ITEMS OF BUSINESS . To elect five members to the Board of Directors, for a term of one year.
. To transact such other business as may properly become before the adjourned 2008 Special Meeting.

RECORD DATE You can vote if you were a stockholder of record on September 16, 2008.

PROXY VOTING It is important that your shares be represented and voted at the 2008 Special Meeting. You can vote your shares by completing and returning your proxy card or by attending the 2008 Special Meeting. See details under the heading "How do I vote?" in the "Questions and Answers about the 2008 Special Meeting and Voting" section of this Proxy Statement.

WHO IS REQUESTING YOUR PROXY? Reliability Incorporated (the "Company") has not had a Shareholders Meeting since 2005. While a Special Meeting was called by the Company for October 23, 2008, its existing management did not seek proxies from its shareholders. When such Meeting lacked a quorum, the Special Meeting was adjourned until the new November 14, 2008 Special Meeting date. Jay Gottlieb (the "Solicitor"), the undersigned, the largest shareholder in the Company, has filed this Proxy Statement with the SEC so that he could seek election of a new Board of Directors and now solicits your vote in favor of a new management slate described herein. The Board of Directors of the Company makes no recommendation as to the slate of directors the Solicitor is proposing.

Based on a prior solicitation of proxies to no more than 10 Company shareholders, the undersigned Solicitor giving notice that the holders of more than 37% of the issued and outstanding shares of common are expected to vote in favor of the slate of candidates set out in Proposal 1 below. Pursuant to the provisions of Section 228 of the Texas Annotated Laws and the Company's certificate of incorporation, such election of a new Board requires a quorum (1/2 of the outstanding common shares) to appear in person or vote by proxy at the shareholder meeting. Approval requires the affirmative vote of a majority of such quorum. Since, for purposes of achieving a quorum, current directors and officers of the Company holding approximately 3.9% of the outstanding shares have agreed to appear, a quorum will likely be present to vote on a new Board. Given the foregoing, as described in more detail below, Proposal 1, will be adopted so long as at least 50% + 1 share of the needed majority quorum of voting shares vote in favor of Proposal 1.

NOVEMBER __, 2008
PROXY STATEMENT

Introduction

This Proxy Statement, dated November __, 2008, is furnished in connection with the 2008 Special Meeting of Shareholders of Reliability Incorporated (the "Company"), to be held November 14, 2008, (the "Special Meeting"), for the purposes set forth in the original meeting notice, at 10:00 A.M. at the Holiday Crown Plaza, 14702 Park Row, Houston, TX 77079.

This Proxy Statement is being mailed to shareholders on or about November ____, 2008 by Jay Gottlieb (the "Solicitor"). Mr. Gottlieb's phone number is (914) 275-6290.

The complete mailing address of the Company's principal executive office is P.O. Box 218690. Houston, Texas 77218-8690 and its phone number is (281) 492-0550.

Only shareholders of record at the close of business on September 16, 2008 are entitled to participate in the Special Meeting and any adjournments thereof. At that record date, the following voting shares of the Company were outstanding:

CLASS	SHARES OUTSTANDING
Voting Common Shares	6,335,965
Preferred Shares	-0-

Holders of all common shares will vote together as a single class on all matters expected to be acted on at the Special Meeting. Since the Solicitor and certain like-minded shareholders, holding an aggregate 37% of the common shares of the Company, are expected to vote in favor of Proposal 1 here being considered at the Special Meeting, the Solicitor believes that (more likely than not) such Proposal will be approved.

At the date hereof, Solicitor has no knowledge of any business other than that described in the notice for the Special Meeting which will be presented for consideration at such Special Meeting. In fact, the only matter that can be voted upon (since a Special Meeting) is the election of directors.

Very specifically, this Proxy Statement is being furnished to the holders of record on September 16, 2008 of the outstanding shares of common stock, no par value, of the Company.

The Company's stock symbol [otcbb] is REAL.

Questions and Answers About the 2008 Special Meeting and Voting

Why did I receive these proxy materials?

The Solicitor is providing these proxy materials in connection with the solicitation of proxies to be voted at the Company's 2008 Special Meeting of Stockholders.

You are invited to attend the Company's 2008 Special Meeting on November 14, 2008, (the "Special Meeting"), for the specific election of directors purpose set forth in this notice, beginning at 10:00 A.M., Central Time, to be held at the Holiday Crown Plaza, 14702 Park Row, Houston, TX 77079.

Stockholders will be admitted to the Special Meeting beginning at 9:30 a.m., Central Time. Seating will be limited.

These proxy materials are being mailed on or about November __, 2008.

Table of Contents

What do I need to attend the 2008 Special Meeting?

You will need a form of personal photo identification to enter the 2008 Special Meeting if you hold shares directly in your name as a stockholder of record.

If your shares are held beneficially in the name of a bank, broker or other holder of record and you plan to attend the 2008 Special Meeting, you must present proof of your ownership of the Company's common stock, such as a bank or brokerage account statement and a form of personal photo identification to be admitted to the 2008 Special Meeting.

No cameras, recording equipment, electronic devices, large bags, briefcases or packages will be permitted in the 2008 Special Meeting.

Who is entitled to vote at the 2008 Special Meeting?

Holders of the Company's common stock at the close of business on September 16, 2008 are entitled to receive this Notice of 2008 Special Meeting and to vote their shares at the 2008 Special Meeting. As of that date, there were 6,335,965 shares of our common stock outstanding and entitled to vote. Each share of the Company's common stock is entitled to one vote on each matter properly brought before the 2008 Special Meeting, in this case, the election of directors.

What is the difference between holding shares as a stockholder of record and as a beneficial owner?

If your shares are registered directly in your name with the Company's transfer agent, Computershare Inc., you are considered the "stockholder of record" for those shares. In that case, these proxy materials have been sent directly to you by the Transfer Agent.

If your shares are held in a stock brokerage account or by a bank or other holder of record, you are considered the "beneficial owner" of shares held in street name. In that case, these proxy materials have been forwarded to you by your broker, bank or other holder of record who is considered the stockholder of record for those shares. As the beneficial owner, you have the right to direct your broker, bank or other holder of record on how to vote your shares by using the voting instruction card included in the mailing or by following their instructions for voting by mail, or in person.

How do I vote?

You may vote using either of the following methods:

By mail. Be sure to complete, sign and date the proxy card and return it in the self-addressed, prepaid envelope. If you are a stockholder of record and you return your signed proxy card but do not indicate your voting preferences, the persons named in the proxy card will vote the shares represented by that proxy as recommended by the Solicitor.

In Person at the Special Meeting. All stockholders may vote in person at the 2008 Special Meeting. You may also be represented by another person at the 2008 Special Meeting by executing a proper proxy designating that person. If you are a beneficial owner of shares, you must obtain a legal proxy from your broker, bank or other holder of record and present it to the inspectors of election with your ballot to be able to vote at the 2008 Special Meeting.

However, even if you plan to attend the 2008 Special Meeting, we encourage you to complete, sign and date the proxy card and return it in the self-addressed, prepaid envelope to ensure that the required majority of outstanding shares of common stock entitled to vote at the 2008 Special Meeting is represented, in person or by proxy.

What can I do if I change my mind after I submit my proxy or voting instructions?

If you are a stockholder of record, you can revoke your proxy before it is exercised at the 2008 Special Meeting by:

- Delivering written notice of your revocation to:

Table of Contents

Jay Gottlieb
30 Stoney Gate Oval
New Rochelle, New York 10804

- Submitting a later dated proxy; or
- Attending the 2008 Special Meeting and voting in person.

If you are a beneficial owner of shares, you may submit new voting instructions by contacting your bank, broker or other holder of record. You also may vote in person at the 2008 Special Meeting if you obtain a legal proxy as described in the answer to "How do I vote?" above.

All shares for which a proxy has been properly submitted and not revoked will be voted at the 2008 Special Meeting.

What shares are included on the proxy card?

If you are a stockholder of record, you will receive only one proxy card for all the shares you hold in certificate form or book-entry form.

If you are a beneficial owner, you will receive voting instructions and information regarding consolidation of your vote from your bank, broker or other holder of record.

What are the voting requirements to elect directors and can any other business properly come before the 2008 Special Meeting?

The presence of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock entitled to vote at the 2008 Special Meeting, present in person or represented by proxy, is necessary to constitute a quorum. Abstentions and "broker non-votes" are counted as present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining a quorum. A "broker non-vote" occurs when a bank, broker or other holder of record holding shares for a beneficial owner does not vote on a particular proposal because that holder does not have discretionary voting power for that particular item and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner.

A plurality of the votes cast is required for the election of directors. This means that the director nominee with the most votes for a particular slot is elected for that slot. You may vote "for" or "withheld" with respect to the election of directors. Only votes "for" or "withheld" are counted in determining whether a plurality has been cast in favor of a director. Abstentions are not counted for purposes of the election of directors. If you are a beneficial owner, your bank, broker or other holder of record is permitted to vote your shares on the election of directors, even if the record holder does not receive voting instructions from you. Accordingly, broker non-votes will have no effect on the election of directors.

Each unrevoked proxy card properly completed, signed and received prior to the close of the 2008 Special Meeting will be voted as indicated. Unless otherwise specified on your proxy card, the shares represented by a signed proxy card will be voted FOR each director nominee named in PROPOSAL 1.

At the date this Proxy Statement went to press, the Solicitor did not know of any matters to be raised at the 2008 Special Meeting other than the election of directors referred to in this Proxy Statement. While other matters may be discussed, no vote may be taken since this is a Special Meeting whose notice only provided for the election of directors.

Who will pay for the cost of this proxy solicitation?

Jay Gottlieb (the “Solicitor”) will pay the cost of soliciting proxies. Proxies may be solicited on our behalf by directors, officers or employees in person or by telephone, electronic transmission and facsimile transmission.

Table of Contents

Who will count the vote?

The proxies will be checked against the Transfer Agent's certified copy of the Company's shareholders as of September 16, 2008, by the Company's inspectors at the meeting. Those in street name will be checked first to see that the letters from the brokers match the broker's search report of September 16 as prepared for the Company by its transfer agent. The inspectors will then count the valid votes and report at the meeting.

Proposal 1—Election of Directors

Director Nominees

The Bylaws of the Company provide for five members of the Board of Directors and any persons so elected will continue in office until his successor has been elected and qualified, or until his earlier death, resignation or retirement.

The current members of the Board are Larry Edwards, Thomas Langford, Philip Uhrhan, C. Lee Cooke, Jr. and David Kurland. The Solicitor is not certain whether the current Board members will be standing for election at the 2008 Special Meeting, to hold office until the 2009 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

In any event, Jay Gottlieb (the "Solicitor" and who beneficially owns approximately 15% of the common shares of the Company) seeks to elect the following slate of Directors to the Board: Jay Gottlieb, Michael Pearce, Gregg Schneider, Joshua Krum and Ron Gutterson. The principal occupation and certain other information about these director nominees are set forth in the "Biographical Information of the Solicitor's Candidate Directors" section of this Proxy Statement (below).

Reason Favorable Vote Is Sought By Solicitor for New Board Slate

- Mr. Gottlieb (the "Solicitor"), a shareholder since 2006, has waited for management to increase shareholder value.
- However, over the past seven (7) years, the value of the Company's common shares has not increased.
- In fact, during that period, the Company in the Solicitor's judgment has basically degenerated to the point that it is essentially a shell corporation with only nominal cash and a stated plan of operation to seek to consummate a merger or business combination transaction.
- Despite generally favorable market conditions over the period, the Company has neither consummated successfully any transaction nor generated any operating revenues.
- In fact, the shareholder book value has declined at year-end 2000 from $27,000,000 to $48,000 as of June 30, 2007. The Solicitor believes that the Company needs a new management team.
- If this slate is elected as the Solicitor expects, it will pursue the following plan of action:
 - § Seek approval of an amendment to the Company's Certificate of Incorporation, increasing the authorized number of shares of Common Stock from 20,000,000 shares to 300,000,000 shares
 - § Take immediate steps to have a cash infusion made into the Company
 - § Reincorporating the Company in the State of Delaware
 - § Reducing the number of Board seats from 5 to 3

Biographical Information of the Solicitor's Candidate Directors

The principal occupation and certain other information about the candidate members of the Board of Directors who are seeking election at the 2008 Special Meeting are set forth below.

Jay A. Gottlieb, 63, has been a private investor in various companies since 1998. Mr. Gottlieb is involved in analysis and investment in undervalued special situations and shell corporations. He presently owns between 5% and 21% of 16 public companies and is a member of the Board of Directors of Golf Trust of America, Inc, (AMEX) and Spatializer Audio Technologies, Inc. (OTC). From 1992 to 1998, Mr. Gottlieb was the editor of an investment service that analyzed and published extensive data on companies planning initial public offerings. During this period, he has rendered technology services to the major Fortune 100 corporations of America in both the manufacturing, banking and brokerage industry. For ten years prior, Mr. Gutterson was Vice President of Sales for the International Operations division of a major home furnishings convertor based out of New York. He holds a B.S. in Economics and an MBA in Finance.

Vote Required

A plurality of votes cast is required for the election of directors. The Board of Directors consists of five seats if all director nominees are elected. See "Director Nominees" section of this Proxy Statement as to the current composition of the Board of Directors and why the Solicitor seeks to elect this slate of candidate directors.

Role of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors, which is elected by the stockholders, is the ultimate decision-making body of the Company, except with respect to those matters reserved to the stockholders. It selects the senior management team, which is charged with the conduct of the Company's business. Having selected the senior management team, the Board acts as an advisor and counselor to senior management and ultimately monitors its performance.

THE SOLICITOR RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE ELECTION OF THIS SLATE OF DIRECTOR NOMINEES TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

Supplemental Disclosures

Voting Securities; Beneficial Ownership of the Company's Common Stock

The Company's common stock is the only class of equity securities that is currently outstanding and entitled to vote at a meeting of the Company's stockholders. Each share of common stock entitles the holder thereof to one (1) vote. As of September 16, 2008, approximately 6,335,965 shares of the Company's common stock were outstanding. There are currently no outstanding shares of preferred stock nor options granted to any person.

Table of Contents

The following table sets forth information at September 16, 2008, based on information obtained from the persons named below, with respect to the beneficial ownership of shares of common stock by (i) each person known by us to be the owner of more than 5% of the outstanding shares of common stock, (ii) each director, (iii) each Named Officer and (iv) all existing executive officer and directors of the Company as a group.

Director/Shareholder (1)	Common Stock Beneficially Owned (3), Approximate	Percent of Class
Larry Edwards (2)	224,985	3.55%
C. Lee Cooke, Jr. (2)	0(4)	.0% (4)
Thomas A. Langford (2)	20,000(4)	.31% (4)
Philip Uhrhan (2)	20,000(4)	.31% (4)
David C. Kurland (2)	0	0%
Jay Gottlieb (5)	940,220	14.84%
William Vlahos	616,000	9.72%
Minerva Group	457,000	7.21%
Gregg Schneider	412,500	6.51%
Directors, Management and 5% Shareholders as a Group (9 persons or entities)	2,690,705	42.45%

(1) Unless otherwise noted, the Solicitor believes that all persons named in the table have sole voting and investment power with respect to all shares of common stock beneficially owned by them.

(2) Current member of Board of Directors.

(3) A person is deemed to be the beneficial owner of securities that can be acquired by such person within 60 days upon the exercise of warrants or options. Each beneficial owner's percentage ownership is determined by assuming that options or warrants that are held by such person (but not those held by any other person) and which are exercisable within 60 days have been exercised.

(4) Each of Messrs. Cooke, Langford, and Uhrhan has options to acquire 15,000 shares, respectively. Since not exercised prior to the record date, the Percent of Class calculation column excludes such options from their beneficial ownership calculation.

(5) In addition, the Solicitor has contacted other investors who might join the group of supporting Shareholders. The Solicitor believes, but can not be assured, that not less than an additional _____ shares owned by other Company shareholders (or 15%) will participate for purpose of the quorum and vote in favor of the plan of action outlined above.

Committees of the Board of Directors

Assuming the slate of candidates is approved in the Special Meeting, the Company will in the future establish a new Audit Committee in accordance with Section 3(a)(58)(A) of the Exchange Act that will be comprised of a majority of "independent" directors as defined under pertinent securities rules. Given, among other reasons, that the Company is not currently subject to the Sarbanes-Oxley Act requiring at least an Audit Committee should be appointed and be comprised of a majority of independent directors and the Solicitor has not yet gained control of the Company, the Solicitor has deferred such search at this time.

Once put in place, the Audit Committee, among other things, will determine engagement of the independent certified public accountants and review the scope and effect of the audit engagement. If the Company at that time constitutes a “controlled company” as defined under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, the Company will be exempt from being required to create a Compensation Committee or other committee(s) comprised of a majority of independent directors.

Table of Contents

Fiduciary Responsibility of Management

The Solicitor's counsel has advised the Solicitor that management has a fiduciary responsibility for the safekeeping and use of all company assets. Accordingly, the Solicitor recognizes that if the slate of candidate Board members are elected, he and other member of then existing management is and will be accountable to each shareholder and required to exercise good faith and integrity with respect to our affairs. (For example, management cannot commingle our property with that of any other person, including that of any current or future member of management.) The SEC has stated that, to the extent any exculpatory or indemnification provision includes indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933, it is the opinion of the SEC that this indemnification is contrary to public policy and, therefore, unenforceable.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

The Company is currently a reporting company under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Act"). Section 16(a) of the Act requires that officers and directors, and persons who beneficially own more than 10 percent of a registered class of equity securities of the Company, file certain reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the SEC. Officers, directors, and greater than 10 percent stockholders are required by SEC regulation to furnish us with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

No Other Business Known

The Solicitor does not know of any other business that will be presented for consideration at the Special Meeting. However, if any other business should come before the Special Meeting, the Solicitor will have discretion to act in accordance with its best judgment to the extent of proxies he possesses directly or indirectly.
