Oliver Burckhardt to Cease Serving as President of Spine Division

On August 28, 2008, Orthofix International N.V. (the "Company") announced that it reached agreement with Mr. Oliver Burckhardt on August 28, 2008 for him to cease serving as President of the Company's Spine Division and President of Blackstone Medical, Inc., a subsidiary of the Company, effective as of September 27, 2008. As of such date Mr. Burckhardt's employment will cease and his employment agreement will terminate, other than with respect to certain post-termination covenants set forth in the agreement. Bradley R. Mason, recently appointed as the Company's Group President of North America, will assume the roles of President of the Company's Spine Division and President of Blackstone Medical, Inc. at that time in addition to his role as Group President of North America.

As agreed with Mr. Burckhardt, his departure will be treated as a termination without Cause under the terms of his employment agreement, entitling him to a severance payment totaling approximately $472,500 and other benefits, all as determined in accordance with his employment agreement. Mr. Burckhardt will be required to sign a release in order to receive payment of such amount and the other benefits.

In addition, on August 28, 2008, Mr. Burckhardt and Orthofix Inc., a subsidiary of the Company, entered into a letter agreement pursuant to which, following Mr. Burckhardt's departure from the Company, he would (a) assist as a consultant to Orthofix Inc. with respect to certain transition matters for a consultancy fee of $25,000, payable no sooner than January 31, 2009, and (b) sell to the Company 72,300 of his stock options in exchange for payments totaling $125,000, which amount would be paid in two installments on or about October 1, 2008 and January 31, 2009.
