This is Amendment No. 6 to the Schedule 13D filed on September 14, 1998, by Michael L. Kovens (the "Reporting Person"). Amendments were filed for events on December 24, 2001, February 10, May 7 and October 11, 2002 and on September 3, 2003. The item numbers refer to items in the Schedule 13D. All information in this Amendment No. 6 with respect to the common stock of Universal Security Instruments, Inc. is correct to the best knowledge and belief of the Reporting Person. The Schedule 13D is hereby amended and supplemented by adding the following information:

Item 1. Security and Issuer

This Schedule 13D relates to the common stock, par value $.01 per share (the "Common Stock"), of Universal Security Instruments, Inc. (the "Company"). The principal executive offices of the Company are located at 7-A Gwynns Mill Court, Owings Mills, Maryland 21117.

Item 2. Identity and Background

- (a)-(c) This Schedule 13D is filed by Michael Kovens (the "Reporting Person"). The Reporting Person's residence address is 6 Regency Court, Baltimore, Maryland 21208. Mr. Kovens is the President of Omni Motor Sports, Inc. located at 10711 Gilroy Road, Hunt Valley, Maryland 21031.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

On September 3, 2003, the Reporting Person instituted litigation in the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, Maryland seeking injunctive relief to, among other things, delay the date of the Company's 2003 annual meeting of stockholders and to enjoin or declare invalid certain other corporate actions which the Reporting Person believes were adopted without a lawful corporate purpose and solely to entrench the Company's current Board of Directors. The Reporting Person, who had been a director of the Company since 1969, was not nominated for reelection at the Company's 2003 annual meeting of stockholders.

Among the matters challenged in the litigation was the Company's denial of the Reporting Person's nomination of himself as a director at the 2003 annual meeting of stockholders and the Company's denial of a request for stockholder and financial information to which the Reporting Person has a right under Maryland law. On September 8, 2003, the Circuit Court for Baltimore County denied the Reporting Person's request for a temporary restraining order. On October 1, 2003, the Reporting Person and the Company filed a Joint Motion to Stay Proceedings which was approved by the Circuit Court for Baltimore County to permit the parties to engage in settlement discussions.

The Reporting Person and the Company have been unable to resolve their differences. On May 27, 2004, the Reporting Person filed a motion to reopen the proceedings and an amended complaint with the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, Maryland. The amended complaint was filed by the Reporting Person on behalf of himself and the Company in a derivative action seeking injunctive relief to, among other things, enjoin the Company and defendants Stephen C. Knepper, Harvey B. Grossblatt, Cary Luskin, Howard Silverman and Ronald Seff (the "Defendants") from (i) denying the Reporting Person access to stockholder and financial information to which the Reporting Person has a right under Maryland law; (ii) voting any proxies held by any of the Defendants on any stock issued by the Company since October 1, 2001; (iii) voting any stock issued by the Company since October 1, 2001; (iv) enforcing the "Change of Control" provisions in the employment contract of Harvey B. Grossblatt; (v) taking any action that would further dilute the capital stock of the Company; (vi) taking any action that would further dilute the stock interests of the Reporting Person and the other stockholders; (vii) taking any action that would further interfere with the voting interest of the Reporting Person and the other stockholders; (viii) issuing any additional capital stock of the Company to themselves; and (ix) issuing any additional stock options to themselves.

The amended complaint also seeks a declaratory judgment declaring, among other things, that (i) all actions of the Company's board of directors and its stock option committee as to the granting of any options and restrictive shares of the Company's Common Stock pursuant to its non-qualified stock option plan from October 1, 2001 to the present are void and unenforceable and ordering rescission of all such grants or issuances of stock upon exercise of such grants; (ii) any employment agreements between the Company and Defendants Knepper, and/or Grossblatt are void and unenforceable and ordering rescission of all such employment agreements; (iii) any bylaw amendment adopted by the Board of the Company from October 1, 2001 to the present is void and unenforceable; (iv) the election of the Company's board of directors to be governed by Section 3-804 of the Corporations and Associations Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland ("Section 3-804") is void and unenforceable and directing the board of directors of the Company to file with the State of Maryland an instrument revoking the election previously filed by the Company; and (v) the election of the Board of Directors at the September 8, 2003 Annual Meeting of the Company is null and void. Section 3-804 requires, among other things, a two-thirds stockholder vote requirement to remove a director and that a vacancy in the board of directors may only be filled by remaining directors.

The amended complaint also alleges that corporate actions taken by the Defendants were for their own personal gain and in breach of their fiduciary duties to the Company. On behalf of the Company, the amended complaint seeks damages from the Defendants in the amount of $25.0 million. The amended complaint also contains private causes of action that the Reporting Person alleges against the Defendants.

A copy of the amended complaint as filed in Baltimore County Circuit Court (Case No. C-03-9639) is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.
