Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

As previously disclosed, on May 9, 2011, Profile Technologies, Inc. (the “Company”) filed for a voluntary petition for relief under Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code (“Bankruptcy Code”) in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of New York (“Bankruptcy Court”) (Case No. 8-11-73269). On July 22, 2011, the Company filed with the Bankruptcy Court its monthly operating report for each of the following periods: (i) May 9, 2011 to May 31, 2011 and (ii) June 1, 2011 to June 31, 2011 (each report, a “Monthly Operating Report” together, the “Monthly Operating Reports”). The Monthly Operating Reports are attached as Exhibit 99.1 and Exhibit 99.2, respectively, and are incorporated herein by reference.

The information set forth in this Item 7.01 and the attached Exhibit 99.1 and Exhibit 99.2 shall not be deemed to be “filed” for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Financial Operating Data

The Company cautions investors and potential investors not to place undue reliance on the information contained in the Monthly Operating Reports, which was not prepared for the purpose of providing the basis for an investment decision relating to any of the securities of the Company. Each Monthly Operating Report is limited in scope, covers a limited time period and has been prepared solely for the purpose of complying with the monthly reporting requirements of the Bankruptcy Court. The Monthly Operating Report was not prepared in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in the United States, has not been audited by independent accountants, is in a format prescribed by applicable bankruptcy laws and is subject to future adjustment and reconciliation. There can be no assurance that, from the perspective of an investor or potential investor in the Company’s securities, each Monthly Operating Report is complete. The Monthly Operating Reports also contain information for periods which are shorter than or otherwise different from those required in the Company’s reports pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Securities Exchange Act”), and such information may not be indicative of the Company’s financial condition or operating results for the period that would be reflected in the Company’s financial statements or in its reports pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act. Information set forth in the Monthly Operating Reports should not be viewed as indicative of future results.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This report contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. One can identify these forward-looking statements by the use of words such as “projects,” “expect,” “estimated,” “possibility,” “opportunity,” “guidance,” “goal,” “will,” “may,” “intend,” “anticipates,” and other words of similar meaning. One also identifies them by the fact that they do not relate strictly to historical or current facts. These statements are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results and plans to differ materially from those included in the Company’s forward-looking statements. Factors that impact such forward-looking statements include, among others, changes in worldwide general economic conditions; government regulations; the ability of our management to successfully implement our business plan and strategy; our ability to successfully implement our business plan and strategy during a management transition period; our ability to fund our operations including the cost and availability of capital and credit; our ability to compete effectively including our ability to maintain and increase our market share in the markets in which we do business; the impact of the bankruptcy proceeding on the holders of the Company securities; and our ability to successfully develop and commercialize our products. For a more complete discussion of the risks that could affect the Company’s business and finances and cause actual results to differ materially from management’s expectations, plans, etc., please refer to the Company’s SEC filings.
