Item 8.01 Other Events.

On December 23, 2008, Lantronix, Inc. (the "Company") received written notification that the Nasdaq Stock Market ("NASDAQ") has extended for three months the suspension period related to the enforcement of the rules requiring a minimum $1 closing bid price or a minimum market value of publicly held shares. NASDAQ has said that it will not take any action to delist any security for these concerns during the suspension period. NASDAQ has stated that this suspension will remain in effect until Monday, April 20, 2009. As a result of this suspension, the Company now has until June 26, 2009 to regain compliance with the minimum bid price rule. The Company previously had until March 26, 2009 to regain compliance with the minimum bid price rule.

As a result of the suspension, if, at any time before June 26, 2009, the bid price of the Company's common stock closes at $1.00 per share or more for a minimum of 10 consecutive business days and otherwise continues to meet all other listing requirements, NASDAQ will provide written notification that the Company has achieved compliance with the minimum bid price rule.

If the Company does not regain compliance with the minimum bid price rule by June 26, 2009, NASDAQ will provide written notification that its securities will be delisted. At that time, the Company may appeal NASDAQ's determination to delist its securities to a Listing Qualifications Panel.
