INFORMATION TO BE INCLUDED IN THE REPORT

Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement

On April 22, 2009, First Mariner Bank (the “Bank”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of First Mariner Bancorp, entered into an agreement (the “Consent Agreement”) with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (the “FDIC”) relating to alleged violations of consumer protection regulations relative to its fair lending practices pursuant to which it consented to the issuance of a Order to Cease and Desist, Order for Restitution, and Order to Pay (the “Order”). The Bank did not admit to the FDIC’s allegations that it discriminated against any “protected class” borrowers on a limited number of loans, many of them made to Hispanic borrowers in Northern Virginia, but agreed to settle the dispute to avoid further distraction and litigation expense. The following summaries of the Consent Agreement and the Order are qualified by reference to the actual text of such documents, copies of which are attached hereto as Exhibits 10.1 and 10.2, respectively, and incorporated herein by reference.

The Consent Agreement and Order are based on findings by the FDIC that the Bank allegedly engaged in acts of discrimination in violation of the Equal Credit Opportunity Act (the “ECOA”) and the Fair Housing Act (the “FHA”) in 2005, 2006 and 2007 and in violation of Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act (“Section 5”) in 2006 and 2007. The alleged violations of the ECOA and the FHA are based on the FDIC’s belief that the Bank charged higher prices certain Hispanic, African American and female borrowers (“Affected Borrowers”) under residential mortgage loans, in the form of discretionary interest rate and point “overages”, than it charged to similarly-situated non-minority borrowers. The alleged violations of Section 5 are based on the FDIC’s belief that the Bank’s disclosures for its payment-option adjustable-rate mortgage loans contained misleading information regarding the costs of the loans.

By signing the Consent Agreement, the Bank consented to the issuance of the Order and the FDIC agreed to take no further action against the Bank in respect of the alleged violations. The Order requires the Bank to pay up to $950,000 in restitution to the Affected Borrowers. It also imposes a civil money penalty of $50,000. The Bank had reserved $950,000 in the final quarter of 2008 to cover the cost of settling the claims of the Affected Borrowers. Other than requiring the Bank to cease and desist from violating the ECOA, the FHA and Section 5, the Bank must develop and implement policies and procedures to (i) monitor and ensure compliance with fair lending laws and disclosure laws and regulations, (ii) ensure that the costs, terms, features and risks of the loans and services are adequately disclosed to applicants, and (iii) ensure the composition, qualifications, objectivity and independence of the internal auditor, audit staff and Audit Committee. The Bank must also conduct or sponsor quarterly financial literacy and education courses where it provides residential mortgage loans. Further, the Bank is prohibited from offering “payment-option” adjustable rate mortgage loans, although the Bank ceased offering these loans in 2007. Management believes that neither the Consent Agreement nor the Order will have a material impact on the Bank’s financial performance in 2009.

This Item 1.01 contains forward-looking statements as defined by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements do not represent historical facts, but are statements about management’s beliefs, plans and objectives about the future, as well as its assumptions and judgments concerning such beliefs, plans and objectives. These statements are evidenced by terms such as “anticipate”, “estimate”, “should”, “expect”, “believe”, “intend”, similar expressions. Although these statements reflect management’s good faith beliefs and projections, they are not guarantees of future performance and they may not prove true. These projections involve risk and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those addressed in the forward-looking statements. For a discussion of these risks and uncertainties, see the section of the periodic reports that First Mariner Bancorp files with the Securities and Exchange Commission entitled “Risk Factors”.

Item 2.02 Results of Operations and Financial Condition
