PART I

ITEM 1. DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS

General

PIEDMONT, INC. (the Company) is a Utah corporation formed on June 29, 1983, under the name of Teal Eye, Inc. Its principal place of business is located at 3700 Susan Street, Ste. 200, Santa Ana, California 92704. The Company merged with Terzon Corporation and changed its name to Terzon Corporation in 1984.

It subsequently changed its name to Candy Stripers Candy Corporation. It was engaged in the business of manufacturing and selling candy and gift items to hospital gift shops across the country. The Company was traded over the counter (OTCBB) for several years. It ceased the candy manufacturing operations and filed for Chapter 11 Bankruptcy protection in 1986. After emerging from Bankruptcy in 1993, it was dormant until September, 1997 when the Company attempted an acquisition of Fort Stockton Oil & Gas Co., Texas. The acquisition agreement was canceled by mutual consent in April, 1998. The Company changed its name to Piedmont, Inc. in January, 1998.

The nature of the Company's business is the development of an on-line shopping mall ("cybermall") on the Internet which offers a range of goods and services for sale to consumers over the Internet. Our primary web site is www.PiedmontCyberMall.com. We have six different retail websites which sell toys, electronics, health and beauty, sporting goods, gifts, books, music and videos.

Our intent is to provide value to both the end-user and to our vendors by providing a range of goods and services in one location. We believe that our vendors may see increased traffic from customers arriving at our web site for the purpose of browsing for an unrelated product or service.

Item 2. Description of Property.

None.

Item 3. Legal Proceedings.

Edgar Filing: PIEDMONT INC - Form 10-K

The Company is not a party to any material pending legal proceedings and, to the best of its knowledge, no such action by or against the company has been threatened.

Item 4. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders.

No matters were submitted to a vote of the security holders of the Company during the fourth quarter of the fiscal year which ended November 30, 2000.

Part II

Item 5. Market Price for Common Equity and Related Stockholder Matters.

(a) Market Information.

The Shares have not previously been traded on any securities exchange. There is no common stock of the Company that is subject to outstanding options or warrants to purchase, or securities convertible into that stock. There are 10,093,195 common shares of the Company outstanding at November 30, 2000.

(b) Holders of Common Equity.

As of November 30, 2000, there was 637 shareholders of record of the Company's common stock.

(c) Dividends.

The Company has not declared or paid any dividends. The Board of Directors presently intends to retain any earnings to finance the Company's operations and does not expect to authorize cash dividends in the foreseeable future. Any payment of cash dividends in the future will depend upon the Company's earnings, capital requirements and other factors.

Item 6. Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operations.

The following discussion should be read in conjunction with the financial statements of the Company and notes thereto contained elsewhere in this report.

Plan of Operation

Piedmont develops Internet resources to provide internet users with a comprehensive web site where they can obtain goods and services. We are in the process of implementing our business model and entering into contracts with merchants who can provide the goods and services to be sold through our web site. We launched our website www.PiedmontCyberMall.com, in July, 2000. We currently intend to raise additional capital in the next six months, either in the form of equity, debt, or a combination thereof. Additional funding may be unavailable, or if it is available, the terms of such financing may be unacceptable to us.

We expect our future revenue to be derived from several sources including: (i) retail sales of goods to consumers; (ii) commissions or royalties paid by strategic partners for orders received through us; (iii) advertising on our web sites, and (iv) fees for electronic commerce services and fees paid by store vendors featured on our web site.

We expect to hire between three to four additional employees in the next six months, depending on demand for the products and services we offer and the growth of our operations generally, as may be necessary to sustain growth and to remain competitive. The nature of our business is the development of an on-line shopping mall ("cybermall") on the Internet which offers a range of goods and services for sale to consumers over the Internet. Our primary web site is www.PiedmontCyberMall.com.

We have six different retail websites ("storefronts") which sell toys, electronics, health and beauty, sporting goods, gifts, books, music and videos.

Employees

The Company's has two employees at the present time which are the Company's officers and directors, who will devote as much time as the Board of Directors determine is necessary to carry out the affairs of the Company. We expect to hire between three to four additional employees in the next six months, depending on demand for the products and services we offer and the growth of our operations generally, as may be necessary to sustain growth and to remain competitive.

Item 7. Financial Statements.

See the financial statements for the year ended November 30, 2000 attached hereto and incorporated herein by this reference.

Item 8. Changes in and Disagreements with Accountants on Accounting and Financial Disclosure.

None.

Part III.

Item 9. Directors, Executive Officers, Promoters and Control Persons; Compliance with Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act.

Identification of Directors and Executive Officers of the Company.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Board or Directors
Piedmont, Inc.
Santa Ana, California

We have audited the balance sheet of Piedmont, Inc., formerly Candy Stripers Candy Corporation, for the period from December 1, 2000 to December 31, 2000 and the years ended November 30, 2000 and November 30, 1999, and the related statements of operations, stockholders' equity and cash flows for the period from December 1, 2000 to December 31, 2000 and the years ended November 30, 2000 and November 30, 1999. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Piedmont, Inc. at November 30, 2000, and the results of its operations and cash flows for the period of December 1, 1999 to December 31, 2000, and the years ended November 30, 1999 and November 30, 1998, in conformity with generally accepted

PIEDMONT, INC.
(Formerly Candy Stripers Candy Corporation)
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
December 31, 2000, November 30, 2000 and November 30, 1999

NOTE 1 - HISTORY, ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

The Company was incorporated June 29, 1983 under the laws of the State of Utah as Teal Eye, Inc. On September 7, 1984, the Company merged with Terzon Corp. and amended its Articles of Incorporation changing the Company name to Terzon Corp. On September 7, 1984, the Company amended its Articles of Incorporation changing its name to Candy Stripers Candy Corporation. On January 6, 1998, the Company amended its Articles of Incorporation changing its name to Piedmont, Inc.

On November 24, 1997, Villa Nova Management Co., Inc., signed an acquisition agreement with Pilaras Oil and Gas, Inc., to acquire 100% of the stock of Fort Stockton Oil and Gas, a subsidiary of Pilaras Oil and Gas. This contract was assigned to the Company on November 28 for common stock in the Company. However, on April 21, 1998, the contract was cancelled by mutual consent. The stock issued to Villa Nova Management was retained as payment in preparing proxy statements, amending the Articles of Incorporation, and other legal services.

On December 22, 1997, the stockholders authorized 40,000,000 shares of preferred stock at $.001 par value, the terms and conditions of which are to be set by the Board of Directors. As of August 31, 2000, no shares of preferred stock had been issued.

On December 30, 1997, the Company authorized a 100-1 reverse stock split reducing the outstanding stock by 98,377,119 shares.

The Board of Directors reaffirmed the previous issuance of 9,737,229 shares of restricted common stock (76,000,000 shares split to 760,000 shares and 8,977,229 post split) to Villa Nova for $7,000 consisting of $2,000 for cancelation of a corporate promissory note and $5,000 for rent. During the year ended November 30, 1998, the Company issued 124,100 shares of common stock for services rendered. The stock was issued at par value because the stock has no market value and the value of the services rendered could not be determined.

During the year ended November 30, 1999, the Company issued 70,000 shares of common stock for services rendered. The stock was issued at par value because the stock has no market value and the value of the services rendered could not be determined.

The nature of the Company's business is the development of websites, including consultation and design, for the sale of retail products. The Company is presently contracting with various companies for the resale of home gift items. The company's website is operational.

The Company has adopted the following accounting policies and procedures:

1. The Company uses the accrual method of accounting.
2. Earnings (loss) per share is calculated using a weighted averaged number of shares of common stock outstanding.
3. The Company has elected a fiscal year ending November 30th.

NOTE 2 - EMPLOYEE STOCK OPTION PLAN

On December 27, 1997, the stockholders approved setting aside 500,000 shares of common stock for an employee stock bonus plan, the terms of which are to be determined by the Board of Directors.

NOTE 3 - WARRANTS AND OPTIONS

There are no warrants or stock options outstanding to acquire any additional shares of common stock of the Company,

NOTE 4 - GOING CONCERN

The Company's financial statements have been presented on a going concern basis, which contemplates the realization of assets and the satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business. As shown in the financial statements, the Company has incurred substantial operating losses for the past several years and has an excess of liabilities over assets at December 31, 2000. The Company's ability to continue as a going concern is contingent upon its ability to operate profitably, to obtain additional equity investment, or to merge with an operating company.
