Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

The information in Item 2.03 is incorporated by reference into this Item 1.01.

Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant

On April 30, 2012, Tenet Healthcare Corporation (Tenet) sold $141,233,000 in aggregate principal amount of 6.250% Senior Secured Notes due 2018 (the 2018 Notes) in a private placement. The 2018 Notes have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), or any state securities laws. Tenet will pay interest on the 2018 Notes semi-annually, in arrears, on May 1 and November 1 of each year, commencing November 1, 2012, to holders of record on the immediately preceding April 15 and October 15. The 2018 Notes will rank pari passu with Tenet s previously issued 6.250% Senior Secured Notes due 2018, which were issued in November 2011, 9.000% Senior Secured Notes due 2015, which were issued in March 2009, 10% Senior Secured Notes due 2018, which were issued in March 2009, and 8.875% Senior Secured Notes due 2019, which were issued in June 2009, and similarly will be guaranteed by and secured by a pledge of the capital stock and other ownership interests of certain of Tenet s subsidiaries.

The 2018 Notes were issued as additional notes pursuant to an indenture dated November 6, 2001, as supplemented by a fourteenth supplemental indenture thereto (the Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture), dated November 21, 2011, among Tenet, certain of its subsidiaries and The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A., as trustee (the Trustee). Until the 2018 Notes become freely tradable pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act, the 2018 Notes will have different CUSIP and ISIN numbers than the 2018 Notes issued on November 21, 2011. The Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture contains covenants that, among other things, restrict Tenet s ability and the ability of its subsidiaries: (1) to incur liens; (2) consummate asset sales; (3) enter into sale and lease-back transactions; or (4) consolidate, merge or sell all or substantially all of their assets, other than in certain transactions between one or more of Tenet s wholly owned subsidiaries and Tenet. These restrictions, however, are subject to a number of important exceptions and qualifications. In particular, there are no restrictions on Tenet s ability or the ability of its subsidiaries to incur additional indebtedness, make restricted payments, pay dividends or make distributions in respect of capital stock, purchase or redeem capital stock, enter into transactions with affiliates or make advances to, or invest in, other entities (including unaffiliated entities).

The Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture also provides that the 2018 Notes may become subject to redemption under certain circumstances, including a change of control (as defined in the Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture) of Tenet. In addition, Tenet may, at its option, redeem the 2018 Notes in whole or in part at any time at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the 2018 Notes being redeemed plus the applicable make-whole premium set forth in the Fourteenth Supplemental Indenture, together with accrued and unpaid interest.

In connection with the issuance of the 2018 Notes, Tenet also entered into an Exchange and Registration Rights Agreement dated April 30, 2012 (the 2018 Notes Registration Rights Agreement), with Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated, which sets forth Tenet s obligations to register the 2018 Notes under the Securities Act if the 2018 Notes have not become freely tradable (as defined in the agreement) on or before May 15, 2013.

On April 30, 2012, Tenet sold $150,000,000 in aggregate principal amount of 8% Senior Notes due 2020 (the 2020 Notes) in a private placement. The 2020 Notes have not been registered under the Securities Act. Tenet will pay interest on the 2020 Notes semi-annually, in arrears, on February 1 and August 1 of each year, commencing August 1, 2012, to holders of record on the immediately preceding January 15 and July 15. The 2020 Notes are unsecured and will rank equally with all of Tenet s existing and future unsecured senior debt, will rank senior to all of Tenet s existing and future unsecured subordinated debt and will be effectively subordinated to all of Tenet's existing and future secured debt, to the extent of the value of the collateral securing such secured indebtedness.

The 2020 Notes were issued as additional notes pursuant to an indenture dated November 6, 2001, as supplemented by a twelfth supplemental indenture thereto (the Twelfth Supplemental Indenture), dated August 17, 2010, between Tenet and the Trustee. The Twelfth Supplemental Indenture contains covenants that, among other things, restrict Tenet's ability and the ability of its subsidiaries: (1) to incur liens on principal properties and (2) to enter into sale and lease-back transactions with respect to principal properties. A principal property is defined in the Twelfth Supplemental Indenture as a hospital that has an asset value on our books in excess of 5% of our consolidated net tangible assets, as defined. These limitations do not apply, however, to (1) debt that is not secured by principal properties or (2) debt that is secured by principal properties if the aggregate of such secured debt does not exceed 15% of our consolidated net tangible assets, as further described in the Twelfth Supplemental Indenture. The Twelfth Supplemental Indenture also prohibits the consolidation, merger or sale of all or substantially all assets unless no event of default would result after giving effect to such transaction.

The Twelfth Supplemental Indenture also provides that the 2020 Notes may become subject to redemption under certain circumstances, including a change of control (as defined in the Twelfth Supplemental Indenture) of Tenet. In addition, Tenet may, at its option, redeem the 2020 Notes in whole or in part at any time on or before August 1, 2015 at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the 2020 Notes being redeemed plus the applicable make-whole premium set forth in the Twelfth Supplemental Indenture, together with accrued and unpaid interest.

In connection with the issuance of the 2020 Notes, Tenet also entered into an Exchange and Registration Rights Agreement dated April 30, 2012 (the 2020 Notes Registration Rights Agreement), with Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated. Pursuant to the 2020 Notes Registration Rights Agreement, Tenet has agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts to register with the SEC notes having substantially identical terms as the 2020 Notes as part of an offer to exchange freely tradable exchange notes for these notes subject to the terms set forth in the 2020 Notes Registration Rights Agreement.

The proceeds from the sale of the 2018 Notes and the 2020 Notes were used, together with cash on hand, to acquire 298,700 shares of 7.000% Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.15, issued by Tenet on September 25, 2009.
