Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

On March 24, 2009, Energy Transfer Partners, L.P. (the Partnership) gave a presentation to analysts at a conference hosted by Barclays Capital. The presentation, which was temporarily posted to the Partnership's website, contained a statement on page 32 relating to the Partnership's liquidity position in relation to its approved growth plans that was based on an unstated assumption. A copy of the presentation that states this assumption related to our liquidity position has been posted to the Partnership's website at www.energytransfer.com.

In addition, a copy of a new presentation, which was given to investors at a conference hosted by Morgan Keegan on March 31 and April 1, 2009, has been posted to the Partnership's website at www.energytransfer.com.

Item 8.01 Other Events

On March 26, 2009, the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas issued an order dismissing a consolidated class action complaint that had been filed against us in November 2007 alleging that we had engaged in intentional and unlawful manipulation of the price of natural gas futures and options contracts on the New York Mercantile Exchange, or NYMEX, in violation of the Commodity Exchange Act. The court dismissed the complaint, with prejudice, for failure to state a claim. We are unable to predict whether the plaintiff will seek to appeal this order.

On March 26, 2009, the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas issued an order dismissing a separate class action complaint that had been filed against us in March 2008 alleging that we had engaged in unlawful restraint of trade and intentional monopolization and attempted monopolization of the market for fixed-price natural gas baseload transactions in the Houston Ship Channel from December 2003 through December 2005 in violation of federal antitrust law. The court found that the plaintiffs failed to state a claim on all causes of action and for anti-trust injury, but granted leave to amend. We are unable to predict whether the plaintiffs will seek to amend their complaint in accordance with the order or whether the plaintiffs will seek to appeal the order.
