First Union Corp. Terms Tax Allegations False and Irresponsible

CHARLOTTE, N.C. - First Union Corporation today issued a statement in response to the false and irresponsible allegations made by SunTrust Banks, Inc. last evening regarding widely-used tax transactions.

First Union stated that the tax position taken with respect to certain lease transactions was upon the advice of multiple outside counsel and has been reviewed by external auditors in the normal course of their annual audits. In fact, numerous other financial institutions use similar lease transactions and are supported by their independent advisors. Even if disallowed, any potential tax liability is fully reserved and would not impact First Union's capital position. First Union's financial statements are properly stated.

"We are disgusted to learn that SunTrust has stooped to such levels in its attempt to regain what the market has denied. The market has rejected SunTrust's claim that its hostile bid for Wachovia is superior to the negotiated merger between First Union and Wachovia. In its desperate effort to obscure the market's conclusion, SunTrust has been willing publicly to place in question the tax positions of a number of America's leading financial and non-financial companies."

First Union (NYSE:FTU), with $253 billion in assets and stockholders' equity of $16 billion at March 31, 2001, is a leading provider of financial services to 15 million retail and corporate customers throughout the East Coast and the nation. The company operates full-service banking offices in 11 East Coast states and Washington, D.C., and full-service brokerage offices in 47 states and internationally. Online banking products and services can be accessed through www.firstunion.com.

THE FOLLOWING WAS POSTED ON FIRST UNION'S INTERNAL WEBSITE
July 3, 2001

As you may be aware from news reports, SunTrust sent a letter regarding our merger application to the Federal Reserve yesterday. In the letter, SunTrust made false allegations about First Union's use of tax shelters. You may be reading additional stories in the media generated by this letter and our press release on this matter. Here is some additional information:

- SunTrust's allegations against First Union are completely false, misleading and irresponsible.
- First Union's tax position with respect to certain lease transactions was upon the advice of multiple outside counsel and has been reviewed by external auditors in the normal course of annual audits.
- Numerous other financial institutions use similar lease transactions and are supported by their independent auditors.
- SunTrust's claim that First Union's capital position could be materially reduced due to inappropriate use of these tax shelters is simply not true. First Union's tax practices are part of its normal tax planning activity. First Union continues to maintain a very strong capital position; We believe the First Union/Wachovia combination will generate more than $2 billion in excess capital annually.

- As evidenced by SunTrust's shrinking premium, we believe the market is rejecting SunTrust's claim that its hostile bid for Wachovia is superior to the negotiated merger between First Union and Wachovia. In an apparently desperate effort to obscure the market's conclusion, SunTrust is willing publicly to place in question the tax positions of a number of America's leading financial and non-financial companies.
