PLC. This acquisition is expected to close on December 22, 2000. The new agreements will become effective at the time of the acquisition. Aberdeen Asset Management will bring the benefits of a global structure, greater resources, and a depth of experience in asset management.

Quarterly distribution rate

In the fiscal year ended October 31, 2000, the Fund paid a total of 81 cents per share, which equates to an annualized cash distribution rate of 13.8%, based upon the share price of $5.88 as at October 31, 2000. The cash distribution for the current quarter of 19 cents per share was paid on October 13, 2000.

Since all distributions are paid after deducting applicable withholding taxes, the effective distribution rate may be higher for those US investors who are able to claim a tax credit. The Fund makes quarterly distributions at an annual rate of not less than 9% of the rolling average of the Fund's prior four quarter-end Net Asset Values (NAV). It is the intention of the Board to review the distribution at its next regularly scheduled quarterly meeting in March 2001.

NAV Performance

Over the fiscal year, the NAV fell by 12.0% after expenses (assuming reinvestment of distributions) compared with a 6.1% fall in the Benchmark (S&P/ASX 200 Accumulation Index) in the US dollar terms. However, in Australian dollar terms, the Fund's NAV increased by 9.1%, compared with a rise of 16.5% in the Benchmark. The strength of the US dollar had an adverse impact on the Australian dollar over the year, which depreciated by 19.4% to close at 51.9 cents on October 31, 2000.

Investment Strategy

Edgar Filing: FIRST AUSTRALIA FUND INC - Form N-30D

The Fund increased its exposure to the Resources sector over the year. It remains overweight compared with the S&P/ASX 200 Accumulation Index. This has benefited performance as the Resources sector has outperformed the Industrial sector.

The Fund's exposure to the Industrial sector remains slightly underweight. The Manager believes that the industrial stocks, which are held in the portfolio, continue to represent high growth prospects and consistent dividend income.

The Fund will remain relatively fully invested.

Portfolio Composition

The following chart summarizes the composition of the Fund's portfolio, expressed as a percentage of net assets. On October 31, 2000, the Fund held 75% of its net assets in industrial stocks, 20% in resource stocks, and 5% in cash.

Market Review and Outlook

The First Australia Fund, Inc.

Economy

After a prolonged period of robust growth, the Australian economy appears set to moderate in coming months. Although the external sector has made a significant contribution to GDP, softening domestic consumption and housing are expected to partly offset this.

The Reserve Bank of Australia raised official interest rates by 1.50% over the year, in successive 0.25% moves, intending to sustain the current expansion by dampening potential price pressures. It is anticipated that the Bank is close to completing its tightening phase. To date, wage pressures remain muted, despite a cyclically low unemployment rate.

Stock-market

The Australian stock market rose by 16.5% over the year, with a 17.1% increase in the Resources sector. With global industrial production slowing, however, resources stocks are unlikely to perform as well over the next twelve months. The recent volatility in metal prices, particularly, has caused a softening in investor sentiment in the sector. Large market capitalization stocks are expected to continue to post solid returns, however, boosted by the competitive position of the Australian dollar and diversified earnings bases.

Industrial stocks are likely to outperform their resources counterparts in coming months as the global growth cycle enters its mature stages. Prospects for company profits remain positive, as the Australian economy is still experiencing relatively high levels of GDP growth.

Currency

The Australian dollar has weakened over the year, largely as a consequence of investor preference for US dollar-denominated investments. Economic fundamentals remain buoyant in Australia, yet this has not been reflected in the currency.

It is a widely held view that the Australian dollar is undervalued. There are several key factors that may bring about an appreciation in the currency. With exports and capital expenditure maintaining the current high rate of GDP expansion, there is a strong likelihood that official interest rates will rise in coming months, thus bringing the interest differential with the US to at least parity.

The current account position has also improved considerably, after peaking in 1999, and is expected to continue to fall. In addition, the broadening in the commodity price recovery should result in a realignment of the Australian dollar's historical relationship with commodity prices.

Notes to Financial Statements The First Australia Fund, Inc.

The First Australia Fund, Inc. (the 'Fund') is a closed-end, nondiversified management investment company incorporated in Maryland on September 30, 1985. The Fund's principal investment objective is long-term capital appreciation through investment primarily in equity securities of Australian companies listed on Australian stock exchanges. The Fund's secondary investment objective is current income. It is expected that normally at least 65% of the Fund's total assets will be invested in equity securities listed on Australian stock exchanges and that current income will be derived primarily from dividends and interest on Australian corporate and governmental securities. The ability of issuers of debt securities, including foreign currency balances on deposit with the Fund's Australian subcustodian banks, held by the Fund to meet their obligations may be affected by economic or political developments in a specific industry or region.

Note 1. Accounting Policies

The following is a summary of significant accounting policies followed by the Fund in the preparation of its financial statements.

Basis of Presentation: The financial statements of the Fund are prepared in accordance with United States generally accepted accounting principles using the United States dollar as both the functional and reporting currency.

Security Valuation: Investments are stated at value. Investments for which market quotations are readily available are valued at the last reported sales prices. If there is no sales price on the date of valuation, then investments are valued at the most recently available sales price or at fair value as determined in good faith by or under the direction of the Fund's Board of Directors.

Short-term securities which mature in more than 60 days are valued at current market quotations. Short-term securities which mature in 60 days or less are valued at amortized cost.

Repurchase Agreements: In connection with transactions in repurchase agreements with U.S. financial institutions, it is the Fund's policy that its custodian take possession of the underlying collateral securities, the value of which exceeds the principal amount of the repurchase transaction, including accrued interest. To the extent that any repurchase transaction exceeds one business day, the collateral is valued on a daily basis to determine its adequacy. If the seller defaults and the value of the collateral declines or if bankruptcy proceedings are commenced with respect to the seller of the security, realization of the collateral by the Fund may be delayed or limited.

Foreign Currency Translation: Australian dollar ('A$) amounts are translated into United States dollars ('US$) on the following basis:

- (i) market value of investment securities, other assets and liabilities at the exchange rates at the end of the reporting period; and
- (ii) purchases and sales of investment securities, income and expenses at the rate of exchange prevailing on the respective dates of such transactions.

The First Australia Fund, Inc.

The Fund isolates that portion of the results of operations arising as a result of changes in the foreign exchange rates from the fluctuations arising from changes in the market prices of securities held at October 31, 2000. Similarly, the Fund isolates the effect of changes in foreign exchange rates from the fluctuations arising from changes in the market prices of portfolio securities sold during the reporting period.

Net realized and unrealized foreign exchange losses of $26,911,282 for the year ended October 31, 2000 includes realized foreign exchange gains and losses from sales and maturities of portfolio securities, sales of foreign currencies, currency gains or losses realized between the trade and settlement dates on securities transactions, the difference between the amounts of dividends, interest and foreign withholding taxes recorded on the Fund's books and the U.S. dollar equivalent amounts actually received or paid and changes in unrealized foreign exchange gains and losses in the value of portfolio securities and other assets and liabilities arising as a result of changes in the exchange rate. Accumulated net realized and unrealized foreign exchange losses shown in the composition of net assets at October 31, 2000 represent foreign exchange losses for book purposes that have not yet been recognized for tax purposes.

Foreign security and currency transactions may involve certain considerations and risks not typically associated with those of domestic origin, including unanticipated movements in the value of the foreign currency relative to the U.S. dollar.

The exchange rate at October 31, 2000 was US$.5166 to A$1.00 for the Australian dollar.

Securities Transactions and Investment Income: Securities transactions are recorded on the trade date. Realized and unrealized gains and losses from security and currency transactions are calculated on the identified cost basis. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date and interest income is recorded on an accrual basis. Expenses are recorded on the accrual basis which may require the use of certain estimates by management. The preparation of financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts and disclosures. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Dividends and Distributions: It is the Fund's current policy to pay regular quarterly distributions at an annual rate, which is a percentage of the rolling average of the Fund's prior four quarter-end net asset values. The distributions will be made from net investment income, net realized capital gains and, to any extent necessary, paid-in capital. Dividends and distributions are recorded on the ex-dividend date. Income distributions and capital and currency gains distributions are determined in accordance with income tax regulations which may differ from generally accepted accounting principles. These differences are primarily due to differing treatments for foreign currencies.

Taxes: For federal income and excise tax purposes, substantially all of the Fund's transactions are accounted for using the Australian dollar as the functional currency. Accordingly, only realized currency gains and losses resulting from the repatriation of Australian dollars into United States dollars are recognized for tax purposes.

(the 'Fund) at October 31, 2000, the results of its operations for the year then ended, the changes in its net assets for each of the two years in the period then ended and the financial highlights for each of the five years in the period then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. These financial statements and financial highlights (hereafter referred to as 'financial statements) are the responsibility of the Fund's management; our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits of these financial statements in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America which require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. We believe that our audits, which included confirmation of securities at October 31, 2000 by correspondence with the custodian and brokers, provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Federal Tax Information:

Dividends and Distributions (Unaudited)

The First Australia Fund, Inc.

As required by Internal Revenue Code regulations, we are to advise you within 60 days of the Fund's fiscal year end (October 31, 2000) as to the tax status of dividends, distributions and foreign tax credits paid by the Fund during the fiscal year. During fiscal year 2000, the Fund paid dividends from net investment income which are taxable as ordinary income. However, these dividends do not qualify for the 70% dividends received deduction for corporations. The Fund also paid distributions from long-term capital gains which are taxable as such.

The Fund has elected to give the benefit of foreign tax credits to its shareholders in the amount designated below on a per share basis. Accordingly, shareholders who must report their gross income dividends and distributions in a federal income tax return will be entitled to a foreign tax credit, or an itemized deduction, in computing their U.S. income tax liability. It is generally more advantageous to claim a credit rather than to take a deduction. The following table allocates the dividends and distributions paid by their sources:

	Gross	Foreign Taxes	Net Dividends Distributed

Edgar Filing: FIRST AUSTRALIA FUND INC - Form N-30D

		Amount -----	Paid -----	Paid -----
Australia	--dividends	$.095	$.009	$.086
	--interest	.006	.001	.005
United States	--short-term capital gains	.156	--	.156
	--long-term capital gains	.563	--	.563
		-----	-----	-----
		$.820	$.010	$.810

Although the Fund has made the election required to make this foreign credit or deduction available to you, the amount of allowable tax credit is subject to Section 904 of the Internal Revenue Code. Shareholders are advised to consult their own tax advisers with respect to the tax consequences of their investment in the Fund.

In January 2001 shareholders will receive Form 1099-DIV, or substitute 1099-DIV, which will reflect the amount of dividends and distributions and foreign taxes to be used by calendar year taxpayers on their 2000 federal income tax returns.

Dividend Reinvestment and Cash Purchase Plan. Shareholders may elect to have all distributions of dividends and capital gains automatically reinvested in Fund shares pursuant to the Fund's Dividend Reinvestment and Cash Purchase Plan (the Plan). Generally, shareholders who do not participate in the Plan will receive distributions in cash paid by check in United States dollars mailed directly to the shareholders of record (or if the shares are held in street or other nominee name, then to the nominee) by the custodian, as dividend disbursing agent. Shareholders who wish to participate in the Plan should contact the Fund at (800) 451-6788.

State Street Bank & Trust Co. (the Plan Agent) serves as agent for the shareholders in administering the Plan. If the Fund declares a dividend or capital gains distribution and the net asset value per share of the Fund's common stock exceeds the market price per share on the distribution payable date, Plan participants will receive shares purchased on the open market with the proceeds of the distribution. In all other cases, Plan participants will receive a number of newly-issued shares determined by dividing the dollar amount of the distributions by the net asset value per share of the Fund's common stock on the distribution payable date, provided that the discount from current market price will not exceed 5%.

There is no charge to participants for reinvesting dividends or capital gain distributions, except for certain brokerage commissions, as described below. The Plan Agent's fees for the handling of the reinvestment of dividends and distributions will be paid by the Fund. There will be no brokerage commissions charged with respect to shares issued directly by the Fund. However, each participant will pay a pro rata share of brokerage commissions incurred with respect to the Plan Agent's open market purchases in connection with the reinvestment of dividends and distributions. The automatic reinvestment of dividends and distributions will not relieve participants of any federal income tax that may be payable on such dividends and distributions.

The Plan also allows participants to make optional cash investments of at least $100 in Fund shares as frequently as monthly through the Plan Agent on the open market. Participants must pay a service fee of $0.75 for each investment and a pro rata share of the brokerage commissions.

The Fund reserves the right to amend or terminate the Plan either in full or partially upon 90 days' written or telephone notice to shareholders of the Fund.

Participants in the Plan may withdraw some or all of their shares from the Plan upon written notice to the Plan Agent and will receive certificates for whole shares and cash for fractional shares. In the alternative, by giving proper notice to the Plan Agent, participants may receive cash in lieu of shares in an amount which is reduced by brokerage commissions in connection with the sale of shares and a $2.50 service fee.

All correspondence concerning the Plan should be directed to the Plan Agent, State Street Bank & Trust Company, P.O. Box 8200, Boston, MA 02266-8200.
