The E.W. Scripps Company filed the attached press release relating to the appointment of Timothy E. Stautberg to senior vice president of the newspaper division on June 13, 2011. Mr. Stautberg will continue to perform the duties of the chief financial officer until a successor is named. Mr. Stautberg's annual base salary in his new role will be $440,000. Consistent with the Company's policy recognizing internal promotions, Mr. Stautberg has been granted time-based restricted share units ( RSUs ) with an award value of $200,000 effective July 1, 2011. The award value will be converted into a number of RSUs based on the average closing share price for the 30 trading days preceding and including the effective date of the grant.
