CHANGE IN CONTROL TRANSACTION

On November 6, 2006 (the "Closing Date"), Paperclip Software, Inc., a Delaware Corporation ("Paperclip", "PCLP", the "Company", "we", or "us"), American Sunrise International, Inc., a Delaware Corporation ("ASI"), all ASI

Edgar Filing: PAPERCLIP SOFTWARE INCE - Form SC 14F1

Shareholders, and Jilin Dongsheng Weiye Science and Technology Co., Ltd., a limited liability company of the People's Republic of China and wholly-owned subsidiary of ASI ("Dongsheng"), entered into a Stock Purchase and Share Exchange Agreement (the "Exchange Agreement") pursuant to which are to acquire all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of ASI in exchange for the issuance to the ASI Shareholders of (1) shares of Paperclip common stock and (2) shares of Series B Preferred Stock, of which each share converts into five hundred (500) shares, which will represent, and equate to, 98.7% of Paperclip's issued and outstanding common stock after the transaction is closed (the "Share Exchange"). Such shares will be restricted in accordance with Rule 144 of the 1933 Securities Act. As a result of the Share Exchange, ASI will become our wholly-owned subsidiary.

We intend to discontinue our business of software development. Instead, we will operate our business through ASI's wholly-owned subsidiary Dongsheng, which develops and manufactures nutritional supplements and personal care products.

Effective on the Closing Date, our Board of Directors and executive officers, William Weiss, Chief Executive Officer, Principal Financial Officer and Director, D. Michael Bridges, Vice President Engineering, Secretary and Director, and Michael Suleski, President, Director, shall simultaneously resign from the Board of Directors and as an executive officer and appoint the following officers and directors of PCLP:

(4) Represents 500,000 shares of Common Stock available for future issuance under the 2004 Stock Incentive Plan.

For the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, and the subsequent period up to the date of the filing of this Information Statement, the Company did not adopt any plans.

2004 Stock Option Plan

In February 2004, the Board of Directors of the Company adopted a stock incentive plan (the "2004 Stock Incentive Plan"). Only consultants and members of the Board of Advisors are eligible to participate in this plan. The 2004 Stock Incentive Plan provides that the aggregate number of shares of common stock for which options may be granted thereunder is 600,000 shares. The 2004 Stock Incentive Plan provides that it shall be administered by a committee (the "Committee") consisting of either the full Board of Directors or a committee consisting of at least two directors.

The Committee has the full power and authority, subject to the provisions of the 2004 Stock Incentive Plan, to designate participants, grant options and determine the terms of all options. The terms of specific options granted under the 2004 Stock Incentive Plan are determined by the Committee. The term of each option is also determined by the Committee, but no option may be exercisable after ten years have elapsed from the date upon which the option is granted. As of December 31, 2005, 100,000 options under the 2004 Stock Incentive Plan were outstanding.

1995 Stock Option Plan

In May 1995, the Company adopted a stock option plan (the "1995 Stock Plan"), pursuant to which officers, directors and employees of the Company and certain other persons conferring benefit upon the Company were eligible to receive stock options. The 1995 Stock Plan terminated on March 1, 2005. All options thereunder outstanding at the time of such termination shall continue in full force and effect according to the terms of the option agreements governing such options. As of December 31, 2005, options to acquire 3,969,222 shares of Common Stock had been granted under the 1995 Stock Plan. At such date, 892,872 options had expired, 95,508 options had been exercised and 2,980,842 options were outstanding.

1993 Stock Option Plan

In March 1993, the Company adopted its 1993 Stock Option Plan (the "1993 Stock Plan") covering 68,912 shares of Common Stock, pursuant to which employees (other than directors) of the Company were eligible to receive stock options. The 1993 Stock Plan expired on February 1, 2003, and all the outstanding options expired in 2005.

There is no other compensation to the Company's executives pursuant to a stock option plan or any other plans.

Employment Agreements

The Company does not have employment agreements with William Weiss or Michael Suleski. The Company does not have any pension, profit sharing, or bonus plan, other than the 2004 Stock Incentive Plan for consultants and members of the Board of Advisors, which is described above.

The Company entered into an Employment Agreement with David Michael Bridges effective as of January 1, 2000 (the "Employment Agreement"). The Employment Agreement provides that Mr. Bridges will serve as the Company's President and as a member of the Company's Board of Directors, subject to stockholder vote, for a term of three years, subject to automatic one year extensions and early termination, at an initial base salary of $107,800. The Employment Agreement provides that Mr. Bridges shall not compete with the Company in the product lines under development by the Company or use or disclose any trade secrets of the Company during the term of the Employment Agreement. In addition, the Employment Agreement provides that Mr. Bridges shall not solicit employees of the Company or induce any employee to terminate his or her relationship with the Company during the term and for a period of 24 months after termination of the Employment Agreement unless the Company terminates Mr. Bridges without cause (as defined in the Employment Agreement), the Company fails to satisfy certain conditions or if William Weiss or Michael Suleski shall leave the employment of the Company other than by reason of death or disability. Mr. Bridges may not be terminated prior to the end of the term except with cause (as defined in the Employment Agreement) and Mr. Bridges may terminate the Employment Agreement prior to the end of the term by giving the Company at least 90 days written notice. In the event that there is a transfer of control, defined as 50%, of the Company within 6 months of the termination of Mr. Bridges, Mr. Bridges shall be entitled to his base salary, vacation and other benefits for the remainder of the term of the Employment Agreement and any difference in value of the Company's capital stock owned by Mr. Bridges at the time of his termination and the value of such stock after transfer of control as valued in accordance with the terms of the Employment Agreement. The Employment Agreement also provided for the grant of options to purchase 400,000 shares of the Company's common stock. Mr. Bridges is also entitled to indemnification to the fullest extent permitted under New Jersey law. In the event that Mr. Bridges' employment is terminated without cause prior to the end of the term or any extension of the term or because of a disability (as defined in the Employment Agreement), he is entitled to receive his base salary for 6 months, at his then current annual rate paid in a lump sum within 10 days of termination, plus a payment for unused vacation. The Employment Agreement also provides that Mr. Bridges may independently develop intellectual property outside of his regular hours of employment with the Company and maintain full ownership of such intellectual property but provides for the Company's use of certain intellectual property owned by Mr. Bridges. The Employment Agreement restricts Mr. Bridges from using certain intellectual property owned by him to compete with the Company during the term of the Employment Agreement.
