If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate)

- (a) The reason described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense
- (b) The subject annual report, semi-annual report, transition report on Form 10-K, Form 20-F, Form 11-K, Form N-SAR or Form N-CSR, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date; or the subject quarterly report or transition report on Form 10-Q or subject distribution report on Form 10-D, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date; and

PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Registrant is unable to file its 10-KSB on the due date without unreasonable effort or expense. The Registrant completed a merger with StorCOMM, Inc. on November 22, 2005. As part of management's evaluation of the purchase accounting for the transaction, the Registrant obtained an independent asset valuation report which was received on March 14, 2006 and tax analysis which was received on March 22, 2006, in order to properly value the assets acquired and the related tax consequences. The Registrant is still in the process of reviewing the asset valuation report and tax analysis due to the delay in receiving such information. As a result, additional time is required for the Registrant to complete the purchase accounting and year-end financial statements. Management expects to complete the Form 10-KSB and the related financial statements within the 15-day extension provided by Rule 12b-25(b)(2)(ii). No material restatement of financial information from prior periods is anticipated.
