities of its licensees in order to be profitable. We do not directly manufacture or market products using SPD technology. Although a variety of products have been sold by our licensees, and because it is up to our licensees to decide when and if they will introduce products using SPD technology, we cannot predict when and if our licensees will generate substantial sales of such products. Research Frontiers' SPD technology is currently licensed to 37 companies. Other companies are also evaluating SPD technology for use in various products. In the past, some companies have evaluated our technology without proceeding further. Also, we do not intend to manufacture products using SPD technology. Instead we intend to continue to license our SPD technology to manufacturers of end products, films and emulsion. We expect that our licensees would be primarily responsible for manufacturing and marketing SPD products and components, but we are also engaging in market development activities to support our licensees and build the smart glass industry.

Recent Introduction of Products Using the Company's Technology.

Products using SPD technology have only recently begun to be introduced into the marketplace. Developing products using new technologies can be risky because problems, expenses and delays frequently occur, and costs may or may not come down quickly for such products using new technologies to rapidly penetrate mass market applications. Research Frontiers cannot control whether or not its licensees will develop SPD products. Some of our licensees appear to be more active than others, some appear to be better capitalized than others, and some licensees appear to be inactive. There is no guarantee when or if our licensees will successfully produce any commercial product using SPD technology in sufficient quantities to make Research Frontiers profitable.

Dependence on SPD Technology.

Because SPD technology is the only technology Research Frontiers works with, our success depends upon the viability of SPD technology which has yet to be fully proven. We have not fully ascertained the performance and long-term reliability of our technology, and therefore there is no guarantee that our technology will successfully be incorporated into all of the products which we are targeting for use of SPD technology. We expect that different product applications for SPD technology will have different performance and reliability specifications. We expect that our licensees will primarily be responsible for reliability testing, but that we may also continue to do reliability testing so that we can more effectively focus our research and development efforts towards constantly improving the performance characteristics and reliability of products using SPD technology.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information in this prospectus, you should carefully consider the following factors in evaluating us and our business before purchasing the shares of common stock offered hereby. This prospectus contains, in addition to historical information, forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. Our actual results could differ materially. Factors that could cause or contribute to such differences include, but are not limited to, those discussed below, as well as those discussed elsewhere in this prospectus, including the documents incorporated by reference.

There are risks associated with investing in companies such as ours who are engaged in research and development. Because of these risks, you should only invest if you are able to bear the risk of losing your entire investment. Before investing, in addition to risks which could apply to any issuer or offering, you should also consider the business we are in and the following:

Research Frontiers has a history of operating losses, expects to incur additional losses in the future, and consequently will need additional funds in the future to continue its operations. 2007 of $4,026,855 resulting from the expensing of stock options).

We have funded our operations by selling our common stock to investors. If we need additional money, there is no guarantee that it will be available when we need it, or on favorable terms. The Company will need to raise additional capital no later than the first quarter of 2011 if operations, including research and development and marketing, are to be maintained at current levels and if its revenues do not increase before then. If the Company cannot raise additional funds, it will be required to reduce expenses during 2010. Eventual success of the Company and generation of positive cash flow will be dependent upon the extent of commercialization of products using the Company's technology by the Company's licensees and payments of continuing royalties on account thereof.

THE COMPANY

Edgar Filing: RESEARCH FRONTIERS INC - Form 424B2

Research Frontiers Incorporated ("Research Frontiers" or the "Company") develops and licenses its suspended particle technology for controlling the amount of light passing through a device. Such suspended particle devices are often referred to as "SPDs," "light valves," or "SPD-Smart " products.

SPDs use microscopic light-absorbing particles that are either in a liquid suspension or a film. The microscopic particles align when an electrical voltage is applied. This permits light to pass through the device, and allows the amount of light to be controlled. Our offices are located at: 240 Crossways Park Drive, Woodbury, NY 11797 (telephone: 516-364-1902).

THE OFFERING

Common Stock issued by Research Frontiers:	780,831 shares
Common Stock Outstanding after this offering:	16,522,727 shares
Warrants exercisable at $6.00 per share:	156,161 warrants
Use of Proceeds:	general corporate purposes
Nasdaq Capital Market Symbol:	REFR

The number of shares of common stock outstanding after this offering is based upon 15,741,896 shares outstanding as of July 31,2009. It excludes outstanding options and warrants (not including the warrants issued in this offering) to purchase 2,232,180 shares of common stock, and options or other equity awards for 450,938 shares available for future issuance pursuant to the Company's 2008 Equity Incentive Plan.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information in this prospectus, you should carefully consider the following factors in evaluating us and our business before purchasing the shares of common stock offered hereby. This prospectus contains, in addition to historical information, forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. Our actual results could differ materially. Factors that could cause or contribute to such differences include, but are not limited to, those discussed below, as well as those discussed elsewhere in this prospectus, including the documents incorporated by reference.

There are risks associated with investing in companies such as ours who are engaged in research and development. Because of these risks, you should only invest if you are able to bear the risk of losing your entire investment. Before investing, in addition to risks which could apply to any issuer or offering, you should also consider the business we are in and the following:

Research Frontiers has a history of operating losses, expects to incur additional losses in the future, and consequently will need additional funds in the future to continue its operations. To date, Research Frontiers has lost money, and we expect to lose money in the foreseeable future. Because we expect that our future revenues will consist primarily of license fees (which have not been significant to date), unless our licensees produce and sell products using our technology, Research Frontiers will not be profitable. There is no guarantee that we will ever be profitable. Since Research Frontiers was started in 1965 through December 31, 2008, its total net loss was $72,396,592. Our net loss was $2,594,843 in 2008, $7,565,218 in 2007 (which includes a non-cash accounting charge of $4,026,855 resulting from the expensing of stock options), and $3,303,633 in 2006.

Edgar Filing: RESEARCH FRONTIERS INC - Form 424B2

We have funded our operations by selling our common stock to investors. If we need additional money, there is no guarantee that it will be available when we need it, or on favorable terms. The Company will need to raise additional capital no later than the first quarter of 2010 if operations, including research and development and marketing, are to be maintained at current levels and if its revenues do not increase before then. If the Company cannot raise additional funds, it will be required to reduce expenses during 2009. Eventual success of the Company and generation of positive cash flow will be dependent upon the extent of commercialization of products using the Company's technology by the Company's licensees and payments of continuing royalties on account thereof.

Research Frontiers depends upon the activities of its licensees in order to be profitable. We do not directly manufacture or market products using SPD technology. Although a variety of products have been sold by our licensees, and since it is up to our licensees to decide when and if they will introduce products using SPD technology, we cannot predict when and if our licensees will generate substantial sales of such products. Research Frontiers' SPD technology is currently licensed to 35 companies. Other companies are also evaluating SPD technology for use in various products. In the past, some companies have evaluated our technology without proceeding further. Also, we do not intend to manufacture products using SPD technology. Instead we intend to continue to license our SPD technology to manufacturers of end products, films and emulsion. We expect that our licensees would be primarily responsible for manufacturing and marketing SPD products and components, but we are also engaging in market development activities to support our licensees and build the smart glass industry.

Products using SPD technology have only recently begun to be introduced into the marketplace. Developing products using new technologies can be risky because problems, expenses and delays frequently occur. Research Frontiers cannot control whether or not its licensees will develop SPD products. Some of our licensees appear to be more active than others, some appear to be better capitalized than others, and some licensees appear to be inactive. There is no guarantee when or if our licensees will successfully produce any commercial product using SPD technology in sufficient quantities to make Research Frontiers profitable.

Because SPD technology is the only technology Research Frontiers works with, our success depends upon the viability of SPD technology which has yet to be fully proven. We have not fully ascertained the performance and long-term reliability of our technology, and therefore there is no guarantee that our technology will successfully be incorporated into all of the products which we are targeting for use of SPD technology. We expect that different product applications for SPD technology will have different performance and reliability specifications. We expect that our licensees will primarily be responsible for reliability testing, but that we may also continue to do reliability testing so that we can more effectively focus our research and development efforts towards constantly improving the performance characteristics and reliability of products using SPD technology.

There is no guarantee that we will ever be profitable. Since Research Frontiers was started in 1965 through December 31, 2008, its total net loss was $72,396,592. Our net loss was $2,594,843 in 2008, $7,565,218 in 2007 (which includes a non-cash accounting charge of $4,026,855 resulting from the expensing of stock options), and $3,303,633 in 2006.

We have funded our operations by selling our common stock to investors. If we need additional money, there is no guarantee that it will be available when we need it, or on favorable terms. The Company will need to raise additional capital no later than the first quarter of 2010 if operations, including research and development and marketing, are to be maintained at current levels and if its revenues do not increase before then. If the Company cannot raise additional funds, it will be required to reduce expenses during 2009. Eventual success of the Company and generation of positive cash flow will be dependent upon the extent of commercialization of products using the Company's technology by the Company's licensees and payments of continuing royalties on account thereof.

Research Frontiers depends upon the activities of its licensees in order to be profitable. We do not directly manufacture or market products using SPD technology. Although a variety of products have been sold by our licensees, and since it is up to our licensees to decide when and if they will introduce products using SPD technology, we cannot predict when and if our licensees will generate substantial sales of such products. Research Frontiers' SPD technology is currently licensed to 35 companies. Other companies are also evaluating SPD technology for use in various products. In the past, some companies have evaluated our technology without proceeding further. Also, we do not intend to manufacture products using SPD technology. Instead we intend to continue to license our SPD technology to manufacturers of end products, films and emulsion. We expect that our licensees would be primarily responsible for manufacturing and marketing SPD products and components, but we are also engaging in market development activities to support our licensees and build the smart glass industry.

Products using SPD technology have only recently begun to be introduced into the marketplace. Developing products using new technologies can be risky because problems, expenses and delays frequently occur. Research Frontiers cannot control whether or not its licensees will develop SPD products. Some of our licensees appear to be more active than others, some appear to be better capitalized than others, and some licensees appear to be inactive. There is no guarantee when or if our licensees will successfully produce any commercial product using SPD technology in sufficient quantities to make Research Frontiers profitable.

Because SPD technology is the only technology Research Frontiers works with, our success depends upon the viability of SPD technology which has yet to be fully proven. We have not fully ascertained the performance and long-term reliability of our technology, and therefore there is no guarantee that our technology will successfully be incorporated into all of the products which we are targeting for use of SPD technology. We expect that different product applications for SPD technology will have different performance and reliability specifications. We expect that our licensees will primarily be responsible for reliability testing, but that we may also continue to do reliability testing so that we can more effectively focus our research and development efforts towards constantly improving the performance characteristics and reliability of products using SPD technology.
