NATCO Acquisition Update

Timeline

The exact timing of the closing of the acquisition and the organizational transition is dependent on obtaining regulatory approval from government agencies, including the Department of Justice (DOJ) and the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), as well as an affirmative vote of NATCO shareholders. The regulatory review of the transaction is proceeding in a timely manner and will be followed by a meeting of NATCO shareholders to vote on the proposed transaction.

Subject to the above, the close of the acquisition is targeted for the 3rd or 4th quarter of this year.

Note: It is critical that Cameron and NATCO continue to function as independent companies until the transaction closes. For guidelines about what you can and cannot do, refer to Guidance Regarding Exchanges of Information and Strategic Planning Prior to Completion of the NATCO Acquisition into Cameron posted on the Welcome to Cameron site (www.welcometocameron.com).

Information Technology

NATCO employees in the US recently completed a successful Oracle system Go Live. This not only provides immediate operating efficiencies but will make the future transition to SAP once the acquisition closes much smoother. The transition from Oracle to SAP is still being scoped and planned, and rollout phases and schedules will be announced as further decisions are made.

Summary of Changes

The NATCO acquisition will result in the creation of a new Process Systems (PRS) division, formerly known as Petreco, within the Drilling and Production Systems (DPS) Group. Forward-Looking Statements Information set forth in this document may contain forward-looking statements, which involve a number of risks and uncertainties. Cameron cautions readers that any forward-looking information is not a guarantee of future performance and that actual results could differ materially from those contained in the forward-looking information. Such forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements about the benefits of the business combination transaction involving Cameron and NATCO, including future financial and operating results, the new company's plans, objectives, expectations and intentions and other statements that are not historical facts.

The following additional factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ from those set forth in the forward-looking statements: the ability to satisfy the closing conditions of the transaction, including obtaining regulatory approvals for the transaction and the approval of the merger agreement by the NATCO stockholders; the risk that the businesses will not be integrated successfully; the risk that the cost savings and any other synergies from the transaction may not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected; disruption from the transaction making it more difficult to maintain relationships with customers, employees or suppliers; the impact of other acquisitions that Cameron or NATCO have made or may make before the transaction; competition and its effect on pricing; and exploration and development spending by E&P operators. Additional factors that may affect future results are contained in Cameron's and NATCO's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), which are available at the SEC's web site <http://www.sec.gov>. Cameron and NATCO disclaim any obligation to update and revise statements contained in these materials based on new information or otherwise.

You can find information about NATCO's executive officers and directors in their definitive proxy statement filed with the SEC on March 23, 2009.
