PROXY STATEMENT

Solicitation of Proxies

This proxy statement is furnished by the Board of Directors (the "Board") of PRIMEDIA Inc. (the "Company" or "PRIMEDIA" and, where appropriate, together with its subsidiaries), in connection with its solicitation of proxies for use at the annual meeting of stockholders to be held on Wednesday, May 14, 2003, at 10:00 a.m., at the Four Seasons Hotel, 57 East 57th St., New York, NY 10022 and at any and all adjournments thereof. Mailing of the proxy statement will commence on or about April 29, 2003. Holders of record of common stock of the Company, $.01 par value (the "Common Stock"), at the close of business on April 3, 2003, will be entitled to one vote for each share held on all matters to come before the meeting. On April 3, 2003, there were outstanding 259,268,723 shares of Common Stock. Stockholders are requested to complete, date and sign the enclosed proxy card and promptly return it in the enclosed envelope. Alternatively, stockholders may vote via the Internet or by telephone as indicated on the enclosed materials.

The proxy on the enclosed form may be revoked at any time before it has been exercised. Unless the proxy is revoked or there is a direction to abstain on one or more proposals, it will be voted on each proposal and, if a choice is made with respect to any matter to be acted upon, in accordance with such choice. If no choice is specified, the proxy will be voted as recommended by the Board.

The cost of the preparation of proxy materials and the solicitation of proxies will be borne by the Company.

Voting at the Meeting

A majority of the votes entitled to vote on matters at the meeting constitutes a quorum. If a share is represented for any purpose at the meeting, it is present for all other matters. Abstentions and shares held of record by a broker or its nominee ("Broker Shares") that are voted on any matter are included in determining the number of votes present. Broker Shares that are not voted on any matter at the meeting will not be included in determining whether a quorum is present.

Each matter to be voted on requires a majority of the votes cast. Abstentions and Broker Shares that are not voted on the matter will not be included in determining the number of votes cast.

Stockholders' proxies are received by the Company's independent proxy processing agent, and the vote is certified by independent inspectors of election. Proxies will be kept confidential, except as necessary to meet legal requirements. During the proxy solicitation period, the Company will receive vote tallies from time to time from the inspectors, but such tallies will provide aggregate figures rather than names of stockholders. The independent inspectors will notify the Company if a stockholder has failed to vote so that he or she may be reminded and requested to do so.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Board of Directors

The Board has responsibility for establishing broad corporate policies and for the overall performance of the Company. Members of the Board are kept informed of the Company's businesses by various reports and documents sent to them each month as well as by operating and financial reports made at Board and committee meetings by the Chairman of the Board and other officers.

Regular meetings of the Board are held each calendar quarter. The organizational meeting will follow immediately after the annual meeting of stockholders. The Board held four meetings in 2002 and also acted by unanimous written consent.

Committees of the Board

Various committees of the Board have been established to assist it in the discharge of its responsibilities. Those committees are described below. The biographical information on the nominees for director set forth in this proxy statement includes regular committee memberships currently held by each nominee.

The Audit Committee in accordance with its duties and obligations set forth in the Audit Committee Charter attached to this proxy statement as Annex A, meets with management, the Company's independent auditors and its internal auditors to consider the adequacy of the Company's internal controls and other financial reporting matters. The Audit Committee engages the Company's independent auditors, discusses with the independent auditors their audit scope and, in connection with determining their independence, reviews the services performed by the independent auditors. The Committee met nine times in 2002. Professor Meyer Feldberg, David Bell and H. John Greeniaus presently serve as the members of the Audit Committee. All such members of the Audit Committee meet the applicable standards for independence including those set by the New York Stock Exchange. With respect to Mr. Bell and Professor Feldberg, the Board of Directors determined that Mr. Bell and Professor Feldberg each meet the requirements for independence after full disclosure, in the case of Mr. Bell, of the existence of certain business relationships between the Company and the Interpublic Group of Companies, of which Mr. Bell is Chairman and Chief Executive Officer (principally the purchase of advertising in the Company's media as an advertising agency on behalf of clients) and, in the case of Professor Feldberg, of annual contributions made by the Company and certain of its affiliates to the Columbia Graduate School of Business, of which Professor Feldberg is Dean.

The Compensation Committee is responsible for administering the Company's compensation programs and remuneration arrangements for its senior executives, including the chief executive officer. The Committee's Report on Executive Compensation appears elsewhere in this proxy statement. The Compensation Committee consists of Henry R. Kravis, Perry Golkin and Joseph Bae and met twice in 2002. To meet the requirements for deductability of certain executive compensation under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), the Company established in 1999 the Special Compensation Committee, consisting of Professor Feldberg and Mr. Greeniaus, which acted by unanimous written consent in 2002.

The Executive Committee, which consists of Messrs. Kravis, Golkin and Bae has authority to act for the Board on all matters during intervals between Board meetings. Prior to Mr. Rogers' resignation from the Company in April 2003, Mr. Rogers was a member of the Executive Committee. This committee acted by unanimous written consent during 2002.

The Nominees

It is proposed that ten directors be elected to hold office until the next annual meeting of stockholders and until their successors have been elected. Unless otherwise marked or indicated a proxy will be voted for such persons. Former Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer Thomas S. Rogers resigned from the Company in April 2003. This decision was made mutually by Mr. Rogers and the Board of Directors of the Company based on differences regarding the future direction of the Company. Dean Nelson was elected to fill the vacancy on the Board created by that resignation. Mr. Nelson was also elected Interim Chairman of the Board. Each of the other nominees was elected at the last Annual Meeting as a director.

The average attendance of the Board and all of its committees during 2002 was over 90%.

Although management does not anticipate that any of the persons named below will be unable or unwilling to stand for election, a proxy, in the event of such an occurrence, may be voted for a substitute designated by the Board. However, in lieu of designating a substitute, the Board may amend the By-Laws to reduce the number of directors.

The Board of Directors recommends that you vote FOR the nominees described below.

Messrs. Kravis and Roberts are first cousins.

Compensation of Directors

Directors who are full-time employees of the Company receive no additional compensation for services as a director. In 2002, non-employee directors received an annual all inclusive fee of $55,000 for all services on the Board and all committees, except that in connection with serving on the Audit Committee of the Board, and in recognition of the additional duties and time commitments required of Audit Committee members, each of Messrs. Bell, Feldberg and Greeniaus received an additional $25,000. Consistent with the past practices of the Company, as part of director's compensation for non-management, non-KKR directors, on May 24, 2002, the Company granted to each of Messrs. Bell, Feldberg and Greeniaus 50,000 options to purchase Common Stock of the Company at an exercise price of $2.02 per share under the PRIMEDIA Inc. 1992 Stock Purchase and Option Plan, as amended (the "Stock Option Plan").

Pursuant to the Directors' Deferred Compensation Plan, a non-employee director may elect to defer all or part of the fee. Deferred amounts are "credited" to an unfunded cash account or Common Stock equivalent account, as selected by the director. Interest, at PRIMEDIA's average borrowing rate, is credited quarterly for bookkeeping purposes to a director's cash account. Subject to certain restrictions, a director is permitted to take distributions in cash from a cash account or in shares of Common Stock or cash equivalent equal to the then value of credited shares, at the Company's option, in whole or in part, from his account following retirement or termination of service. Two of the non-employee directors have elected to defer their fees in Common Stock equivalents.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation To Our Stockholders:

The Compensation Committee is responsible for administering executive compensation programs that are designed to:

Edgar Filing: PRIMEDIA INC - Form DEF 14A

Match the Company's compensation plans to its business strategies as well as the external business environment;

Emphasize the relationship between pay and performance by placing a significant portion of compensation at risk and subject to the achievement of financial goals and objectives;

Maximize profitability through growth and cost efficiency, balancing appropriately the short-term and long-term goals of the Company;

Align the interests of executives with those of stockholders through the use of equity-based incentive awards to link a significant portion of compensation to stockholder value; and

Target executive compensation at a level sufficient to insure PRIMEDIA's ability to attract and retain superior executives.

The Committee believes that compensation for executive officers should be linked to performance. To achieve correlation between executive compensation and performance, the Company targets a significant portion of the compensation paid to an executive officer, assuming performance targets are met, to be at-risk incentive compensation directly related to the performance of the Company, its business units and its Common Stock. This includes annual and longer term cash bonuses, restricted stock awards, and stock option grants.

Base Salary. Base salary is based on a qualitative evaluation of a variety of factors, including level of responsibility and individual performance. It is the policy of the Committee to review the base salaries of its most senior executives no more frequently than every 14 to 20 months. With a salary freeze in effect for the Company from October 2001 through December 31, 2002, no salary increases were granted during that period.

Annual Incentives. Annual cash bonuses, principally contingent on meeting earnings and cash flow performance targets, are provided to senior executives and middle-managers. For 2002, over 1,000 senior executives and middle managers participated in the Company's various executive incentive plans. Each participant's incentive bonus opportunity is specially designed to reflect the participant's personal performance and performance of the entity of which the participant is part. Bonuses consider both financial performance of the participant's business and personal performance.

Long-Term Performance Awards. The Company's 1992 Stock Purchase and Option Plan, as amended (the "Stock Option Plan"), provides that stock options, restricted stock and performance awards may be granted to key executives who contribute to the growth and profitability of the Company. During 2002, stock options were granted under the Stock Option Plan and both restricted stock and options are outstanding under the Plan.

Compensation of the Interim Chief Executive Officer and President. Mr. McCurdy's salary in 2002 was $699,998. Mr. McCurdy was paid a bonus for 2002 of $320,000 the amount of which was determined based on the Company's achievement of certain financial targets and other performance measures. The terms of Mr. McCurdy's employment agreement are described under "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions" elsewhere in this proxy statement.

Compensation of the Interim Chairman of the Board. The compensation for Mr. Nelson's services as Interim Chairman of the Board has not been finalized. For a description of amounts paid to Capstone by the Company in 2002, see "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions" elsewhere in this proxy statement.

Compensation of the former Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Rogers' salary in 2002 was $1,290,000. Mr. Rogers was paid a bonus for 2002 of $660,000 the amount of which was determined based on the Company's achievement of certain financial targets and other performance measures. The terms of Mr. Rogers' employment agreement are described under "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions" elsewhere in this proxy statement.

Policy with Respect to Qualifying Compensation for Deductibility and Other Matters. Section 162(m) of the Code generally limits to $1,000,000 the annual tax deductible compensation paid to a covered officer. However, the limitation does not apply to performance-based compensation, provided certain conditions are satisfied.

Edgar Filing: PRIMEDIA INC - Form DEF 14A

The Company's policy is generally to preserve the federal income tax deductibility of compensation paid. Accordingly, the Company has taken, to the extent it believes feasible, appropriate actions to preserve the deductibility of annual incentive, long-term performance, restricted stock and stock option awards. However, notwithstanding the Company's general policy, the Committee retains the authority to authorize payments that may not be deductible if it believes that it is in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders. As the Company is not currently a taxpayer for federal income tax purposes, the loss of deductibility does not have a current effect on the Company.

Under these plans, cash awards are contingent and are based on various factors including earnings performance and cash flow of the Company (or in the case of Messrs. Metz and Ferm, earnings and cash flow of the operations they respectively manage) and the executive's individual performance during the calendar year in question as evaluated by the committee overseeing the Executive Incentive Plan.

Ms. Chell and Mr. McCurdy are the only current employees of the Company who were eligible to participate in the Long-Term Incentive Compensation Plan. The Long-Term Incentive Compensation Plan was cancelled effective May 2000.

Commencing January 1, 2001, the Company suspended contribution accruals to the Restoration Plan but continues to accrue interest on existing balances, which amounts are reflected under "All Other Compensation." In addition, the amounts set forth in the table for Mr. Rogers include payments made by the Company for additional Life Insurance and Long Term Disability Insurance.

The options have exercise prices of $4, $5 and $6. The $4 options vest in equal monthly installments over the first four years following the date of grant. Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The Compensation Committee consisted of Messrs. Kravis and Golkin and Michael Tokarz in 2002, and upon Mr. Tokarz's resignation from the Board in May 2002, Mr. Bae became a member of the Compensation Committee. None of Messrs. Kravis, Tokarz, Bae or Golkin have been an officer or employee of the Company. Mr. Tokarz was through his resignation from the Board and each of Messrs. Kravis and Golkin are general partners of KKR Associates and members of KKR 1996 GP LLC, the general partners of the partnerships, which own as of February 28, 2003, approximately 61.70% of the outstanding Common Stock. As general partners of KKR Associates and members of KKR 1996 GP LLC, Messrs. Kravis and Golkin may be deemed to share beneficial ownership of the Common Stock beneficially owned by KKR Associates; however, they disclaim such beneficial ownership. See "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions" and "Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management."

Employment Agreements

In April 2003, Mr. Rogers resigned as Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer. The decision was made mutually by Mr. Rogers and the Board of Directors of the Company based on differences regarding the future direction of the Company. In September 1999, Mr. Rogers and the Company entered into an employment agreement expiring in December 2003 providing for an annual salary of $1,200,000, an annual target performance bonus of $800,000 and a potential annual discretionary bonus of up to $1,000,000 based on extraordinary performance. In May 2001, Mr. Rogers was granted a 7% increase in base salary which took effect in July 2001. Under the agreement, Mr. Rogers was granted 1,300,000 shares of restricted stock and 5,000,000 stock options. If Mr. Rogers' employment is terminated by the Company without cause or by Mr. Rogers following a Constructive Termination without Cause (as defined in the agreement), he is entitled to receive (a) his base salary through the date of termination, (b) his base salary for a period of 24 months following such termination, (c) a prorated portion of his annual incentive bonus based on his annual target bonus for such year, (d) his annual incentive bonus for a period of 24 months following such termination based on his annual target bonus in the year the termination occurs, (e) vesting of certain outstanding unvested stock options and restricted stock, and (f) continued coverage in PRIMEDIA's health benefit plans for a period of time determined by the agreement.

In April 2001, Ms. Chell entered into an agreement with the Company providing for an annual salary of $700,000, an annual target performance bonus of $385,000, and an additional annual discretionary bonus of $700,000 based on performance of certain start-up business areas for the Company. In the event of a Change of Control (as defined in the agreement) or if Ms. Chell's employment is terminated by reason of retirement or any other termination at or after age 65, Ms. Chell shall be entitled to receive $200,000 annually for life. If Ms. Chell's retirement occurs between the age of 60 and 65, the $200,000 annual payment shall be reduced by 7% for each year that payments commence prior to age 65, subject to adjustment in certain limited circumstances.

In April 2002, Mr. McCurdy entered into a four-year employment agreement providing for an annual salary of $700,000, an annual target performance bonus of $385,000, and an additional discretionary bonus based on his performance in connection with the restructuring/reformation program. Under the terms of Mr. McCurdy's agreement, if his employment is terminated by reason of death or disability, he is entitled to receive (a) his base salary through the end of the month in which death occurs or in which disability benefits commence, as applicable, (b) his annual incentive bonus based on his annual target bonus for such year, and (c) vesting of outstanding unvested stock options granted prior to 2002. If Mr. McCurdy's employment is terminated by the Company without cause or by Mr. McCurdy following a Constructive Termination without Cause (as defined in the agreement), he is entitled to receive (a) his base salary through the date of termination, (b) his base salary for a period of 24 months following the date of termination, (c) a prorated portion of his annual incentive bonus based on his annual target bonus for such year, (d) his annual incentive bonus for a period of 24 months following such termination based on his annual target bonus in the year the termination occurs, (e) vesting of outstanding unvested stock options granted prior to 2002, and (f) continued coverage in PRIMEDIA's health benefit plans for a period of time determined by the agreement. Mr. McCurdy shall be entitled to (a) all of the entitlements set forth in the immediately preceding sentence except that any reference to 24 months shall be substituted with 12 months if Mr. McCurdy's agreement is not renewed by the Company and (b) all of the rights and benefits set forth in the immediately preceding sentence and all other rights or benefits granted by the Company to Mr. McCurdy, whether pursuant to the agreement or otherwise, shall become vested (excluding any stock options granted in 2002 or thereafter which shall be governed by the relevant stock option agreement), in the event of a Change of Control (as defined in the agreement) of the Company. If Mr. McCurdy's employment is terminated by the Company with cause or Mr. McCurdy voluntarily terminates this employment (excluding any termination following a Constructive Termination without Cause), Mr. McCurdy shall be entitled to (a) his base salary through the date of termination, and (b) exercise all vested options by the earlier of 45 days and the expiration date of such options and all unvested options shall be forfeited.

In March 2002, Mr. Ferm and the Company entered into an agreement extending his employment agreement through December 31, 2003. The agreement provides for a base salary of $750,000, an annual target performance bonus of $450,000 based on the performance of the PRIMEDIA Magazine and Media Group, of which Mr. Ferm is President and Chief Executive Officer. The agreement provides for the grant of stock options as described in the Executive Compensation Table. Under the terms of Mr. Ferm's agreement, if his employment is not renewed by the Company following its expiration or his employment is terminated by reason of death or disability or by Mr. Ferm voluntarily due to a material reduction of his duties, removal by the Company from his current position, relocation or a breach of the agreement by the Company, he is entitled to receive (a) his base salary through the date of termination, (b) his base salary for a period of 12 months from the date of termination, and (c) a prorated portion of his annual incentive bonus for the year in which such termination occurs. In the event of a Change of Control (as defined in the agreement), all unvested stock options granted pursuant to the agreement shall vest.

In February 2002, a three-year compensation plan was established for Mr. Metz and three other senior executives in the Consumer Guides Group. Under this plan, Mr. Metz has target payouts of $100,000, $150,000 and $450,000 for 2002, 2003 and 2004, respectively. This plan replaced a prior plan (payments to Mr. Metz in 2001 and 2000 under this prior plan are reflected on the Executive Compensation Table). Payment of any amount is contingent on the Consumer Guides Group achieving certain financial targets.

In 1999, Messrs. Rogers, McCurdy and Metz and Ms. Chell and in 2000, Mr. Ferm were granted stock options in some of the Company's subsidiaries generally known as the Internet entities. No information has been given about such options because such options have no value or liquidity. In March 2003, Messrs. Rogers, McCurdy and Ferm and Ms. Chell waived and released all of the stock options granted to each of them in those Internet entities.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

The Company financed its acquisition of EMAP in part by issuing 1,000,000 shares of Series J Convertible Preferred Stock to KKR 1996 Fund (a limited partnership associated with KKR) for $125 million. The Company was required to issue to KKR 1996 Fund additional warrants to purchase up to 4,000,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock at an exercise price of $7 per share, subject to adjustment contingent upon the length of time that the Series J Convertible Preferred Stock was outstanding. If the Series J Convertible Preferred Stock was outstanding for three, six, nine or twelve months from the date of issuance, KKR 1996 Fund was required to receive additional warrants to purchase 250,000, 1 million, 1.25 million and 1.5 million shares of the Company's Common Stock, respectively. Since the Series J Convertible Preferred Stock was outstanding for three, six, nine and twelve months from the date of issuance, in November 2001, February 2002, May 2002 and August 2002, the Company issued to KKR 1996 Fund warrants to purchase 250,000, 1 million, 1.25 million and 1.5 million shares of the Company's Common Stock, respectively. The Company ascribed a value of $498,000, $2,160,000, $1,988,000 and $1,743,000 to these warrants using the Black Scholes pricing model. These warrants expire on the earlier of ten years from the date of issuance or a change in control.

All of the above described financing transactions between the Company and KKR were reviewed by and recommended for approval by the Special Committee of the Board which retained its own counsel and investment banker to advise it as to the financing transactions.

Edgar Filing: PRIMEDIA INC - Form DEF 14A

From time to time, KKR, which is an affiliate of KKR Associates, may receive customary investment banking fees for services rendered to the Company in connection with divestitures, acquisitions and certain other transactions. In addition, KKR renders management, consulting, acquisition and financial services to the Company for an annual fee of $1 million payable quarterly in arrears. The Company believes that this fee is no less favorable than that which could be obtained for comparable services from unaffiliated third parties. Partners of KKR who also serve as directors of the Company do not receive additional compensation for service in such capacity, other than customary director's fees.

On April 5, 2001, the Company sold the capital stock of QWIZ, Inc. and QWIZ (UK) Limited to QWIZ Acquisition Corporation ("QWIZ Acquisition") in exchange for $7 million in cash plus preferred stock of QWIZ Acquisition having a liquidation value at such time of $3 million. On May 17, 2002, QWIZ Acquisition repurchased from the Company all of the preferred stock in QWIZ Acquisition held by the Company for a cash payment in the amount of $735,872. Mr. Tokarz, a former director of the Company, owns more than 10% of QWIZ Acquisition.

In 2001, the Company retained Capstone to provide consulting services to the Company primarily to identify and advise on potential opportunities to reduce costs at the Company. In 2002, the Company paid Capstone $800,000 in cash for consulting services received. In addition, on July 26, 2002, the Company granted 1,800,000 options to purchase the Company's Common Stock to Capstone for services received. These options are fully vested as of the grant date, have a ten year life and an exercise price of $1.80 per share. The exercise price equals 200% of the share price on the grant date. Capstone also provided consulting services to the Company in the first quarter of 2003. The amount payable to Capstone for such services has not yet been finally determined; however the Company believes that the fee for such services will not exceed $450,000. Mr. Nelson, a director of the Company, is the Chief Executive Officer of Capstone. Related non-cash compensation of $990,000 determined using the Black Scholes pricing model, was recorded for the year ended December 31, 2002.

See "Employment Agreements" elsewhere in this proxy statement for a description of the employment agreements between the Company and certain executive officers and a former executive officer.

Policy on Audit Committee Pre-Approval of Audit and Permissible Non-Audit Services of Independent Auditor

Consistent with SEC policies regarding auditor independence, the Audit Committee has responsibility for appointing, setting compensation and overseeing the work of the independent auditor. In recognition of this responsibility, the Audit Committee has established a policy to pre-approve all audit and permissible non-audit services provided by the independent auditor.

Prior to the engagement of the independent auditor for the next year's audit, management will submit an aggregate of services expected to be rendered during that year for each of the four categories of services to the Audit Committee for approval.

1. Audit services include audit work performed in the preparation of financial statements, as well as work that generally only the independent auditor can reasonably be expected to provide, including comfort letters, statutory audits, and attest services and consultation regarding financial accounting and/or reporting standards.
2. Audit-Related services are for assurance and related services that are typically performed by the independent auditor, including acquisition and divestiture related services and services related to SEC filings.

3. Tax services include all services performed by the independent auditor's tax personnel except those services specifically related to the audit of the financial statements, and includes fees in the areas of tax compliance, tax planning, and tax advice.

4. Other Fees are those associated with services not captured in the other categories.

Beginning in 2003, prior to engagement, the Audit Committee pre-approves these services by category of service. The fees are budgeted and the Audit Committee requires the independent auditor and management to report actual fees versus the budget periodically throughout the year by category of service. During the year, circumstances may arise when it may become necessary to engage the independent auditor for additional services not contemplated in the original pre-approval. In those instances, the Audit Committee requires specific pre-approval before engaging the independent auditor.

The Audit Committee may delegate pre-approval authority to one or more of its members. The member to whom such authority is delegated must report, for informational purposes only, any pre-approval decisions to the Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting.

Audit Committee Report

In accordance with the Audit Committee Charter, attached hereto as Annex A, the Audit Committee of the Board (the "Committee") assists the Board in fulfilling its responsibility for oversight of the quality and integrity of the accounting, auditing and financial reporting practices of PRIMEDIA Inc. During year 2002, the Committee met nine times, including meetings whereby the Committee discussed the interim financial information contained in each quarterly earnings announcement and in each quarterly Form 10-Q with senior management, including the Chief Financial Officer and Controller, as well as the independent auditors, Deloitte & Touche, prior to public release.

In discharging its oversight responsibility as to the audit process, the Committee obtained from the independent auditors a formal written statement describing all relationships between the auditors and the Company that might bear on the auditors' independence consistent with

Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, "Independence Discussions with Audit Committees" and discussed with the auditors any relationships that may impact their objectivity and independence. The Committee also considered whether the provision of non-audit related services is compatible with maintaining the auditors' independence. The Committee satisfied itself as to the auditors' independence. Nonetheless, the Audit Committee determined that the Company will not retain Deloitte Consulting in fiscal year 2003.

The Committee also discussed with management and the internal auditors the quality and adequacy of the Company's internal controls and the internal audit function's organization, responsibilities, budget and staffing. The Committee reviewed with both the independent and the internal auditors their audit plans, audit scope, and identification of audit risks.

The Committee discussed and reviewed with the independent auditors all communications required by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, as amended, "Communication with Audit Committees" and, with and without management present, discussed and reviewed the results of the independent auditors' audit of the financial statements. The Committee also discussed the results of the internal audit examinations.

The Committee reviewed the audited financial statements of the Company as of and for the year ended December 31, 2002, with management and the independent auditors. Management has the responsibility for the preparation of the Company's financial statements. The Company's independent auditors are responsible for auditing the financial statements. The Audit Committee responsibility is to monitor and review the financial processes and procedures designed to insure compliance with accounting standards and applicable laws and regulations.

Based on the above-mentioned review and discussions with management, the independent auditors and the internal auditors, the Committee recommended to the Board that the Company's audited financial statements be included in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Committee also recommended the

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, requires the Company's directors, executive officers, and persons who own more than 10% of a registered class of its equity securities to file reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership of such equity securities with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). Directors, executive officers and greater than 10% stockholders are required by SEC regulations to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

To the Company's knowledge, based solely on a review of the copies of such forms furnished to the Company and written representations that no other reports were required, the Company believes that all of its directors, executive officers and greater than 10% stockholders complied with all Section 16(a) filing requirements, except that due to the recent changes in the law requiring expedited filings of Form 4 statements, Form 4 statements were inadvertently filed late by Perry Golkin and George Roberts in connection with the "crediting" of the Company's Common Stock to their accounts in lieu of their director's fees on September 30, 2002 and December 31, 2002. In addition, Mr. Feldberg was late in filing a Form 4 Statement required to be filed in connection with the purchase by Mr. Feldberg of 50,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock on June 28, 2002.

OTHER MATTERS

Management knows of no other business that will be presented to the meeting for a vote, except that stockholder proposals not included in this proxy statement may be presented. If other matters properly come before the meeting, the persons named as proxies will vote on them in accordance with their best judgment.

The cost of this solicitation of proxies will be borne by the Company. In addition to the use of the mails, some of the officers and regular employees of the Company may solicit proxies by telephone and will request brokerage houses, banks and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to forward soliciting material to the beneficial owners of Common Stock held of record by such persons. The Company will reimburse such persons for expenses incurred in forwarding such soliciting material. It is contemplated that additional solicitation of proxies will be made in the same manner under the engagement and direction of Georgeson & Co., at an anticipated cost of less than $5,000, plus reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses.

The Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002, including certified financial statements and all other information required to be included in an annual report to shareholders, has been furnished to all persons who were shareholders of the Company on the record date for the Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

2004 ANNUAL MEETING

For a stockholder to bring matters before the 2004 Annual Meeting, notice must be received by the Company within the time limits described below. The notice must include a description of the proposed business, the reasons therefore and other specified matters. For a matter to be included in the Company's proxy statement and proxy for the 2004 Annual Meeting, notice must be received by the Company on or before December 30, 2003. In each case, the notice must be given to the Secretary of the Company, whose address is 745 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York, 10151. Any stockholder desiring a copy of the Company's By-Laws will be furnished one without charge upon written request to the Secretary.

The membership of the committee shall consist of at least three directors who are generally knowledgeable in financial and auditing matters, including at least one member with accounting or related financial management expertise. Each member shall be free of any relationship that, in the opinion of the board, would interfere with his or her individual exercise of independent judgement. The committee is expected to maintain free and open communication (including private executive sessions at least annually) with the independent auditors, the internal auditors and the management of the corporation. In discharging this oversight role, the committee is empowered to investigate any matter brought to its attention, with full power to retain outside counsel or other experts for this purpose. This charter shall be reviewed and updated annually.

Responsibilities

The audit committee's primary responsibilities include:

Provision of guidance and oversight to the internal audit function of the corporation, including review of the organization, plans and results of such activity.

Review of financial statements (including quarterly reports) with management and the independent auditor. It is anticipated that these discussions will include quality of earnings review of reserves and accruals, consideration of the suitability of accounting principles, review of highly judgmental areas, audit adjustments whether or not recorded and such other inquiries as may be appropriate.
