The following table illustrates the effect on net income and earnings per share had the Company applied the fair value provisions of FASB Statement No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation, to stock-based employee compensation for the three months and six months ended July 9, 2005.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Forward-Looking Statements

This report contains forward-looking statements relating to present or future trends or factors that are subject to risks and uncertainties. These risks include, but are not limited to, the impact of competitive products and pricing, product demand and market acceptance, new product development, the continuation and development of key customer and supplier relationships, Escalade's ability to control costs, general economic conditions, fluctuation in operating results, changes in the securities market and other risks detailed from time to time in Escalade's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Escalade's future financial performance could differ materially from the expectations of management contained herein. Escalade undertakes no obligation to release revisions to these forward-looking statements after the date of this report.

Overview

Escalade, Incorporated ("Escalade" or "Company") manufactures and distributes products for two industries: Sporting Goods and Office Products. Within these industries the Company has successfully built a commanding market presence in niche markets. This strategy is heavily dependent on brand recognition and excellent customer service. Management believes the key indicators in measuring the success of this strategy are revenue and earnings growth. A key strategic advantage is the Company's established relationships with major customers that allow the Company to bring new products to the market in a very cost effective manner while maintaining a diversified product line and wide customer base. In addition to strategic customer relations, the Company has over 75 years of manufacturing experience that enable it to be a low cost supplier.

Results of Operations

Net revenues for the second quarter and first half of fiscal 2006 increased 2.9% and 5.7%, respectively, over the same periods last year. Revenue growth in the Sporting Goods business was partially offset by declining sales in the Office Products business. Operating profits in the second quarter and the first half of 2006 were lower than the same periods last year as a result of higher selling, administrative and general expenses.

11

The following schedule sets forth certain consolidated statement of income data as a percentage of net revenue for the periods indicated:

Consolidated Revenue and Gross Margin

Sales in the Sporting Goods business increased in fiscal 2006 over the same periods last year; up 16.1% in the second quarter and 24.6% for the first half. Acquisitions completed during the first half of fiscal 2006 accounted for a significant portion of the revenue increase while existing products experienced an overall growth rate of 7.2%. These acquisitions, one in the residential wooden playground market and the other in the archery accessories market, are part of the overall strategy to increase the Company's presence in the specialty market, which includes dealers and specialty sports retailers. This strategy is designed to broaden the customer base and lessen the impact of large mass market retailers. Increased product placement for the 2006 holiday season indicates the Company continues to enjoy strong relationships with mass market retailers and sporting goods chain stores. However, Management believes that sales to SEARS/K-Mart, the Company's largest single customer, will be down roughly $5.0 million in 2006 compared to 2005. Despite this, Management is cautiously optimistic that sales to the mass market channel will be roughly equal with that achieved in 2005.

Office Products sales, compared to the prior year, were down 16.9% in the second quarter and 17.4% in the first half of fiscal 2006. Slightly more than half of the sales shortfall is attributed to the planned elimination of non-core, low margin products and the elimination of unprofitable customers. The balance of the sales decline is related to lower shredder sales due to lower overall demand for high security shredders and stiff price competition. Management believes that a new line of security shredders introduced in the first quarter of 2006 will eventually stem the sales decline resulting from price competition. However, Management does not expect to reverse the decline in sales until fiscal 2007. The sales decline experienced in the first half of fiscal 2006 is expected to be indicative of the sales results for all of fiscal 2006.

The overall gross margin for the first six months of fiscal 2006 was relatively unchanged from the same period last year. However, the Company anticipates the overall gross margin to decline as the Office Products business, which has a higher gross margin than the Sporting Goods business, becomes a smaller part of total company sales. The slight decline in the overall gross margin for the second quarter compared to the same period last year is the result of this shift in the relative sizes of the two business segments. In addition, rising oil prices will have a direct impact on raw material prices for steel and resin which constitute a significant portion of product costs in both business segments. To the extent that these cost increases cannot be passed on to customers, the gross margins in both business segments will be negatively impacted. At present it is not possible to quantify the extent or impact on future gross margins.

Consolidated Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

Consolidated selling, general and administrative expenses increased 9.5% in the second quarter and 12.5% in the first half of fiscal 2006, compared to the same periods last year. The bulk of the increase, approximately $2.1 million for the first half of 2006, relates to the Sporting Goods business where additional selling and marketing expenses have been incurred to expand distribution into the specialty market. Cost reductions in the Office Products business, approximately $0.5 million for the first six months of fiscal 2006, were substantially offset by employee stock option expense of $0.4 million and roughly $0.3 million in non-recurring expenses associated with the retirement of Mr. Reed, former President and CEO of the Company.

Provision for Income Taxes

The effective tax rate for the second quarter (47.3%) is significantly higher than the rate achieved in the same quarter last year (36.8%) due to lower foreign earnings and a one time adjustment to foreign taxes. Management believes that the tax rate achieved for the first six months of 2006 is indicative of the overall rate that will be achieved in fiscal 2006.

Financial Condition and Liquidity

The following schedule summarizes the Company's total debt:

In thousands	July 15, 2006	July 9, 2005	December 31, 2005
Notes payable short-term	$ 19,033	$ 1,658	$ --
Current portion long-term debt	--	946	1,066
Long term debt	32,530	27,030	18,487
Total debt	$ 51,563 =====	$ 29,634 =====	$ 19,553 =====
Total debt as a percentage of stockholder's equity	68.0%	43.7%	26.2%

Total debt at July 15, 2006 increased $32.0 million from the balance at December 31, 2005 primarily the result of the three acquisitions completed during the first six months of fiscal 2006; the total cost of which was $28.7 million. In addition the Company paid an annual dividend in March 2006 that totaled $2.6 million.

During the first half of 2006, operations consumed $1.1 million in cash compared to generating $4.9 million for the same time period in 2005. The primary reason for the decline is increased inventories in the Sporting Goods business. Management believes the abnormally high inventory levels will be resolved by the end of fiscal 2006 and that no additional excess or obsolete reserves are necessary.

The acquisitions completed during the first half of 2006, were the primary reason why net cash used by investing activities increased substantially compared to the prior year. Spending for property plant and equipment for the first half of 2006 was higher than the same period in 2005 due to costs associated with completing the Reynosa, Mexico manufacturing plant.

The Company's working capital requirements are primarily funded from operating cash flows and revolving credit agreements with its banks. The Company's relationship with its primary lending bank remains strong and the Company expects to have access to the same level of revolving credit that was available in 2005. In addition, the Company believes it can quickly reach agreement to increase available credit should the need arise.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

Edgar Filing: ESCALADE INC - Form 10-Q

The Company is exposed to financial market risks, including changes in currency exchange rates, interest rates and marketable equity security prices. To mitigate these risks, the Company utilizes derivative financial instruments, among other strategies. At the present time, the only derivative financial instrument used by the company is an interest rate swap. The Company does not use derivative financial instruments for speculative purposes.

A substantial majority of revenue, expense and capital purchasing activities are transacted in U.S. dollars. However, the Company's foreign subsidiaries enter into transactions in other currencies, primarily the Euro. To protect against reductions in value and the volatility of future cash flows caused by changes in currency exchange rates, the Company carefully considers the use of transaction and balance sheet hedging programs. Such programs reduce, but do not entirely eliminate, the impact of currency exchange rate changes. Presently the Company does not employ currency exchange hedging financial instruments, but has adjusted transaction and cash flows to mitigate adverse currency fluctuations. Historical trends in currency exchanges indicate that it is reasonably possible that adverse changes in exchange rates of 20% for the Euro could be experienced in the near term. Such adverse changes would have resulted in a material impact on income before taxes for the six months ended July 15, 2006.

A substantial portion of the Company's debt is based on U.S. prime and LIBOR interest rates. In an effort to lock-in current low rates and mitigate the risk of unfavorable interest rate fluctuations the Company has entered an interest rate swap agreement. This agreement effectively converted a portion of its variable rate debt into fixed rate debt.

An adverse movement of equity market prices would have an impact on the Company's long-term marketable equity securities that are included in other assets on the consolidated balance sheet. At July 15, 2006 the aggregate fair value of long-term marketable equity securities was $2.4 million. Due to the unpredictable nature of the equity market the Company has not employed any hedge programs relative to these investments.

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

Escalade maintains disclosure controls and procedures that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed in the Company's Exchange Act reports is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms, and that such information is accumulated and communicated to the Company's management, including its Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure based closely on the definition of "disclosure controls and procedures" in Rule 13a-14(c). In designing and evaluating the disclosure controls and procedures, management recognized that any controls and procedures, no matter how well designed and operated, can provide only reasonable assurance of achieving the desired control objectives, and management necessarily was required to apply its judgment in evaluating the cost-benefit relationship of possible controls and procedures. Also, the Company has investments in certain unconsolidated entities. As the Company does not control or manage these entities, its disclosure controls and procedures with respect to such entities are necessarily substantially more limited than those it maintains with respect to its consolidated subsidiaries.

The Company carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of the Company's management, including the Company's Chief

Edgar Filing: ESCALADE INC - Form 10-Q

Executive Officer and the Company's Chief Financial Officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures as of the end of the period covered by this report. Based on the foregoing, the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures were effective.

Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting

Management of the Company has evaluated, with the participation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, changes in the Company's internal controls over financial reporting (as defined in Rule 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) of the Exchange Act) during the second quarter of 2006.

There have been no changes to the Company's internal control over financial reporting that occurred since the beginning of the Company's second quarter of 2006 that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.
