TENNANT COMPANY

Quarterly Report - FORM 10-Q/A

Tennant Company announced in February 2003 that due to a technical accounting interpretation brought to the Company's attention by its auditors, the Company is restating its financial statements to recognize revenues and earnings associated with the sales of its equipment to a U.S. third party lessor, that occurred between 1998 and 2002, over the lease period for operating lease transactions and, for short term rental transactions, at the time the customer converts the short term rental to an outright purchase or long term capital lease of the equipment. Previously, revenues and earnings associated with these sales were recognized at the time of shipment. The original contract between the Company and the U.S. third party lessor included retained ownership risk provisions that were determined to preclude operating lease and short-term rental transactions from meeting the criteria for sale treatment under Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 13. The effect of the correction to the timing of the revenue recognition on these transactions includes a revision in previously reported net earnings of $110,000 and $10,000 and net earnings per share diluted of $0.01 and $0.00 for the quarters ended September 30, 2002 and 2001, respectively and a revision in previously reported net earnings of $27,000 and ($21,000) and net earnings per share diluted of $0.00 for both nine month periods ended September 30, 2002 and 2001, respectively. The consolidated financial statements as of December 31, 2001 and September 30, 2002 and for the three and nine month periods ended September 30, 2002 and 2001 and notes thereto included in this Form 10-Q/A have been restated to include the effects of the correction to the timing of the revenue recognition.

On February 4, 2003, the Company amended the agreement with the third party lessor to eliminate the retained ownership risk provisions for operating leases which will result in revenue recognition for future operating lease transactions at the time of shipment. The amendment to the agreement is retroactive to the beginning of the agreement, therefore, the Company expects to recognize the remaining unrecognized revenue and earnings for past operating lease transactions in the first quarter of 2003.

This amendment to the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2002 amends and restates those items of the Form 10-Q originally filed on November 13, 2002 (the Original Filing) which have been affected by the restatement. In order to preserve the nature and character of the disclosures set forth in such items as originally filed, no attempt has been made in this amendment to update any disclosures not impacted by the restatement. Except as required to reflect the effects of the restatement, all information contained in this amendment is stated as of the date of the Original Filing. For additional information regarding the restatement, see Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements - Restated included in the Form 10-Q/A.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS –RESTATED (Unaudited)

(In thousands, except per share data)

(1) Basis of Presentation

In the Company's opinion, the accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements contain all adjustments (consisting of only normal recurring adjustments, except as noted elsewhere in the notes to the consolidated financial statements) necessary to present fairly its financial position as of September 30, 2002 and the results of its operations for the three and nine-months ended September 30, 2002 and 2001, and cash flows for the nine-months ended September 30, 2002 and 2001. These statements are condensed and, therefore, do not include all of the information and note disclosures required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for complete financial statements. The statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2001. The results of operations for the three and nine-months ended September 30, 2002 are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year.

(2) Restatement

Tennant Company announced in February 2003 that due to a technical accounting interpretation brought to the Company's attention by its auditors, the Company is restating its financial statements to recognize revenues and earnings associated with the sales of its equipment to a U.S. third party lessor, that occurred between 1998 and 2002, over the lease period for operating lease transactions and, for short term rental transactions, at the time the customer converts the short term rental to an outright purchase or long term capital lease of the equipment. Previously, revenues and earnings associated with these sales were recognized at the time of shipment. The original contract between the Company and the U.S. third party lessor included retained ownership risk provisions that were determined to preclude operating lease and short-term rental transactions from meeting the criteria for sale treatment under Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 13. The effect of the correction to the timing of the revenue recognition on these transactions includes a revision in previously reported net earnings of $110,000 and $10,000 and net earnings per share diluted of $0.01 and $0.00 for the quarters ended September 30, 2002 and 2001, respectively and a revision in previously reported net earnings of $27,000 and ($21,000) and net earnings per share diluted of $0.00 for both nine month periods ended September 30, 2002 and 2001, respectively. The consolidated financial statements as of December 31, 2001 and September 30, 2002 and for the three and nine month periods ended September 30, 2002 and 2001 and notes thereto included in this Form 10-Q/A have been restated to include the effects of the correction to the timing of the revenue recognition. Impacted financial statement line items were sales, cost of sales, interest expense, income tax expense, inventory, machinery and equipment, accumulated depreciation, deferred taxes, accrued expenses, deferred revenue and debt. There was no impact on cash flows or cash and cash equivalents. The consolidated financial statements as of December 31, 2001 and September 30, 2002 and for the periods ended September 30, 2002 and 2001 and notes thereto included in this Form 10-Q/A have been restated to include the effects of the correction to the timing of the revenue recognition, as follows:

(8) Restructuring and Other Unusual Charges

Edgar Filing: TENNANT CO - Form 10-Q/A

During the first quarter of 2002, the Company announced its plan to consolidate its North American distribution operations from a current network of seven distribution centers into two new facilities that will be under the ownership and management of a third-party logistics services provider. The Company also announced plans to consolidate its European customer service function and take other streamlining actions in Europe and North America. The Company recorded a restructuring charge of $4,004 and an inventory write-down of $500 related to these actions. The restructuring charge consists primarily of severance, building lease costs and write-down of certain fixed assets. The inventory write-down is classified in cost of sales.

In connection with these activities, the Company will terminate a total of approximately 140 positions. These restructuring actions are expected to be substantially completed by March 31, 2003.

During the second quarter of 2002, the Company recorded an unusual charge of $500 for severance pertaining to the departure from the Company of its Chief Operating Officer. This amount has been classified in selling and administrative expenses.

TENNANT COMPANY

Quarterly Report - FORM 10-Q/A

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS –RESTATED (Unaudited)

(In thousands, except per share data)

During the first nine-months of 2001, the Company recorded pre-tax charges of $9,962 for restructuring and $1,007 for a write-down of inventory. The restructuring charges related to a workforce reduction and the closure of a leased plant in Germany and the transfer of its production to a contract manufacturer in the Czech Republic. Approximately 150 employees were terminated as a result of these actions. The restructuring charges primarily consisted of severance payments, building lease costs and write-downs of certain fixed assets. The inventory write-down related to the closing of the leased plant in Germany and has been classified in cost of sales. The majority of these actions were completed during 2001.

The components of the 2002 and 2001 unusual charges and the cash and noncash utilizations against the charges during the nine-month period ended September 30, 2002 were as follows:

	Severance, Early Retirement and Related Costs	Noncancelable Contractual Obligations and Other	Total
2002 Restructuring Charges:
Initial charges	$ 3,588	$ 416	$ 4,004

September 30, 2002 liability balance	$ 116	$ 558	$ 674

(a) Primarily foreign currency translation effects.

The above liabilities are included in accrued expenses.

(9) Goodwill and Intangible Assets

In July 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) SFAS 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets. SFAS 142 requires that goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite useful lives no longer be amortized, but instead be tested for impairment at least annually. SFAS 142 also requires that intangible assets with definite useful lives be amortized over their respective estimated useful lives.

TENNANT COMPANY

Quarterly Report - FORM 10-Q/A

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS –RESTATED (Unaudited)

(In thousands, except per share data)

The Company adopted SFAS 142 effective January 1, 2002. Pretax goodwill amortization charges for the three and nine-month periods ended September 30, 2001 were $190 and $586, respectively. Had this statement been effective January 1, 2001, net earnings and diluted earnings per share for the three month period ended September 30, 2001 would have approximated $3,058 and $0.33 and $4,776 and $0.52 for the first nine-months of 2001. During the first quarter of 2002, the Company completed its initial impairment test of goodwill. As of January 1, 2002, there was no impairment.

Intangible assets consist entirely of purchased technology related to new product development and are included in other assets on the consolidated balance sheet. The balances at September 30, 2002 and December 31, 2001 were as follows:

	September 30, 2002	December 31, 2001
Original Cost	$ 1,075	$ 1,075
Accumulated amortization	(325)	(250)
Carrying value	$ 750	$ 825

Amortization expense will approximate $100 per year for each of the five succeeding years.

(10) New Accounting Pronouncements

SFAS No. 144, Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets, was issued in October 2001. SFAS 144 provides new guidance on the recognition of impairment losses on long-lived assets to be held and used or to be disposed of and also broadens the definition of what constitutes a discontinued operation and how the results of a discontinued operation are to be measured and presented. The Company adopted the provisions of this statement on January 1, 2002. The adoption of SFAS 144 did not have an impact on the consolidated results of operations or financial position.

SFAS No. 146, Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities, was issued in June 2002. SFAS 146 requires that a liability for a cost associated with an exit or disposal activity, including restructuring, be recognized and measured at fair value when the liability is incurred, instead of the commitment date. This pronouncement is effective for the Company in 2003.

Quarterly Report - FORM 10-Q/A

ITEM 2 - Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

The Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations presented below reflects the impact of the restatements to our previously reported consolidated financial statements as of September 30, 2002 and for the quarter then ended.

Tennant Company announced in February 2003 that due to a technical accounting interpretation brought to the Company's attention by its auditors, the Company is restating its financial statements to recognize revenues and earnings associated with the sales of its equipment to a U.S. third party lessor, that occurred between 1998 and 2002, over the lease period for operating lease transactions and, for short term rental transactions, at the time the customer converts the short term rental to an outright purchase or long term capital lease of the equipment. Previously, revenues and earnings associated with these sales were recognized at the time of shipment. The original contract between the Company and the U.S. third party lessor included retained ownership risk provisions that were determined to preclude operating lease and short-term rental transactions from meeting the criteria for sale treatment under Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 13. The effect of the correction to the timing of the revenue recognition on these transactions includes a revision in previously reported net earnings of $110,000 and $10,000 and net earnings per share diluted of $0.01 and $0.00 for the quarters ended September 30, 2002 and 2001, respectively and a revision in previously reported net earnings of $27,000 and ($21,000) and net earnings per share diluted of $0.00 for both nine month periods ended September 30, 2002 and 2001, respectively. The consolidated financial statements as of December 31, 2001 and September 30, 2002 and for the three and nine month periods ended September 30, 2002 and 2001 and notes thereto included in this Form 10-Q/A have been restated to include the effects of the correction to the timing of the revenue recognition.

On February 4, 2003, the Company amended the agreement with the third party lessor to eliminate the retained ownership risk provisions for operating leases which will result in revenue recognition for future operating lease transactions at the time of shipment. The amendment to the agreement is retroactive to the beginning of the agreement, therefore, the Company expects to recognize the remaining unrecognized revenue and earnings for past operating lease transactions in the first quarter of 2003.

Results of Operations

Net earnings for the third quarter ended September 30, 2002, were $2.8 million or $0.31 per diluted share, on net sales of $107.8 million. In the comparable 2001 period, Tennant reported net earnings of $2.9 million or $0.32 per diluted share, on net sales of $105.1 million. For the nine-months ended September 30, 2002, net earnings were $4.3 million or $0.47 per diluted share, on net sales of $310.4 million. In the comparable 2001 period, Tennant reported net earnings of $4.4 million, or $0.48 per diluted share, on net sales of $319.4 million. Foreign currency translation effects on net earnings were not significant during the third quarter of 2002, but reduced diluted earnings per share for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2002 by approximately $0.08. This unfavorable translation effect resulted primarily from the strength of the U. S. dollar compared to the Euro, Japanese yen, Australian and Canadian dollars during the first six months of 2002.

Tennant adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standard 142, "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets", effective January 1, 2002. Had this statement been effective January 1, 2001, net earnings and diluted earnings per share for the 2001 third quarter would have approximated $3.1 million and $0.33 and $4.8 million and $0.52 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2001.

As discussed in note 8 to the consolidated financial statements, restructuring and other unusual charges of $3.3 million after tax ($4.5 million pretax) or $0.37 per diluted share were recorded during the first quarter of 2002. Restructuring charges of $4.0 million pretax consisted primarily of severance costs, including severance related to a decision to close several North American distribution centers and transfer these distribution operations to a third-party logistics provider. In addition, management approved plans in the first quarter to consolidate and centralize customer service operations in Europe and to streamline other operations in North America. Inventory write-downs related to the consolidation of the distribution operations account for the remaining $0.5 million pretax of the unusual charges and are classified as cost of sales in the consolidated statement of earnings. These 2002 restructuring actions are expected to provide an annualized pretax benefit of up to $3 million beginning late in 2002.

During the second quarter of 2002, we recorded an unusual charge of $0.3 million after tax ($0.5 million pretax) or $0.03 per diluted share for severance pertaining to the departure of our Chief Operating Officer. This amount has been classified in selling and administrative expenses.

Restructuring and unusual charges of $6.9 million after tax ($11.0 million pretax) or $0.75 per diluted share were recorded during the nine-month period ended September 30, 2001. Restructuring charges of $10.0 million pretax related to a workforce reduction and the closure of a leased plant in Germany and the transfer of its production to a contract manufacturer in the Czech Republic. Approximately 150 employees were terminated as a result of these actions. The charges primarily consisted of severance payments, building lease costs and write-downs of certain fixed assets and are classified as restructuring charges. The inventory write-down of $1.0 million pretax related to the closing of the leased plant in Germany and has been classified in cost of sales.

TENNANT COMPANY

Quarterly Report - FORM 10-Q/A

For the first nine-months of 2002, net earnings excluding the effects of restructuring and other unusual charges were $7.9 million or $0.87 per diluted share and $11.3 million or $1.23 per diluted share for the comparable 2001 period.

Consolidated net sales of $107.8 million for the 2002 third quarter increased 2.6% compared to 2001 third quarter sales of $105.1 million. This increase resulted from higher sales in North America, offset by slightly lower sales in Europe and Other International geographies. Price increases benefited consolidated net sales in the 2002 third quarter by approximately 2.5%. For the nine-month period ended September 30, 2002, consolidated net sales declined 2.8% to $310.4 million versus 2001. This decrease is primarily due to weak economic conditions worldwide. Foreign currency translation effects increased net sales by $2.1 million during the 2002 third quarter and by $1.4 million during the first nine-months of 2002.

North American sales for the 2002 third quarter increased 3.9% to $80.1 million compared with the third quarter of 2001. Sales of base industrial equipment declined, reflecting the continued weakness in the North American economy. This decline was offset by modest sales increases in commercial equipment, service and floor coatings. Sales of Centurion , our new street sweeper that was introduced in September 2001, also contributed to the increase. For the first nine-months of 2002, sales of $229.6 million were down 0.4% versus the comparable 2001 period. The decrease was primarily due to lower sales of industrial equipment. Sales declines also occurred in commercial products and floor coatings, offset by increased service revenues. Year-to-date sales of industrial and commercial equipment and floor coatings are down because of weak economic conditions in North America compared to a year ago.

In Europe, net sales for the 2002 third quarter decreased 1.5% to $18.4 million versus the comparable 2001 period. Excluding foreign currency translation effects, 2002 third quarter sales declined 12.0% versus the comparable 2001 quarter. For the first nine-months of 2002, sales were $52.7 million, down 8.8% versus the first nine-months of 2001. The sales decrease for both the three and nine-month periods resulted primarily from weakness in European industrial markets, particularly in Germany, the largest European market. Other contributing factors in the nine-month period decline included price competition, primarily in Germany, which we chose not to match and our resignation of certain Original Equipment Manufacturer (OEM) business.

In Other International, 2002 third quarter sales of $9.3 million were down 0.3% compared to 2001 third quarter. For the nine-months ended September 30, 2002, sales to other international markets totaled $28.1 million, down 9.6% from $31.1 million in the comparable 2001 period. Weak economic conditions in the global economy, particularly in Latin America and Japan, were the primary factors for the sales decline in both periods. This decline was partially offset by increased sales in Australia.

Order backlog at September 30, 2002, totaled $14 million compared with $12 million at June 30, 2002, and $8 million at September 30, 2001. Backlog has increased primarily due to longer manufacturing cycle times associated with Centurion .

Gross profit margin was 35.7% for the 2002 third quarter versus 36.1% for the 2001 third quarter. For the nine-month periods ended September 30, gross profit margins were 36.2% in 2002 and 37.0% in 2001. The decline in gross margin for both the three and nine-month periods is primarily the result of lower industrial equipment volumes, including the related sales mix and manufacturing absorption effects, and higher research and development expenses in 2002.

TENNANT COMPANY

Quarterly Report - FORM 10-Q/A

Sales of our new Centurion street sweeper, which is a higher priced, lower margin product, also had an unfavorable impact on gross margin. The decline was partially offset by the favorable effects of price increases.

Third quarter selling and administrative (S&A) expenses of $33.2 million were essentially flat on a dollar basis compared to 2001, but decreased 0.8% on a percentage of sales basis. For the first nine months of 2002, S&A expenses were $99.5 million, down 2.5% on a dollar basis versus the comparable period in 2001. The decline in the nine-month period reflects an emphasis on controlling discretionary expenses, savings from various cost reduction measures initiated during 2001 and lower bonus and profit sharing expenses. This was partially offset by an unusual charge of $0.5 million in severance pertaining to the departure of our Chief Operating Officer. As a percentage of sales, S&A expenses increased from 31.9% in 2001 to 32.1% in 2002 for the nine-months ended September 30.

Net interest income for the 2002 third quarter increased $0.1 million versus the 2001 third quarter primarily because of the reduced interest expense on foreign borrowings. For the nine-months ended September 30, 2002 net interest income decreased $0.1 million primarily because of lower interest rates in 2002. Other expense increased $0.4 million for the third quarter of 2002 compared to the third quarter of 2001, and increased $0.7 million on a year-to-date basis. The increases for the three and nine-month periods were primarily because of losses from currency translation and fixed asset disposals during 2002.

Income tax expense for the three and nine-month periods ended September 30, 2002 was $2.1 million and $4.1 million, versus $1.6 million and $2.1 million for the comparable periods in 2001. Income tax expense in 2001 was lower in both the three and nine-month periods primarily because of the tax effects of the restructuring and other unusual charges described in note 7 to the consolidated financial statements. Excluding restructuring and other unusual charges, the effective tax rate for the nine-month periods ended September 30 were 41.0% in 2002 and 35.5% in 2001. The increase in the effective rate before restructuring and other unusual charges is primarily because of a change in the mix of U.S. and foreign earnings and the fact that European operations have pretax legal-entity losses that are not tax benefited.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Cash and cash equivalents totaled $13.4 million at September 30, 2002, compared with $13.4 million at September 30, 2001. Tennant generated $12.6 million of operating cash flows during the first nine-months of 2002 compared with $15.4 million in the comparable 2001 period. The operating cash flow decrease is primarily due to an increase in inventory levels. Inventory levels increased versus December 31, 2001 because of our decisions to maintain duplicate parts inventories during the transition of our distribution function to a third-party logistics provider and carry higher inventories in Europe to respond more quickly to shorter lead time demands from customers. Additional purchased parts to support newly introduced products such as Centurion also contributed to the increase in inventory. Cash outflows from capital expenditures decreased to $10.5 million in 2002 from $18.9 million in 2001. Capital expenditures in 2001 were greater because of spending on projects intended to improve financial performance through new business systems or cost savings, including investments in design systems software and tooling for new products. Cash outflows from financing activities increased to $14.6 million in 2002 from $6.7 million during 2001 primarily because of the paydown of short-term debt at foreign subsidiaries in 2002.

TENNANT COMPANY

Quarterly Report - FORM 10-Q/A

The debt-to-total-capitalization ratio was 11.4% at September 30, 2002 versus 16.1% at September 30, 2001. Tennant believes that the combination of internally generated funds and available financing sources are more than sufficient to meet its cash requirements for the next year.

Tennant has a cancellation clause with our third-party logistics provider which would require payment of a cancellation fee in the event Tennant elects to cancel this agreement prior to the contract expiration date. This fee declines on a straight-line basis over the five-year life of the contract.

Management regularly reviews the business operations with the objective of improving financial performance and maximizing its return on investment. In this regard, we continue to consider actions to improve financial performance which, if taken, could result in material nonrecurring charges.

Cautionary Statement Relevant to Forward-Looking Information

Certain statements contained in this document as well as other written and oral statements made from time to time by us are considered forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act. These statements do not relate to strictly historical or current facts and provide current expectations or forecasts of future events. These include factors that affect all businesses operating in a global market as well as matters specific to Tennant and the markets we serve. Particular risks and uncertainties presently facing us include: the ability to implement our plan to increase worldwide operational efficiencies; the success of new products; political and economic uncertainty throughout the world; inflationary pressures; the potential for increased competition in our businesses from competitors that have substantial financial resources; the potential for soft markets in certain regions including North America, Asia, Latin America and Europe; the relative strength of the U.S. dollar, which affects the cost of our products sold internationally; and our plan for growth. We caution that forward-looking statements must be considered carefully and that actual results may differ in material ways due to risks and uncertainties both known and unknown. Shareholders, potential investors and other readers are urged to consider these factors in evaluating forward-looking statements and are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements.

Tennant does not undertake to update any forward-looking statement, and investors are advised to consult any further disclosures by us on this matter in our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission and in other written statements we make from time to time. It is not possible to anticipate or foresee all risk factors, and investors should not consider that any list of such factors to be an exhaustive or complete list of all risks or uncertainties.

ITEM 3 - Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

Tennant's market risk includes the risk of adverse changes in foreign currency exchange rates. Foreign currency translation effects on diluted earnings per share were insignificant during the 2002 third quarter, but reduced diluted earnings per share by approximately $0.08 for the year-to-date versus the comparable 2001 period. If foreign exchange rates at the end of the third quarter prevailed for the balance of 2002, the foreign exchange effects would be favorable for the remainder of 2002 compared with prior year results. Tennant uses forward exchange contracts to hedge net exposed assets in Australia, Canada, Japan and Europe. Additional information on market risk is included in the Management Discussion and Analysis section of Tennant's Form 10-K filing for the year ended December 31, 2001.

Tennant expects the unfavorable economic conditions in the manufacturing sector of the global economy to continue throughout 2002. These continued unfavorable economic conditions have had a negative impact on sales and net earnings for 2002. This impact has been most significant for Tennant's industrial products, our most profitable product line.

ITEM 4 - Controls and Procedures

(a) Evaluation of disclosure controls and procedures. Based on their evaluation as of a date within 90 days of the filing date of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q/A, Tennant's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer have concluded that Tennant's disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-14(c) and 15d-14(c) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act)) are effective to ensure that information required to be disclosed by Tennant in reports that we file or submit under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in Securities and Exchange Commission rules and forms.

(b) Changes in internal controls. There were no significant changes in Tennant's internal controls or in other factors that could significantly affect these controls subsequent to the date of their evaluation, nor were there any significant deficiencies or material weaknesses in Tennant's internal controls. As a result, no corrective actions were required or undertaken.

PART II - OTHER INFORMATION

ITEM 5 - Other Information

In accordance with Section 10A of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended by Section 202 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, non-audit services approved in the third quarter by Tennant's Audit Committee to be performed by KPMG LLP, Tennant's independent auditors, are as follows: (1) international and domestic tax-related consulting and preparation services including international expatriate tax and immigration services, and (2) audits of financial statements of employee benefit plans.
