Press Release

Heartland Express, Inc. Announces New President.

CORALVILLE, IOWA - May 18, 2006 - Heartland Express, Inc. (Nasdaq: HTLD) announced today the promotion of Michael Gerdin to President of Heartland Express, Inc. Mr. Russell Gerdin will continue to serve as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer having served as President since 1978.

Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Heartland Express Russell Gerdin, stated: "Heartland Express has a long history of success in building a growth organization dependent upon the strength of our people, dedicated to service excellence. Our reputation as being a leader in the industry for financial strength and operational performance sets a high watermark in our industry. Our long term success speaks to the depth of Heartland's management team and character of our people in our organization. This announcement is part of our long term vision for the continued growth and success".

Michael Gerdin started with Heartland Express, Inc. in 1983. Since that time he has held numerous positions throughout the Company. He has held positions in the operations, sales, safety, shop, and driver recruiting departments.

Mr. Gerdin received his BA degree in Business Management from Luther College in 1992.

Michael was elected to the Heartland Express, Inc. Board of Directors in 1996, an appointment of which he currently serves.

From 1998 to 2001 he served as President of A&M Express, Inc. of Kingsport, TN a wholly owned subsidiary of Heartland Express, Inc. purchased in 1997.

In 2001, Michael was appointed Vice President of Regional Operations for Heartland Express which currently represents approximately 65% of Heartlands revenue base.

Mr. Russell Gerdin further commented "These are exciting and challenging times, I am confident that Michael and his management team will be successful in furthering our past success. As Chairman and CEO I look forward to working
