Item 2.01 Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets

On October 1, 2013, Tenet Healthcare Corporation (Tenet) completed its previously announced acquisition of Vanguard Health Systems, Inc. (Vanguard). Following the completion of the acquisition (Vanguard Acquisition), Vanguard became a wholly-owned subsidiary of Tenet.

Under the terms of the Agreement and Plan of Merger dated June 24, 2013, among Tenet, Vanguard and Orange Merger Sub, Inc. (Merger Sub) Tenet paid approximately $1.7 billion in cash for all of the outstanding stock and equity awards of Vanguard. Tenet funded the purchase price for the Vanguard Acquisition with existing cash and proceeds from the issuance of debt securities.

For additional information regarding the Vanguard Acquisition, see the Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) dated June 24, 2013, among Tenet, Vanguard and Merger Sub filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) as exhibit 2.1 to Tenet s Current Report on Form 8-K dated June 24, 2013.

A copy of the press release announcing the completion of the Vanguard Acquisition is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this report.

Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant

On October 1, 2013, Tenet assumed $1,800,000,000 in aggregate principal amount of 6.00% senior secured notes due 2020 (the Secured Notes) and $2,800,000,000 in principal amount of 8.125% senior notes due 2022 (the Unsecured Notes, and together with the Secured Notes, the Notes), issued by THC Escrow Corporation on September 27, 2013.

Secured Notes

The Secured Notes were issued pursuant to the secured notes indenture, dated September 27, 2013, among THC Escrow Corporation and The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A. (the Trustee), as supplemented by a supplemental indenture (collectively, the Secured Notes Indenture), among Tenet, the guarantors party thereto, and the Trustee, dated October 1, 2013. The Secured Notes Indenture contains covenants that are substantially identical to those in Tenet s existing secured notes supplemental indentures. Among other things, these covenants restrict Tenet s ability and the ability of its subsidiaries: to incur liens; provide subsidiary guarantees; consummate asset sales; enter into sale and lease-back transactions; or consolidate, merge or sell all or substantially all of their assets, other than in certain transactions between one or more of Tenet s wholly owned subsidiaries and Tenet. These restrictions, however, are subject to a number of important exceptions and qualifications. In particular, there are no restrictions on Tenet s ability or the ability of its subsidiaries to incur additional indebtedness, make restricted payments, pay dividends or make distributions in respect of capital stock, purchase or redeem capital stock, enter into transactions with affiliates or make advances to, or invest in, other entities (including unaffiliated entities).

The Secured Notes Indenture also provides that the Secured Notes may become subject to redemption under certain circumstances, including a change of control (as defined in the Secured Notes Indenture) of Tenet. In addition, Tenet may, at its option, redeem the Secured Notes in whole or in part at any time at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Secured Notes being redeemed plus the applicable make-whole premium set forth in the Secured Notes Indenture, together with accrued and unpaid interest.

In connection with the issuance of the Secured Notes, Tenet also entered into an Exchange and Registration Rights Agreement, dated as of October 1, 2013 (the Secured Notes Registration Rights Agreement), with Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated, Barclays Capital Inc., Citigroup Global Markets Inc. and Wells Fargo Securities, LLC. Pursuant to the Secured Notes Registration Rights Agreement, Tenet has agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts to register the Secured Notes with the SEC if the Secured Notes have not become freely tradable (as defined in the agreement) on or before the 380th day following the date hereof.

The foregoing is a summary and is qualified by reference to the Secured Notes Indenture and the Secured Notes Registration Rights Agreement, which are filed herewith as Exhibits 4.1, 4.2 and 10.1, respectively, and are incorporated herein by reference.

Unsecured Notes

The Unsecured Notes were issued pursuant to the unsecured notes indenture, dated September 27, 2013, among THC Escrow Corporation and the Trustee, as supplemented by a supplemental indenture (collectively, the Unsecured Notes Indenture) among Tenet and the Trustee, dated October 1, 2013. The Unsecured Notes Indenture contains covenants that are substantially identical to those in Tenet's existing unsecured notes supplemental indentures. Among other things, these covenants restrict Tenet's ability and the ability of its subsidiaries: to incur liens; enter into sale and lease-back transactions; or consolidate, merge or sell all or substantially all of their assets, other than in certain transactions between one or more of Tenet's wholly owned subsidiaries and Tenet. These restrictions, however, are subject to a number of important exceptions and qualifications. In particular, there are no restrictions on Tenet's ability or the ability of its subsidiaries to incur additional indebtedness, make restricted payments, pay dividends or make distributions in respect of capital stock, purchase or redeem capital stock, enter into transactions with affiliates or make advances to, or invest in, other entities (including unaffiliated entities).

The Unsecured Notes Indenture also provides that the Unsecured Notes may become subject to redemption under certain circumstances, including a change of control (as defined in the Unsecured Notes Indenture) of Tenet. In addition, Tenet may, at its option, redeem the Unsecured Notes in whole or in part at any time at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Unsecured Notes being redeemed plus the applicable make-whole premium set forth in the Unsecured Notes Indenture, together with accrued and unpaid interest.

In connection with the issuance of the Unsecured Notes, Tenet also entered into an Exchange and Registration Rights Agreement, dated as of October 1, 2013 (the Unsecured Notes Registration Rights Agreement), with Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith
