On August 4, I filed with the SEC a preliminary proxy, nominating a slate of candidates for the board of directors to be elected on September 7, 2004. Thomas B. Winmill, Esq.
President, CEO and General Counsel
Foxby Corp.

Dear Mr. Winmill:

My clients and I are beneficial stockholders of Foxby Corp. (the "Fund"). I am concerned about the Fund's poor long and short term performance (NAV per share down from $2.82 on February 9, 2004 to 2.55 recently), its persistent discount to net asset value, its extraordinarily high 4.4% expense ratio and the poor liquidity of its shares.

In addition, I am concerned that the board has unilaterally adopted numerous bylaws whose primary purpose appears to be to interfere with the shareholders' franchise rights. These measures include preclusive and inequitable "qualifications" for nominees by shareholders, a preclusive and inequitable standard for electing directors (80% of the Fund's outstanding shares is required for a challenger's election but just a plurality for an incumbent) and a provision that purports to bar a shareholder from bringing a lawsuit to challenge the results of an election without approval by the board.

On July 23, 2004, the Fund filed a definitive proxy statement for the annual meeting indicating that the board recently adopted yet another powerful entrenchment measure – a staggered board of directors consisting of five classes.

In light of these concerns and the Fund's very small size (NAV of less than $7 million), I have concluded that the shareholders would be best served if the Fund liquidated or merged with an open-end fund. Therefore, I intend to (1) submit a proposal at the upcoming annual meeting recommending that the board pursue liquidation or a merger into an open-end fund and (2) nominate candidates for election as director who will abide by the shareholders' wishes. In this connection, I filed preliminary proxy materials today with the SEC, a copy of which is enclosed.

I believe each bylaw adopted by the board whose primary purpose is to interfere with the shareholders' voting rights is a breach of fiduciary duty and therefore invalid. If the board attempts to enforce any such bylaw, I may file a lawsuit. I realize that in 2002, the board of directors also adopted a bylaw that requires advance notice of any proposal intended to be submitted for a vote at the annual meeting. However, courts have ordered that an advance notice bylaw must be waived when a material event occurs after the deadline specified in the bylaw. See Hubbard v. Hollywood Park Realty Enterprises, 1991 WL 3151, (Del. Ch. 1991). I believe the board's unilateral decision to increase the number of classes of directors from four to five is such a material event that requires the board to waive the Fund's advance notice requirement.

Please contact me if you need any additional information or wish to discuss this matter.

Very truly yours,

Richard J, Shaker
