In connection with the previously announced retirement of James C. Grech, former Executive Vice President and Chief Commercial Officer of CONSOL Energy Inc. (the “Company”), on April 28, 2016, Mr. Grech entered into a letter agreement (the “Agreement”) with the Company, pursuant to which the Company agreed to provide him the following (in each cash subject to approval by the Company’s Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors): (i) a lump sum payment equal to $200,900, (ii) to vest, to the extent unvested, the restricted stock unit and performance share unit awards granted to Mr. Grech in 2014 under the Company’s Equity Incentive Plan (as amended and restated, the “Plan”); provided that, in the case of the performance share unit award, the pay-out of the award, if any, will be based on the attainment of the applicable performance goals after the end of the performance period, and (iii) to permit the option awards granted to Mr. Grech under the Plan, to the extent vested on the Departure Date, to remain exercisable until the expiration of the applicable option term as set forth in the related option award agreement. Mr. Grech has agreed to release claims against the Company and its affiliates, and the Agreement contains customary mutual non-disparagement provisions. In accordance with law, Mr. Grech is entitled to revoke his acceptance of the Agreement within seven days of its execution. If Mr. Grech revokes his acceptance, the Agreement will be of no further force or effect, and Mr. Grech will not be entitled to the benefits described above.

The foregoing description of the Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated by reference herein.
