The options will be granted within 30 days of the election of the director to the Board, and will be exercisable 12 months after the grant date.

Each non-employee director shall receive annually from the second year options to purchase 7,500 shares of the common stock of the Company at an exercise price equal to the NYE closing price at the date of the grant, unless the Company's results are released on that day and then the exercise price is the NYSE closing price on the following day.
