Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Manor Care, Inc. (the Company ), announced that it had entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of July 2, 2007 (the Merger Agreement ), with MCHCR-CP Merger Sub Inc. ( MergerCo ). MergerCo is indirectly owned and controlled by The Carlyle Group.

The Merger Agreement contemplates that MergerCo will be merged with and into the Company (the Merger ), with the Company continuing as the surviving corporation in the Merger and each outstanding share of common stock of the Company being converted in the Merger into the right to receive $67.00 per share in cash, without interest.

The Company has made customary representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement and agreed to certain customary covenants, including covenants regarding operation of the business of the Company and its subsidiaries prior to the closing and covenants prohibiting the Company from soliciting, or providing information or entering into discussions concerning, proposals relating to alternative business combination transactions, except in limited circumstances to permit the board of directors of the Company to comply with its fiduciary duties.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to customary conditions, including adoption of the Merger Agreement by the Company's stockholders, the absence of certain legal impediments to consummation of the Merger, receipt of certain regulatory consents and approvals and the expiration or termination of the required waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976.

MergerCo has obtained equity and debt financing commitments to finance the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the payment of the merger consideration, cashout of options and other equity awards, repayment of indebtedness and payment of all related fees and expenses. The obligations of MergerCo are not conditioned on the receipt of this financing. MergerCo, however, is not required to consummate the Merger until after the completion of a marketing period (the Marketing Period ). Subject to certain exceptions, the Marketing Period is the first period of 30 consecutive days (subject to tolling and extension under certain circumstances) following the date of the Merger Agreement throughout which MergerCo shall have certain financial information with respect to the Company required to consummate the debt financing, the Company's independent public accountants shall not have withdrawn any relevant audit opinion and the conditions to closing (other than conditions that by their nature may be satisfied only at closing and certain conditions relating to governmental approvals and financing-related restructuring) shall have been satisfied.

The Company and MergerCo may terminate the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances. The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, the Company may be required to pay MergerCo a termination fee equal to $175.0 million and, in some cases, expenses up to a cap of $15.0 million (which amounts reduce any applicable termination fee). The Merger Agreement further provides that, in the event that the Company terminates the Merger Agreement because MergerCo has not received the proceeds of debt financing necessary to consummate the Merger at the end of the Marketing Period, and the Company is not otherwise in breach of its obligations under the Merger Agreement, then MergerCo is required to pay a termination fee in an aggregate amount equal to $175.0 million and such fee represents the Company's sole and exclusive remedy. The Company, on the one hand, and MergerCo, on the other hand, are also subject to an overall cap on damages of $250.0 million for breaches of the Merger Agreement.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.

In connection with the Merger and the required stockholder approval, the Company will file a proxy statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Company's stockholders are urged to read the proxy statement and other relevant materials when they become available because they will contain important information about the Merger and the Company. Copies of these documents (when they become available) and other documents filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission may be obtained on the Commission's website at www.sec.gov. In addition, documents filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission may be obtained free of charge by contacting the Company's Corporate Communications Department as follows: Manor Care, Inc., Corporate Communications Department, P.O.
