SPECIAL NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING INFORMATION

This prospectus, as well as other written communications made from time to time by us and oral communications made from time to time by our authorized officers, may contain statements relating to our future results (including certain projections and business trends) that are considered "forward-looking statements" as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 (the "PSLRA"). Such forward-looking statements may be identified by the use of such words as "believe," "expect," "anticipate," "should," "planned," "estimated," "intend" and "potential." Examples of forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, possible or assumed estimates with respect to the financial condition, expected or anticipated revenue, and results of our operations and business, including earnings growth determined using GAAP; revenue growth in retail banking, lending and other areas; origination volume in our consumer, commercial and other lending businesses; asset quality and levels of non-performing assets; impairment charges with respect to investment securities; current and future capital management programs; non-interest income levels, including fees from services and product sales; tangible capital generation; market share; expense levels; and other business operations and strategies. For these statements, we claim the protection of the safe harbor for forward-looking statements contained in the PSLRA.

We caution you that a number of important factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those currently anticipated in any forward-looking statement. Such factors include, but are not limited to:

- the factors identified in this document under the headings “Special Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements” and “Risk Factors;”
- prevailing economic conditions, either nationally or locally in some or all areas in which we conduct business, or conditions in the banking industry;

- changes in interest rates, deposit flows, loan demand, real estate values and competition, which can materially affect, among other things, consumer banking revenues, revenues from sales on non-deposit investment products, origination levels in our lending businesses and the level of defaults, losses and prepayments on loans we have made and make, whether held in portfolio or sold in the secondary markets;
 - changes in the quality or composition of the loan or investment portfolios;

 - changes in accounting principles, policies, and guidelines;
 - changes in any applicable law, rule, regulation or practice with respect to tax or legal issues;
 - risks and uncertainties related to mergers and related integration and restructuring activities;
- litigation liabilities, including related costs, expenses, settlements and judgments, or the outcome of other matters before regulatory agencies, whether pending or commencing in the future; and
- other economic, competitive, governmental, regulatory and technological factors affecting our operations, pricing, products and services.

Additionally, the timing and occurrence or non-occurrence of events may be subject to circumstances beyond our control. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements which are made as of the date of this prospectus. Except as may be required by applicable law or regulation, we assume no obligation to update the forward-looking statements or to update the reasons why actual results could differ from those projected in the forward-looking statements.

We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of securities by the selling securityholders. We will receive gross proceeds of $12,464,094 from the exercise of the warrant, if and when it is exercised, assuming that the exercise price of the warrant is paid in cash and not via the “net exercise” method. If received, we expect to use these proceeds for general corporate purposes.

The selling securityholders will pay any underwriting discounts and commissions and expenses incurred by the selling securityholders for brokerage, accounting, tax or legal services or any other expenses incurred by the selling securityholders in disposing of the securities. RATIOS OF EARNINGS TO COMBINED FIXED CHARGES
AND PREFERRED STOCK DIVIDENDS

The historical consolidated ratios of earnings to combined fixed charges and preferred stock dividends for the periods indicated is as follows:

	Nine Months Ended September 30,	Year Ended December 31,
	2008	2007	2006	2005	2004	2003
Excluding Interest on Deposits	2.84	3.50	3.19	4.27	1.55	2.67
Including Interest on Deposits	1.56	1.58	1.76	2.28	1.35	2.08

For the purpose of computing the consolidated ratio of earnings to fixed charges, “earnings” consist of income before income taxes and extraordinary items plus fixed charges, excluding capitalized interest. “Fixed charges” consist of interest on short-term and long-term debt, including interest related to capitalized leases and capitalized interest, and one-third of rent expense (net of rental income), which approximates the interest component of that net expense. We did not pay any preferred stock dividends during any of the periods presented. In addition, where indicated, fixed charges include interest on deposits. The ratios are based solely on historical financial information, and no pro forma adjustments have been made thereto.

SELLING SECURITYHOLDERS

The initial selling securityholder is the United States Department of the Treasury. We issued 83,094 shares of our Series A preferred stock and a warrant to purchase 651,547 shares of our common stock to the initial selling securityholder on December 5, 2008 in a transaction exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”). In connection with that transaction, we granted registration rights to the initial selling securityholder and its transferees or assigns with respect to the resale or other disposal of the Series A preferred stock, the warrant and the common stock that may be issued pursuant to the exercise of the warrant.

In accordance with the registration rights granted to the selling securityholders, we have filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (referred to in this prospectus as the “SEC”) a registration statement on Form S-3, of which this prospectus forms a part, with respect to the resale or other disposal of the securities covered by this prospectus. We have agreed to prepare and file amendments and supplements to the registration statement to the extent necessary to keep the registration statement effective until the securities are sold pursuant to this prospectus or are no longer required to be registered for resale by the selling securityholders.

The following table presents information regarding the beneficial ownership of our outstanding securities by the initial selling securityholder, including shares of common stock that the initial selling securityholder has the right to acquire within 60 days of the date of this prospectus upon exercise of the warrant. The information in the table assumes that the initial selling securityholder sells all of the securities covered by this prospectus. However, we do not know when or in what amounts the selling securityholders may offer the securities for sale. The selling securityholders might not sell any or all of the securities offered by this prospectus. Information about the selling securityholders may change over time and changed information will be set forth in supplements to this prospectus if and when necessary.

Class of Security	Shares Beneficially Owned		Number of Shares That May Be Sold in this Offering	Shares Beneficially Owned Following this Offering
	Number	Percent		Number	Percent

Common stock	651,547	3.8%	651,547	0	0%

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The securities covered by this prospectus may be offered and sold from time to time by the initial selling securityholder and its transferees and assignees who hold Series A preferred stock with a liquidation preference, or the warrant or common stock with a market value, of no less than $1,662,000. The selling securityholders will act independently of us in making decisions with respect to the timing, manner and size of each sale. Such sales may be made on one or more exchanges or in the over-the-counter market or otherwise, at prices and under terms then prevailing or at prices related to the then current market price or in negotiated transactions. The selling securityholders may sell their securities by one or more of, or a combination of, the following methods:

• purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by such broker-dealer for its own account pursuant to this prospectus;

- ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker solicits purchasers;

• block trades in which the broker-dealer so engaged will attempt to sell the securities as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;

- an over-the-counter distribution in accordance with the rules of the NASDAQ Global Select Market;

- in privately negotiated transactions; and

- in options transactions.

In addition, any shares that qualify for sale pursuant to Rule 144 may be sold under Rule 144 rather than pursuant to this prospectus.

The selling securityholders may transfer or assign its Series A preferred stock, the warrant or common stock, in which case the transferees or assignees will be the selling beneficial owners for purposes of this prospectus.

In connection with distributions of the securities or otherwise, the selling securityholders may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions. In connection with such transactions, broker-dealers or other financial institutions may engage in short sales of our common stock in the course of hedging the positions they assume with selling securityholders. The selling securityholders may also sell the common stock short and redeliver the shares to close out such short positions. The selling securityholders may also enter into option or other transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions which require the delivery to such broker-dealer or other financial institution of shares offered by this prospectus, which shares such broker-dealer or other financial institution may resell pursuant to this prospectus (as supplemented or amended to reflect such transaction). The selling securityholders may also pledge securities to a broker-dealer or other financial institution, and, upon a default, such broker-dealer or other financial institution may effect sales of the pledged securities pursuant to this prospectus (as supplemented or amended to reflect such transaction).

In effecting sales, broker-dealers or agents engaged by the selling securityholders may arrange for other broker-dealers to participate. Broker-dealers or agents may receive commissions, discounts or concessions from the selling securityholders in amounts to be negotiated immediately prior to the sale.

The aggregate proceeds to the selling securityholders from the sale of the securities will be the purchase price of the securities less discounts and commissions, if any.

In offering the securities covered by this prospectus, the selling securityholders and any broker-dealers who execute sales for the selling securityholders may be deemed to be “underwriters” within the meaning of the Securities Act in connection with such sales. Any profits realized by the selling securityholders and the compensation of any broker-dealer may be deemed to be underwriting discounts and commissions. Selling securityholders who are “underwriters” within the meaning of Section 2(a)(11) of the Securities Act will be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act and may be subject to certain statutory and regulatory liabilities, including liabilities imposed pursuant to Sections 11, 12 and 17 of the Securities Act and Rule 10b-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”).

In order to comply with the securities laws of some states, if applicable, the securities must be sold in such jurisdictions only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers. In addition, the securities may not be sold unless they have been registered or qualified for sale in the applicable state or an exemption from the registration or qualification requirement is available and is complied with.

The anti-manipulation rules of Regulation M under the Exchange Act may apply to sales of shares in the market and to the activities of the selling securityholders. In addition, we will make copies of this prospectus available to the selling securityholders for the purpose of satisfying the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act. The selling securityholders may indemnify any broker-dealer that participates in transactions involving the sale of the shares against certain liabilities, including liabilities arising under the Securities Act.

At the time a particular offer of shares is made, if required, a prospectus supplement will be distributed that will set forth the number of shares being offered and the terms of the offering, including the name of any underwriter, dealer or agent, the purchase price paid by any underwriter, any discount, commission and other item constituting compensation, any discount, commission or concession allowed or reallocated or paid to any dealer, and the proposed selling price to the public.

We do not intend to apply for listing of the Series A preferred stock on any securities exchange or for inclusion of the Series A preferred stock in any automated quotation system unless requested by the initial selling securityholder. No assurance can be given as to the liquidity of the trading market, if any, for the Series A preferred stock.

We have agreed to indemnify the selling securityholders against certain liabilities, including certain liabilities under the Securities Act. We have also agreed, among other things, to bear substantially all expenses (other than underwriting discounts and selling commissions) in connection with the registration and sale of the securities covered by this prospectus.

SECURITIES TO BE REGISTERED

This prospectus covers 83,094 shares of Series A preferred stock, a warrant to purchase 651,547 shares of our common stock, and 651,547 shares of our common stock. Our authorized capital stock consists of 50,000,000 shares of capital stock, par value $1.00 per share. As of December 31, 2008, we had 16,398,523 shares of common stock and 83,094 shares of Series A preferred stock outstanding. The following is a summary of the securities included in this prospectus. For more detailed information, see our articles of incorporation, articles supplementary for the Series A preferred stock, bylaws and warrant to purchase common stock, copies of which have been filed with the SEC and are also available upon request from us.

DESCRIPTION OF SERIES A PREFERRED STOCK

The following is a brief description of the terms of the Series A preferred stock that may be resold by the selling securityholders. This summary does not purport to be complete in all respects. This description is subject to and qualified in its entirety by reference to our articles of incorporation, as amended, including the articles supplementary with respect to the Series A preferred stock.

Dividends

Holders of the Series A preferred stock are entitled to receive, if, as and when declared by our board of directors out of assets legally available for payment, cumulative cash dividends at a rate of 5% per annum on the liquidation preference per share, accruing from the beginning of the relevant dividend period. Accrued and unpaid dividends compound quarterly. Beginning February 15, 2014, the dividend rate will increase to 9% per annum.

Dividends are paid quarterly in arrears on each February 15, May 15, August 15 and November 15, beginning on February 15, 2009. If any dividend payment date is not a business day, then the next business day will be the applicable dividend payment date, and no additional dividends will accrue as a result of the applicable postponement of the dividend payment date. Dividend record dates are the 15th calendar day immediately preceding the applicable dividend payment date or such other date designated by our board of directors not more than 60 nor less than 10 days before such dividend payment date. Dividends payable on the Series A preferred stock will be computed on the basis of a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months.

If we determine not to pay any dividend or a full dividend with respect to the Series A preferred stock, we are required to provide written notice to the holders of shares of Series A preferred stock prior to the applicable dividend payment date.

Holders of the Series A preferred stock will not be entitled to any participate in any dividends, whether payable in cash, property or shares, paid on any other securities issued by us, including our common stock and other junior stock.

Payment Restrictions

So long as any shares of Series A preferred stock remain outstanding, no dividends or distributions will be declared or paid on our common stock or any class or series of our equity securities ranking junior, as to dividends and upon liquidation, to the Series A preferred stock (“junior stock”) (other than dividends payable solely in shares of our common stock) or on any other class or series of our equity securities ranking, as to dividends and upon liquidation, on a parity with the Series A preferred stock (“parity stock”), and no common stock, junior stock or parity stock may be repurchased or redeemed by us unless all accrued and unpaid dividends for past dividend periods, including the latest completed dividend period, have been paid or have been declared and a sufficient sum has been set aside for the benefit of the holders of the Series A preferred stock. The foregoing limitation does not apply to:

- redemptions or repurchases of common stock or other junior stock in connection with the administration of any employee benefit plan in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practice, but only to offset the increase in the number of diluted shares outstanding resulting from the grant, vesting or exercise of equity-based compensation;
- purchases or other acquisitions by a broker-dealer subsidiary of ours solely for the purpose of market-making, stabilization or customer facilitation transactions in junior stock or parity stock in the ordinary course its business;
- purchases by a broker-dealer subsidiary of the ours of our capital stock for resale pursuant to an offering by us of our capital stock underwritten by such broker-dealer subsidiary;
- any dividends or distributions of rights or junior stock in connection with a stockholders’ rights plan or any redemption or repurchase of rights pursuant to any stockholders’ rights plan;
- the acquisition by us of record ownership in junior stock or parity stock for the beneficial ownership of any other persons, including as trustees or custodian; and the exchange or conversion of junior stock for or into other junior stock or of parity stock for or into other parity stock (with the same or lesser aggregate liquidation amount) or junior stock, in each case, solely to the extent required pursuant to binding contractual agreements entered into prior to December 5, 2008 or any subsequent agreement for the accelerated exercise, settlement or exchange thereof for common stock.

When dividends are not paid in full on any dividend payment date (or declared and a sum sufficient for such full payment is not set aside) upon the Series A preferred stock and all parity stock (or, with respect to parity stock with a different dividend payment date, on the applicable dividend date falling within the dividend period related to the dividend payment date for the Series A preferred stock), all dividends declared upon the Series A preferred stock and any parity stock shall be declared pro rata so that the amount of dividends declared per share of Series A preferred stock and all such parity stock will in all cases bear to each other the same ratio that accumulated dividends per share of Series A preferred stock and all parity stock (which shall not include any accumulation in respect of unpaid dividends for prior dividend periods if such parity stock does not have a cumulative dividend) bear to each other.

Liquidation Rights

In the event we voluntarily or involuntarily liquidate, dissolve or wind up our affairs (referred to herein sometimes as a “liquidation”), each holder of Series A preferred stock then outstanding will be entitled to receive out of our assets available for distribution to stockholders (after payment or provision for payment of all of our debts and other liabilities and subject to the rights of holders of any equity securities issued by us ranking senior to the Series A preferred stock as to liquidation rights) an amount equal to $1,000 (the “liquidation preference”) per share, plus the amount of any accrued but unpaid dividends thereon, whether or not declared, to the date of payment before any distribution of assets is made to holders of common stock and any other shares of our equity securities that rank junior to the Series A preferred stock as to liquidation rights.

If, upon any such voluntary or involuntary liquidation, our assets are insufficient to make full payment to holders of the Series A preferred stock and any shares of other classes or series of our equity securities ranking on a parity with the Series A preferred stock as to liquidation rights, then the holders of the Series A preferred stock and all other such classes or series of equity securities ranking on a parity with the Series A preferred stock as to liquidation rights will share ratably in any distribution of assets in proportion to the full liquidating distributions to which they would otherwise be respectively entitled.

After payment of the full amount of the liquidating distributions to which they are entitled, the holders of Series A preferred stock will have no right or claim to any of our remaining assets. A consolidation or merger by us with or into another entity, including a merger or consolidation in which the holders of Series A Preferred Stock receive cash, securities or other property for their shares, or the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of our assets, will not be considered a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of our affairs.

Ranking

The Series A preferred stock, with respect to dividend rights and rights upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up of our affairs, will rank on parity with all equity securities the terms of which expressly provide that such securities will rank on parity with the Series A preferred stock, and senior to our common stock and to all equity securities the terms of which provide that such equity securities will rank junior to the Series A preferred stock.

Redemption at Our Option

On and after February 15, 2012, we may, at our option, redeem shares of the Series A preferred stock, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time, for cash at a per share amount equal to the sum of the liquidation preference per share and any accrued and unpaid dividends to but excluding the redemption date, to the extent we have funds legally available therefor. Any redemption of the Series A preferred stock is subject to receipt of prior regulatory approval.

Prior to February 15, 2012, we may redeem shares of the Series A preferred stock only if we have received aggregate gross proceeds of at least $20,773,500 from one or more offerings of common stock, perpetual preferred stock or a combination thereof that may be included in Tier 1 capital as of the time of issuance (a “qualified equity offering”), and the aggregate redemption price for the Series A preferred stock cannot exceed the net proceeds received by us from such qualified equity offerings.

If fewer than all of the outstanding shares of Series A preferred stock are to be redeemed pursuant to our optional redemption right, the shares to be redeemed will be selected pro rata or in such other equitable method prescribed by our board of directors.

We will mail notice of any redemption of Series A preferred stock by first class mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the holders of record of the shares of Series A preferred stock to be redeemed at their respective last addresses appearing on our books. This mailing will be at least 30 days and not more than 60 days before the date fixed for redemption. Any notice mailed or otherwise given as described in this paragraph will be conclusively presumed to have been duly given, whether or not the holder receives the notice, and failure duly to give the notice by mail or otherwise, or any defect in the notice or in the mailing or provision of the notice, to any holder of Series A preferred stock designated for redemption will not affect the redemption of any other Series A preferred stock. Each notice of redemption will set forth the applicable redemption date, the redemption price, the place where shares of Series A preferred stock are to be redeemed, and the number of shares of Series A preferred stock to be redeemed (and, if less than all shares of Series A preferred stock held by the applicable holder, the number of shares to be redeemed from the holder).

Shares of Series A preferred stock that are redeemed, repurchased or otherwise acquired by us will revert to authorized but unissued shares of our preferred stock.

The Series A preferred stock is not subject to any mandatory redemption, sinking fund or similar provisions. Holders of shares of Series A preferred stock have no right to require the redemption or repurchase of the Series A preferred stock.

Voting Rights

The holders of Series A preferred stock do not have any voting rights except as described below or as otherwise required by Maryland law.

Whenever dividends on the Series A preferred stock have not been paid for six or more quarterly periods (whether or not consecutive), then the number of our directors will automatically be increased by two and the holders of the Series A preferred stock (voting together as a single class with all of our other equity securities upon which like voting rights have been conferred and are exercisable) will be entitled to fill the newly created directorships until all accrued and unpaid dividends and the dividend for the then current dividend period on the Series A preferred stock have been paid in full, at which time such right will terminate with respect to the Series A preferred stock. It will be a qualification for election for any director elected by the holders of preferred stock that the election of such person not cause us to violate any corporate governance requirements of any securities exchange on which we are listed. Upon termination of the right of holders of Series A preferred stock and all other equity securities upon which like voting rights have been conferred to vote for directors as described above, the term of office of each director elected as described in this paragraph will expire.

So long as any shares of Series A Preferred Stock are outstanding, in addition to any other vote or consent of stockholders required by law or by our articles of incorporation, the vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the Series A preferred stock outstanding at the time, voting as a separate class, shall be necessary to:

- authorize, create or increase the authorized amount of or issue any class or series of, or any securities convertible or exchangeable for shares of, any capital stock ranking senior to the outstanding Series A preferred stock with respect to the payment of dividends and/or the distribution of assets upon any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of our affairs;
- amend, alter or repeal the provisions of our articles of incorporation or the Series A Articles Supplementary (including, unless no vote on such merger or consolidation is required, by merger or consolidation or otherwise), so as to adversely affect the rights, preferences, privileges or voting power of the Series A preferred stock; or

- consummate a binding share exchange or reclassification involving the Series A preferred stock, or of a merger or consolidation by us with another corporation or other entity, unless in each case (i) the shares of Series A preferred stock remain outstanding or, in the case of any such merger or consolidation with respect to which Sandy Spring Bancorp is not the surviving or resulting entity, are converted into or exchanged for preference securities of the surviving or resulting entity or its ultimate parent, and (ii) such shares remaining outstanding or such preference securities, as the case may be, have such rights, preferences, privileges and voting powers, and limitations and restrictions thereof, taken as a whole, as are not materially less favorable to the holders thereof than the rights, preferences, privileges and voting powers, and limitations and restrictions thereof, of Series A preferred stock immediately prior to such consummation, taken as a whole.

The foregoing voting provisions will not apply if, at or prior to the time when the vote or consent would otherwise be required, all outstanding shares of Series A preferred stock have been redeemed or called for redemption upon proper notice and sufficient funds have been set aside by us for the benefit of the holders of Series A preferred stock to effect the redemption.

To the extent of the voting rights of the Series A preferred stock, each holder of Series A preferred stock will have one vote for each $1,000 of liquidation preference to which such holder's shares of Series A preferred stock are entitled.

The increase in the amount of authorized preferred stock or the creation and issuance of any other series of preferred stock ranking equally with or junior to the Series A preferred stock with respect to the payment of dividends and the distribution of assets upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up of our affairs will not require the vote or consent of the holders of the outstanding shares of Series A preferred stock.

Conversion Rights

Holders of our Series A preferred stock have no right to exchange or convert such shares into any other securities.

Listing

Our Series A preferred stock is not listed on any national securities exchange or quoted on any interdealer quotation system.

DESCRIPTION OF THE WARRANT TO PURCHASE COMMON STOCK

A warrant holder will not be deemed a shareholder of our underlying common stock until the warrant is exercised and, as a result, will not have any voting rights or such other rights until the warrant is exercised and the underlying common stock has been issued. The exercise price of the warrant is $19.13. The number of shares of common stock that may be acquired upon exercise of the warrant and the exercise price of the warrant will be adjusted if specific events, summarized below, occur. The warrant will expire on December 5, 2018.

Shares of Common Stock Subject to the Warrant

The warrant is initially exercisable for 651,547 shares of our common stock. If we complete one or more qualified equity offerings on or prior to December 31, 2009 that result in our receipt of aggregate gross proceeds of not less than $83,094,000, which is equal to 100% of the aggregate liquidation preference of the Series A preferred stock, the number of shares of common stock underlying the portion of the warrant then held by the initial selling securityholder will be reduced by 325,773 shares. The number of shares of common stock that may be acquired upon exercise of the warrant and the exercise price of the warrant are subject to the further adjustments described below.

Transferability

The initial selling securityholder may not transfer a portion of the warrant with respect to more than 325,773 shares of common stock until the earlier of the date on which we have received aggregate gross proceeds from a qualified equity offering of at least $83,094,000 and December 31, 2009. The warrant, and all rights under the warrant, are otherwise transferable.

Exercise

The holder of the warrant may exercise the warrant, in whole or in any part, at any time before December 5, 2018 by delivering to us notice of exercise and payment of the exercise price. The holder is entitled to a “cashless exercise” or “net exercise” option, which means that the holder of the warrant may pay the exercise price by having us withhold from the shares of common stock that would otherwise be delivered to the holder that number of shares equal in value to the aggregate exercise price of the warrant exercised. Alternatively, with our consent, the holder of the warrant can pay the exercise price in cash.

For purposes of a net exercise, the value of the shares to be withheld will be based on the market price of our common stock, as determined by the terms of the warrant, on the trading day on which the warrant is exercised and notice of exercise is delivered to us.

The exercise of the warrant is subject to the condition that the holder will have first received any applicable regulatory approvals.

Upon exercise of the warrant, certificates for the shares of common stock issuable upon exercise will be issued to the warrant holder. We will not issue fractional shares upon any exercise of the warrant. Instead, the warrant holder will be entitled to a cash payment equal to the market price of our common stock on the last day preceding the exercise of the warrant (less the pro-rated exercise price of the warrant) for any fractional shares that would have otherwise been issuable upon exercise of the warrant. We will at all times reserve the aggregate number of shares of our common stock for which the warrant may be exercised.

Adjustments to Exercise Price and Number of Shares

Stock Dividends, Splits and Reclassifications. If we pay a stock dividend, subdivide or reclassify our outstanding shares of common stock into a greater number of shares, or combine or reclassify our outstanding shares of common stock into a smaller number of shares, the number of shares issuable upon exercise of the warrant and the exercise price will be proportionally adjusted to reflect the change in the number of outstanding shares.

Certain Issuances of Common Shares or Convertible Securities. Until the earlier of the date on which the initial selling securityholder no longer holds any portion of the warrant or December 5, 2011, if we issue shares of common stock or other securities exercisable or convertible into our common stock without consideration or at a consideration per share that is less than 90% of the market price on the last day of trading preceding the date of the agreement on pricing such shares, then the number of shares issuable upon exercise of the warrant and the exercise price will be adjusted.

There will be no adjustments for share issuances (i) as consideration for or to fund the acquisition of businesses and/or related assets, (ii) in connection with employee benefit plans and compensation-related arrangements in ordinary course and consistent with past practice approved by the Board of Directors, (iii) in connection with a public or broadly marketed offering and sale of common stock or convertible securities for cash in a registered offering or pursuant to Rule 144A conducted on a basis consistent with capital raising transactions by comparable financial institutions; and (iv) in connection with the exercise of preemptive rights on terms existing as of December 5, 2008.

Other Distributions. If we make a distribution to all holders of our common stock of securities, evidences of indebtedness, assets, cash, rights or warrants (excluding ordinary cash dividends, common stock dividends or other reclassifications of our common stock), then the number of shares issuable upon exercise of the warrant and the exercise price will be adjusted to reflect such distribution.

Certain Repurchases of Common Stock. If we effect a pro rata purchase of our common stock, then the number of shares issuable upon exercise of the warrant and the exercise price will be adjusted. For purposes of the warrant, a “pro rata repurchase” means any purchase of shares by us pursuant to a (i) a tender offer or exchange offer subject to Section 13(e) or 14(e) of the Exchange Act or Regulation 14E promulgated thereunder or (ii) any other offer available to substantially all holders of our common stock.

Business Combinations. In the event of a business combination, such as merger, consolidation, statutory share exchange or similar transaction that requires approval of our shareholders, the warrant will be converted into the right to acquire the number of shares of stock or other securities or property (including cash) that the common stock issuable upon exercise of the warrant immediately prior to the business combination would have been entitled to receive upon consummation of the business combination. If the holders of our common stock have the right to elect the kind or amount of consideration receivable upon consummation of the business combination, then the consideration that the warrant holders will be entitled to receive upon exercise of the warrant will be deemed to be the types and amounts of consideration received by the majority of all holders of common stock that affirmatively make an election.

Other Events. For so long as the initial selling securityholder holds any portion of the warrant, if any event occurs as to which the anti-dilution adjustments described above are not strictly applicable or, if strictly applicable, would not, in the good faith judgment of our board of directors, fairly and adequately protect the purchase rights of the warrant in accordance with the essential intent and principles of such provisions, then the board of directors will make such adjustments as shall be reasonably necessary, in the good faith opinion of the board of directors, to protect the purchase rights of the warrant.

DESCRIPTION OF OUR COMMON STOCK

Our authorized capital stock consists of 50,000,000 shares of capital stock, par value $1.00 per share. Each share of our common stock has the same relative rights as, and is identical in all respects with, each other share of common stock.

Voting Rights

The holders of our common stock are entitled to one vote per share on all matters presented to stockholders. Holders of common stock are not entitled to cumulate their votes in the election of directors.

Dividends

The holders of our common stock are entitled to receive and share equally in any dividends as may be declared by our board of directors out of funds legally available for the payment of dividends. Under Maryland law, we may pay dividends if, after giving effect to such dividends, (1) we will be able to pay our indebtedness as such indebtedness becomes due in the usual course of business and (2) our total assets exceed our total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed to satisfy the preferential rights upon dissolution of stockholders whose preferential rights upon dissolution are superior to those receiving dividends.

The terms of our Series A preferred stock also impose certain restrictions on our ability to declare and pay dividends on our common stock and to repurchase our common stock. We may pay dividends on or repurchase our common stock only if we have paid or provided for all dividends on our Series A preferred stock for the then current period and all prior periods.

In addition, prior to the earlier of (i) December 5, 2011 or (ii) the date on which the Series A preferred stock has been redeemed in full or the initial selling securityholder has transferred all of the Series A preferred stock to non-affiliates, we cannot increase our quarterly cash dividend above $0.24 or repurchase any shares of common stock or other capital stock or equity securities or trust preferred securities without the consent of the initial selling securityholder. The repurchase restrictions do not apply in certain limited circumstances, including the repurchase of common stock in connection with the administration of any employee benefit plan in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practice, but only to offset the increase in the number of diluted shares outstanding resulting from the grant, vesting or exercise of equity-based compensation.

Liquidation

Upon our liquidation, dissolution or winding up, the holders of our common stock are entitled to receive their pro rata portion of our remaining assets after payment, or provision for payment, of all our debts and liabilities and the holders our preferred stock, if any, have been paid in full any sums to which they may be entitled.

No Preemptive or Redemption Rights

Holders of our common stock are not entitled to preemptive rights with respect to any shares that may be issued. The common stock is not subject to redemption.

Certain Charter and Bylaw Provisions Affecting Stock

Our Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws contain several provisions that may make us less attractive target for an acquisition of control by anyone who does not have the support of our board of directors. Such provisions include, among other things, the requirement of a supermajority vote of stockholders to approve certain business combinations and other corporate actions, a minimum price provision, several special procedural rules, a staggered board of directors, and the limitation that stockholder actions may only be taken at a meeting and may not be taken by unanimous written stockholder consent. The foregoing is qualified in its entirety by reference to our Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws, both of which are on file with the SEC.

Restrictions on Ownership

The Bank Holding Company Act generally would prohibit any company that is not engaged in financial activities and activities that are permissible for a bank holding company or a financial holding company from acquiring control of us. "Control" is generally defined as ownership of 25% or more of the voting stock or other exercise of a controlling influence. In addition, any existing bank holding company would need the prior approval of the Federal Reserve Board before acquiring 5% or more of our voting stock. The Change in Bank Control Act of 1978, as amended, prohibits a person or group of persons from acquiring control of a bank holding company unless the Federal Reserve Board has been notified and has not objected to the transaction. Under a rebuttable presumption established by the Federal Reserve Board, the acquisition of 10% or more of a class of voting stock of a bank holding company with a class of securities registered under Section 12 of the Exchange Act, such as Sandy Spring Bancorp, could constitute acquisition of control of the bank holding company. Maryland law generally requires the prior approval of the Commissioner of Financial Regulation before a person, group of persons, or company may acquire 25% or more of our voting stock or otherwise exercise a controlling influence over the direction of the management or policy of Sandy Spring Bancorp or Sandy Spring Bank.

Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Section 2-418 of the Maryland Annotated Code, Corporations and Associations Article (1993) (“Maryland Code”) provides that a corporation may indemnify directors and officers against liabilities they may incur in such capacities unless it is established that: (a) the directors act or omission was material to the matter giving rise to the proceeding and (i) was committed in bad faith or (ii) was the result of active and deliberate dishonesty; or (b) the director actually received an improper personal benefit; or (c) in the case of any criminal proceeding, the director had reasonable cause to believe that the act or omission was unlawful. A corporation is required to indemnify directors and officers against expenses they may incur in defending actions against them in such capacities if they are successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of such actions.

The Maryland Code provides that the foregoing provisions shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which a director or officer seeking indemnification may be entitled under, among other things, any bylaw or charter provision, or resolution of stockholders or directors, agreement, or otherwise.

Article XV of the Articles of Incorporation of Sandy Spring Bancorp, Inc. requires indemnification of officers and directors as follows:

Subject to applicable provisions of federal law, the Corporation shall indemnify to the fullest extent permissible under the Maryland General Corporation Law any individual who is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the Corporation, and any individual who serves or served at the Corporation’s request as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, in any proceeding in which the individual is made a party as a result of his service in such capacity. An individual will not be indemnified if (i) it is established that the act or omission at issue was material to the matter giving rise to the proceeding and (a) was committed in bad faith, or (b) was the result of active and deliberate dishonesty; (ii) the individual actually received an improper personal benefit in money, property, or services; or (iii) in the case of a criminal proceeding, the individual had reasonable cause to believe that the act or omission was unlawful. In the event any litigation is brought against a director of this Corporation, authorization is hereby made to advance all expenses needed by the director to defend the lawsuit. There shall be no obligation to repay the expenses forwarded, unless it shall be determined ultimately by the Corporation, in accordance with the provisions of this Article XV and the Maryland General Corporation law, that the director shall not be entitled to indemnification.

The rights of indemnification provided for in this Article XV shall not be exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any Bylaw, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise. Rights of indemnification under this Article XV shall continue as to a person who has ceased to serve in one of the capacities listed in the immediately preceding paragraph and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such person.

Item 17. Undertakings.

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

- (i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;
- (ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement; and

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (i), (ii) and (iii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to section 13 or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement, or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is part of the registration statement.

II-2

- (2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.
- (4) That, for purposes of determining liability under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser:
- (i) Each prospectus filed by the registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(3) shall be deemed to be part of the registration statement as of the date the filed prospectus was deemed part of and included in the registration statement; and
 - (ii) Each prospectus required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424(b)(2), (b)(5) or (b)(7) as part of a registration statement in reliance on Rule 430B relating to an offering made pursuant to Rule 415(a)(1)(i), (vii) or (x) for the purpose of providing the information required by section 10(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the earlier of the date such form of prospectus is first used after effectiveness or the date of the first contract of sale of securities in the offering described in the prospectus. As provided in Rule 430B, for liability purposes of the issuer and any person that is at that date an underwriter, such date shall be deemed to be a new effective date of the registration statement relating to the securities in the registration statement to which that prospectus relates, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such effective date, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such effective date.

The registrant hereby undertakes that, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
