Item 5. Other Events

On October 10, 2002, the registrant cancelled its $1.5 billion credit facility and its $500 million accounts receivable securitization vehicle in order to avoid an anticipated default on the financial covenants. The registrant had no outstanding balances on the credit facility, which was scheduled to expire in February 2003, and nothing drawn against the accounts receivable securitization vehicle.

The registrant has also notified lenders that it will exercise its right to re-purchase certain real estate, for approximately $100 million, under existing lease agreements it has in place that were designed to help fund certain real estate construction costs. The registrant is taking this action given the high probability of defaulting on the terms of the agreements.
