Stockholders who execute proxies may revoke them at any time before they are exercised by delivering a written notice to Rhonda J. Parish, the Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary of Denny's Corporation, either at the Annual Meeting or prior to the meeting date at the Company's principal executive offices at 203 East Main Street, Spartanburg, South Carolina 29319, by executing and delivering a later-dated proxy, or by attending the meeting and voting in person. Involvement in Certain Legal Proceedings

In early 1997, the Company determined, in light of operating trends and its liquidity and capital needs, to recapitalize the Company's enterprise over the long-term through a prepackaged plan pursuant to Chapter 11 of

Title 11 of the United States Code (the Bankruptcy Code). In that regard, Flagstar Companies, Inc. (FCI) and Flagstar Corporation (Flagstar), predecessor corporations of Denny s Corporation, commenced a voluntary Chapter 11 proceeding (the Chapter 11 Proceeding) on July 11, 1997 in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of South Carolina (the Bankruptcy Court). A joint plan of reorganization (the Plan of Reorganization) was confirmed by the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to an order entered as of November 12, 1997 and became effective on January 7, 1998 (the Effective Date). On the Effective Date, pursuant to the Plan of Reorganization, among other things, Flagstar merged with and into FCI, FCI changed its name to Advantica Restaurant Group, Inc. (Advantica), FCI s $.50 par value common stock (the Old Common Stock) was cancelled, extinguished and retired, and Advantica issued 40,000,000 shares of the Common Stock to certain classes of former debtholders of Flagstar.

Additionally, on the Effective Date, as part of the Plan of Reorganization, a new slate of directors was elected to the Board of Directors of Advantica. This new slate of directors included Messrs. Marks, Moran and Shepherd. Also elected as directors were Mss. Farris and Sanders who had served on the boards of FCI and Flagstar. Mr. Marchioli and Ms. Parish also served the Company as executive officers during the Chapter 11 Proceeding.

In 2000, two proceedings were filed in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Central District of California under Chapter 13 of the Bankruptcy Code naming Margaret L. Jenkins, Denny's Senior Vice President and Chief Marketing Officer, as debtor (case 00-35060, filed September 1, 2000, dismissed November 16, 2000; and case 00-43703 filed December 5, 2000, dismissed January 12, 2001). Both cases were dismissed shortly after they were filed, and no debts were discharged or otherwise affected by the proceedings.

On February 14, 2001, FRD Acquisition Co. (FRD), a former wholly-owned subsidiary of Advantica, filed a voluntary petition under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (the FRD Chapter 11 Proceeding) to facilitate the divestiture of its Coco's and Carrows brands and to preserve their going concern value. Mss. Farris and Sanders and Messrs. Jackson, Marchioli, Marks, Miller, Moran, Shepherd and Tapia were each directors of FRD and Ms. Parish and Mr. Green served as executive officers of FRD during the FRD Chapter 11 Proceeding which concluded with Advantica's divestiture of FRD and the Coco's and Carrows brands on July 10, 2002. Upon the completing of the divestiture of FRD, Advantica, on July 11, 2002, changed its name to Denny's Corporation.

Committees of the Board of Directors, Lead Director Designation, Meetings and Corporate Governance Policy

There are three standing committees of the Board of Directors of Denny's Corporation, the Audit and Finance Committee, the Compensation and Incentives Committee and the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee. The Audit and Finance Committee currently consists of Messrs. Marks, Miller, Moran and Tapia, with Mr. Marks serving as chairman. The Compensation and Incentives Committee is comprised of Mss. Farris and Sanders and Messrs. Jackson and Shepherd, with Mr. Shepherd serving as chairman. Mss. Farris and Sanders and Messrs. Marks, Moran and Shepherd currently make up the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee, with Mr. Moran serving as chairman.

Set forth below is a summary of the principal functions of each committee and certain required audit committee disclosures.

Audit and Finance Committee. The Audit and Finance Committee (the Audit Committee), which held seven (7) meetings in 2002, is responsible for the appointment of the Company's outside auditors and monitoring and evaluating such auditors' independence and performance; reviewing the planned scope of the annual audit; reviewing the conclusions of such auditors and reporting the findings and recommendations thereof to the Board; reviewing with the Company's auditors the adequacy of the Company's system of internal controls and procedures and the role of management in connection therewith; reviewing and discussing the Company's annual financial statements with management and the outside auditors and, based on these discussions, recommending that the Board approve the financial statements for publication and filing; reviewing with the outside auditors the Company's interim financial results to be included in the Company's quarterly reports to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC or Commission) and matters related thereto; reviewing the adequacy of the Audit Committee's Charter on an annual basis; understanding the Company's risk profile and overseeing the Company's risk assessment and management practices; reviewing and discussing with management and the outside auditors the Company's critical accounting policies and the quality of accounting judgments and estimates made by management; overseeing the Company's finance activities including monitoring the Company's financing needs; and performing such other functions and exercising such other powers as the Board from time to time may determine. For a complete description of the Audit Committee's powers, duties and responsibilities see the charter of the Audit Committee attached to Advantica's 2001 proxy statement.

Each member of the Audit Committee meets the definition of independence as set forth under Rule 4200(a)(14) of the National Association of Securities Dealers listing standards. Additionally, on May 24, 2000 the Board of Directors of Advantica adopted and approved a written charter for the Audit Committee, a copy of which is attached as an appendix to Advantica's 2001 proxy statement. Additionally, see page 11 of this proxy statement for the Audit Committee Report for the fiscal year ended December 25, 2002.

Compensation and Incentives Committee. The Compensation and Incentives Committee (the Compensation Committee), is responsible for overseeing and advising the Board regarding the compensation of Company officers; reviewing and making recommendations to the Board concerning compensation practices, policies, procedures and retirement benefit plans and programs for the employees of the Company; evaluating the performance of the Chief Executive Officer; and overseeing the activities of plan administrators and trustees and other fiduciaries under the Company's various employee benefit plans. It is also responsible for administering the Company's stock option plans and such other incentive compensation plans as may from time to time be adopted by the Company; monitoring and receiving periodic reports from the Company's human resources and diversity affairs departments regarding the Company's minority hiring and diversity promotional efforts; reviewing and making recommendations to the Board regarding compensation practices, policies and procedures for members of the Board; and performing such other functions and exercising such other powers as the Board from time to time may determine. In 2002, the Compensation Committee held eight (8) meetings.

Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee. The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee (the Corporate Governance Committee) is primarily responsible for developing and monitoring for compliance the Company's Corporate Governance Policy. In connection with this responsibility, this committee is responsible for monitoring and safeguarding the independence of the Board, overseeing and reviewing the Company's processes for providing information to the Board, overseeing the evaluation of the Board and management and monitoring and overseeing the planning for CEO and senior management succession. Additionally, the Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for recommending nominees to the Board as well as recommending directors for appointment to committees of the Board and to the chairs of such committees. These responsibilities include establishing criteria for Board and committee membership, considering rotation of committee members, reviewing candidates' qualifications and any potential conflicts with the Company's interest, assessing the contributions of current directors in connection with their re-nomination, and making recommendations to the full Board regarding the position of chairman and lead director, when appropriate. The Corporate Governance Committee was formed by the Board on November 20, 2002 and held two meetings in 2002. The Corporate Governance Committee will consider nominees recommended by stockholders. Such recommendations should be sent to the Secretary of Denny's Corporation at the Company's corporate office in Spartanburg, South Carolina. For further information and description of the Company's Corporate Governance Policy see Corporate Governance.

Lead Director, Board Meeting Attendance. In addition to the above-mentioned committee assignments, the Board in January 1999, elected to appoint from among its members, a Lead Director. The Lead Director role was designed to generally include regularly meeting by telephone with the Chief Executive Officer to discuss the financial and operational status of the Company and generally staying abreast of Company issues in a more in-depth manner than required of other Board members. Ms. Sanders served as Lead Director for years 1999 and 2000 and Mr. Marks served as Lead Director during 2001. As a consequence of Mr. Moran's appointment as Chairman of the Company's Board of Directors in January, 2002 and given the fact that he is an outside director, the Board has determined that there is no current need to designate a Lead Director.

During 2002, there were twelve (12) meetings of the Board of Directors of Denny's Corporation. Each director of Denny's Corporation attended at least 75% of the meetings of the Board (and, as applicable, committees thereof) during 2002.

Compensation of Directors

Each director of Denny's Corporation, other than Mr. Marchioli, receives the following compensation: (i) a $30,000 annual cash retainer (paid in $7,500 installments on a quarterly basis), (ii) an annual restricted stock retainer (the size of such award determined annually by the Compensation Committee) with a requirement that the restricted stock be held until the director resigns or retires from the Board (historically the size of award has been based upon a value of $10,000 as of the date of grant), and (iii) a stock option grant every three (3) years (6,000 shares were granted in 1998 and 15,000 shares were granted in 2001). Such options have a term of 10 years, become exercisable at a rate of 33 1/3% per annum for three consecutive years beginning on the first anniversary of the date of grant and have an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the Common Stock on the date of grant. For 2003, the Chairman of the Board will receive $100,000 for his service as Chairman of the Board and Chairman of the Corporate Governance Committee. Chairmen of the Audit Committee and the Compensation Committee each receive additional compensation annually for their service as the committee chair of $20,000 and $15,000, respectively. Also, each member of the Board is paid for attendance at or participation in any unscheduled, unplanned meeting (i.e., any meeting called in addition to the dates, typically five, set for the year for scheduled Board and committee meetings); $1,000 if in person and $500 if telephonic.

SELECTION OF INDEPENDENT PUBLIC AUDITORS

As a result of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and related regulations adopted and proposed by the SEC and by each national securities exchange and securities association, audit committees of public companies are now formally charged with the responsibility for the appointment, compensation, retention and oversight of the Company's independent auditors. The Audit Committee takes this responsibility very seriously and consequently recently undertook, with the assistance of senior management, the process of evaluating and interviewing a limited number of national accounting firms, including the independent auditors for the most recent year, Deloitte & Touche LLP (Deloitte & Touche). As a result of this process, the Audit Committee has selected the firm of KPMG LLP (KPMG) as the principal independent public auditors of the Company for the year 2003. This selection is submitted for the ratification of and approval by the stockholders at the Annual Meeting. Representatives of KPMG will attend the Annual Meeting. They will have an opportunity to make a statement, if they so desire, and to respond to appropriate questions. If the stockholders do not ratify this selection, other certified public accountants will be considered by the Audit Committee. Representatives of Deloitte & Touche, the Company's principal independent public auditors for the year 2002, are not expected to be in attendance at the Annual Meeting.

Changes in Certifying Accountant

On April 22, 2003, Denny's Corporation notified Deloitte & Touche that it would not be retained by the Company to perform the audit of the financial statements of the Company for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2003. Deloitte & Touche had served as the Company's principal independent accountants since 1986. The decision not to retain Deloitte & Touche was made by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company and, upon recommendation by that committee, was approved by the full Board of Directors.

In connection with the audits of the financial statements of the Company for the fiscal years ended December 25, 2002 and December 26, 2001, the Company had no disagreement with Deloitte & Touche on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreement, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Deloitte & Touche, would have caused them to make reference to such disagreement in their reports for such periods.

The audit reports of Deloitte & Touche on the financial statements of the Company for the fiscal years ended December 25, 2002 and December 26, 2001 contained no adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor were they qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles, except for an explanatory paragraph relating to the change in method of accounting for intangible assets in 2002 to conform to Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets, as described in Note 3 to the consolidated financial statements. Deloitte & Touche was provided a copy of the above disclosures and was requested to furnish us with a letter addressed to the Commission stating whether it agrees with the above statements and, if not, stating the respects in which it does not agree. A letter from Deloitte & Touche is attached as Exhibit 16 to the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Commission as of April 23, 2003.

On April 22, 2003, the Company engaged the accounting firm of KPMG as independent accountants to audit the Company's financial statements for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2003. The decision to engage KPMG was made by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of Denny's Corporation, and, upon recommendation by that committee, was approved by the full Board of Directors. As of April 22, 2003, the Company had not on any prior occasions consulted with KPMG regarding any of the matters set forth in Item 304(a)(2) of the Commission's Regulation S-K.

2002 Audit Information

Audit Fees. The aggregate fees billed by Deloitte & Touche for professional services rendered for the audit of the Company's annual consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 25, 2002 and for the reviews of the consolidated financial statements included in the Company's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q during that fiscal year were $481,500. Of this amount, $10,000 represent fees billed by Deloitte & Touche for professional services rendered in 2002 for the audit of the consolidated financial statements of FRD for the portion of the year prior to the divestiture of FRD on July 10, 2002.

Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees. There were no professional services rendered by Deloitte & Touche in the 2002 fiscal year relating to financial information systems design and implementation.

All Other Fees. The aggregate fees billed by Deloitte & Touche for services rendered to the Company, other than the services described above under Audit Fees, for the fiscal year ended December 25, 2002 were $272,351, including audit related services of approximately $133,022 and non-audit services of $139,329. Audit related services generally include fees for consents and comfort letters and for the audits of the Company's employee benefit plans.

The Audit Committee has considered whether the provision of non-audit services is compatible with maintaining the principal accountant's independence.

APPROVAL OF 2003 INCENTIVE COMPENSATION

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of Denny's Corporation has approved certain incentive compensation arrangements for 2003 for Denny's executive officers and certain other salaried employees pursuant to the 2003 Denny's Incentive Program (the "2003 Incentive Program"). Such arrangements are being presented to the stockholders for their approval at the Annual Meeting to the extent required under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), in order to maximize the tax deductibility to the Company of amounts that may ultimately be paid under such arrangements to the Company's Chief Executive Officer and the four highest compensated officers other than the Chief Executive Officer. No payments will be made under the 2003 Incentive Program if the stockholders do not approve this proposal.

Under the 2003 Incentive Program, plan participants will be eligible to receive target awards ("Target Awards") equal to a percentage of their base salary depending on the group classification assigned to such participant. A participant will receive (1) 40% of his/her Target Award if Denny's attains targeted EBITDA (i.e., earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization) performance levels for fiscal year 2003, (2) 10% of his/her Target Award if Denny's systemwide same store sales ("SSS") for fiscal year 2003 increase at a targeted rate over the previous year, (3) 20% of his/her Target Award if Denny's achieves targeted customer counts for fiscal year 2003 at a targeted rate over the previous year, (4) 20% of his/her Target Award if the target rate for a desired response for fiscal year 2003 is achieved through Direct Connect, the Interactive Voice Response system at Denny's which collects customer feedback on service in the restaurants, and (5) the remaining 10% of his/her Target Award if Denny's for fiscal year 2003 achieves a targeted cash flow (defined generally as the difference between cash generated and cash used by Denny's during the year).

If SSS and/or EBITDA target performance levels are exceeded, a participant's award will be increased by incremental amounts in direct relation to the excess performance amounts, but in no event may these incremental awards attributable to additional performance exceed 25% of the total actual incremental dollar increase in actual EBITDA over targeted EBITDA (the 25% Incremental EBITDA Cap). The maximum any participant may receive under the 2003 Incentive Program is $450,000 plus any incremental amount attributable to exceeding SSS or EBITDA performance targets, which will be paid on a pro rata basis among participants, subject to the 25% Incremental EBITDA cap.

Payments of awards under the 2003 Incentive Program will be made as soon as practicable after the end of the calendar year and the compilation of final financial results. Participants whose employment terminates before the end of the 2003 fiscal year are ineligible for awards under the program unless the Compensation Committee in its discretion determines otherwise. Employees hired during the 2003 fiscal year will generally be eligible to receive prorated awards based upon the time during the fiscal year that they were active participants. The Compensation Committee has reserved the right to cancel, modify or amend the 2003 Incentive Program at any time up through and including the day before the end of the performance period, and such cancellation, modification or amendment may be retroactive to the beginning of the year; provided, however, that no such modification or amendment shall increase the maximum amount that may be paid to any participant under the program. A total of approximately 426 employees are participants in the 2003 Incentive Program.

The benefits or amounts that will be received by or allocated to the Denny's Corporation officers named in the Summary Compensation Table and to other categories of individuals or employees under the 2003 incentive Program are set forth in the table below based upon the assumption that such individuals or categories of individuals receive 100% of their respective Target Awards under the terms of the 2003 Incentive Program.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Compensation and Incentives Committee Report

Compensation Philosophy and Practice

Under the oversight and direction of the Compensation and Incentives Committee, the Company has developed and implemented a compensation program for its executive officers designed to attract and retain top quality leadership talent while ensuring senior leaders' interests are sufficiently aligned with the interests of stockholders.

In September 2001, an outside, independent international human resources consulting firm, Hewitt Associates LLC (Hewitt), completed a study of the Company's compensation program for its top executive and management positions. To form a basis of comparison, Hewitt conducted a compensation measurement study against a custom group of 18 restaurant, food service, entertainment, retail and hospitality companies. The study concluded that while cash compensation (i.e., base salary and target bonus) for executives was generally in line with the market, long-term incentives and target benefits provided by the Company were below market resulting in the Company's total overall compensation package for its senior management being generally below the current market. Consequently, in 2002, the Company, consistent with the findings of the Hewitt study, initiated steps to move toward a greater emphasis on equity-based long-term incentive compensation, by (1) establishing the Denny's, Inc. Omnibus Incentive Compensation Plan for Executives (the Omnibus Plan) (approved by stockholders in May 2002), which is designed to add needed flexibility for compensating Company executives (and other employees) through stock ownership and other rights while promoting the financial success and growth of the Company and the interests of stockholders; and (2) implementing for 2002 and 2003, under the Omnibus Plan, Total Shareholder Return (TSR) Programs, which are incentive vehicles for selected executives that utilize total shareholder return versus peer comparisons as the performance measure (discussed further below). For fiscal year 2003 and beyond, the Company will continue to seek opportunities to utilize long-term equity based incentives under its Omnibus Plan.

2002 Executive Officer Compensation Program

The 2002 executive officer compensation program of the Company had three primary components: (1) Base Salary, (2) Short-term Incentives, and (3) Long-term Incentives. Base Salary is established on the basis of (i) annual quantitative market data in the form of salary comparisons to peer position groupings within the restaurant and food service industry and other industries for positions not unique to the food service sector, and (ii) Company specific factors such as positions of responsibility and authority, years of experience and performance. Short-term Incentives under the Company's 2002 Incentive Program (which is substantially similar to the 2003 Incentive Plan described elsewhere herein - see Approval of 2003 Incentive Compensation), were based primarily upon the achievement of certain Company quantitative performance goals such as targeted EBITDA, same store sales, customer counts, Direct Connect (i.e., the interactive voice response system at Denny's which collects customer feedback on service in the restaurants) and targeted cash flow performance levels. For 2002, with the exception of the cash flow target, the quantitative performance goals were not achieved. Consequently, the Compensation Committee approved only payments of awards to employees for achieving the cash flow target. Long-term Incentives in 2002 consisted of stock options and the 2002 TSR Program. During 2002, certain executive officers of the Company were granted options under the Advantica Stock Option Plan (the predecessor plan to the Omnibus Plan). Under the 2002 TSR Program (described above), certain executive officers (excluding the CEO) received in February 2003, partial payments of awards as a result of certain targeted TSR peer comparisons being achieved in 2002. The remainder of the awards achieved under the 2002 TSR Program vest (and consequently will be paid) at the end of the 2003 fiscal year, provided the participant is employed by the company at year-end. The Compensation Committee, in administering such programs and plans, allocated awards to the Company's executive officers and others based on an evaluation of their relative levels of responsibility for and their potential contribution to the Company's operating results in order to provide them significant long-term incentives to enhance stockholder value as well as taking into consideration the aforementioned compensation study and market analysis.

Additionally, Company executives are eligible to participate in certain Company retirement and savings plans, as well as various other benefit plans intended to provide a safety net of coverage against various events, such as death, disability and retirement.

Deductibility of Executive Compensation

With respect to Section 162(m) of the Code and underlying regulations pertaining to the deductibility of compensation to certain executive officers in excess of $1 million, the Compensation Committee has adopted a policy to comply with such limitations, to the extent practicable, including its presentation of the Company's annual incentive compensation plans to the stockholders for prior approval. However, the Compensation Committee has also determined that some flexibility is required, notwithstanding these statutory and regulatory provisions, in negotiating and implementing the Company's incentive compensation programs. It has, therefore, retained the discretion to award some bonus payments based on non-quantitative performance objectives and other criteria which it may determine, in its discretion, from time to time.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation

In the form of base salary, bonus payments and other payments, Mr. Marchioli received in 2002 the compensation reflected and described in the Summary Compensation Table set forth below. Such compensation to Mr. Marchioli was in accordance with the terms of his employment agreement, described elsewhere herein, and followed generally the philosophy and programs described above for the Company's executive officers.

The Pension Plan is noncontributory and covers a limited number of employees of Denny's, Inc. In 1999, the Pension Plan was amended to effect the following changes (1) no new participants will be allowed into the plan after December 31, 1999; (2) all future pension benefit accruals for highly compensated employees will be earned beginning January 1, 2000 under the ancillary plan described below; and (3) all benefit accruals earned under the plan and ancillary plan will be frozen as of December 31, 2004. Participants in the Pension Plan, therefore, are limited to those employees who, on or prior to December 31, 1999, had attained the age of 21 and had completed one thousand hours of service. A participant's annual retirement benefit under the Pension Plan at normal retirement age is calculated by multiplying the number of years of participation in the Pension Plan (not to exceed 35 years, and not including years after 1999 for highly compensated participants or years after 2004 for other participants) by the sum of one percent of the average Compensation (as defined below) paid during 60 consecutive calendar months chosen to produce the highest average through 1999 for highly compensated participants or through 2004 for other participants.

(Average Compensation for the purposes of this paragraph) plus an additional one-half of one percent of the Average Compensation in excess of the average Social Security wage base. Benefits payable cannot exceed 50% of the Average Compensation. Plan benefits are normally in the form of a life annuity or, if the retiree is married, a joint and survivor annuity. Compensation for the purpose of this paragraph generally consists of all remuneration paid by the employer to the employee for services rendered as reported or reportable on Form W-2 for federal income tax withholding purposes (including the amount of any year-end bonus paid), excluding reimbursements and other expense allowances, fringe benefits, moving expenses, deferred compensation and welfare benefits (such exclusions including, without limitation, severance pay, leadership retention payments, relocation allowance, gross-up pay to compensate for taxable reimbursements, hiring bonuses, cost of living differentials, special overseas premiums, compensation resulting from participation in, or cancellation of, stock option plans, contributions by the employer to the Pension Plan or any other benefits plan and imputed income resulting from the use of Company property or services). Compensation also includes employee elective contributions under a Section 401(k) plan maintained by the employer and salary reduction amounts under a Section 125 plan maintained by the employer. The funding of the Pension Plan is based on actuarial determinations. The Pension Plan was amended early in 2002 to change the name of the plan's sponsor (but not the name of the plan) and to make certain technical changes required by recent legislation. The changes do not affect the calculation of benefits.

Ancillary to the Pension Plan is a non-qualified plan for a select group of management and highly compensated employees that provides for benefits limited by the limits on benefits and compensation under the Code.

Compensation and Average Compensation are defined in this ancillary plan the same way they are defined in the Pension Plan. Consequently, the accrual of all further benefits under the ancillary plan shall cease on and after December 31, 2004. Benefits payable under the ancillary plan are included in the table above.

The maximum annual pension benefit payable under the Pension Plan for 2002 was $160,000 (or, if greater, the participant's 1982 accrued benefit).

Except for the accrual of certain non-qualified benefits as described herein, the Compensation included under the Pension Plan (including the ancillary non-qualified plan) generally corresponds with the annual compensation of the named executive officers in the Summary Compensation Table above. Includable Compensation for 2002 for Mss. Parish, Emplit and Traylor and Messrs. Marchioli and Green was $525,625, $412,072, $333,154, $1,053,945, and $418,562, respectively.

As of December 31, 2002, the estimated credited years of service under the Advantica Pension Plan for Mss. Parish, Emplit and Traylor and Messrs. Marchioli and Green, at normal retirement age was 6, 4, 5, 0, and 4, respectively.

Employees may retire as early as age 55 with five years of service. Employees with age and service equaling or exceeding 85 and who are within five years of the normal retirement age will receive no reduction of accrued benefits. Employees who are at least 55 years of age with 15 years of service will receive a reduction of three percent in accrued benefits for the first five years prior to normal retirement date and six percent for the next five years. Accrued benefits for employees retiring with less than 15 years of service will be actuarially reduced. Retirement benefits are fully vested after a participant completes five years of service.

Consequently, it is the goal of the Board and management to develop and adhere to a set of standards, that not only complies to the letter with all applicable regulatory guidance, but implements best practices of corporate governance.

In 2002, the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee of the Board was developed and charged with, among other things, the development of a set of corporate governance standards for the Company. In January 2003, the Board upon the recommendation of the Corporate Governance Committee, adopted the Denny's Corporate Governance Policy. This policy may be viewed in detail at the Company's website, www.dennys.com. Highlights of the Company's current corporate governance practices include:

Board committees consist of only independent board members.

Independent Directors have the opportunity to meet in executive session regularly (i.e., at each regularly scheduled Board/ Board committee meeting).

All Board committees may retain outside advisors, as they deem appropriate.

Board effectiveness and performance is reviewed annually by the Corporate Governance Committee.

A commitment to continue to adhere to the Nasdaq corporate governance listing standards, even though such standards do not currently apply to the Company.

Additionally, during 2002 the Company's goal of maintaining a board made up of a majority of independent directors was achieved with all members, with the exception of one, being independent of the Company.
